

March 1, 1940.

Mr. Frank C. Walker, Treasurer,
The Franklin D. Roosevelt Library, Inc.,
1600 Broadway,
New York City, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Walker:

Your letter of February 21st, received during Mr. Carter's absence from the city and the writer's absence from the office on account of illness, which accounts for its not having been acknowledged.

Mr. Carter is expected home sometime next week, at which time your letter shall be brought to his attention.

Yours very truly,

Secy. to Mr. Carter.