Mr. Amon G. Carter, Publisher,
Fort Worth Star-Telegram
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Mr. Carter:

I am about to start north after a rather difficult and arduous trip. I wish, However, to express in writing what I told you during our brief chat in Amarillo. National Air Transport, Inc. will be everlastingly grateful to the aggressive support which you have given Air Mail throughout Texas. You have given us what we could not buy, that is, unlimited space with your own personal enthusiasm back of it and may I ask you to use this letter in expressing our thanks to Mr. North, Mr. Pace and other of our friends on the staff of your publication.

Yours very truly,

Luther K. Bell
