Mr. Amon G. Carter, President
Fort Worth Star-Telegram
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Mr. Carter:

Will you please ask Mr. Yarbrough, when he sends us the funds from Texas, to let us have a blotter showing the amount of money received by Mr. Yarbrough from each of the banks and newspapers which acted as depositories.

In some cases we have been advised by these depositories that they have collected a certain sum of money and sent it to Mr. Yarbrough. This sum has been set up on our books as a receivable and in order to clear up such items, it is necessary that we have definite information that these sums are included in the total remittance.

Texas has done an excellent job and we are delighted with the results you have obtained.

Very truly yours,

John W. Elwood
