Hatchet Day

Dear Mr. Carter: I have been chosen to do the life of Will Rogers, and I would like to interview you on your acquain^{tan}ceship with him. Do you come often to New York?
If so, maybe we could consumate the deed then.

I met you for a handshake, once, in Will's room^s at the Waldorf. I think you were to have breakfast with him.

I was his writer, and wrote more of his moveⁱ stories than did any other person.

Most truly yours,

H.C.
