

February 13, 1936.

Mrs. Will Rogers,
Bank of America Bldg.,
Beverly Hills, Calif.

Dear Mrs. Rogers:

Mr. Carter told me that you promised, some time ago, to autograph two books for Amon, Jr., and Ruth and the thought occurred to him that you might state therein that it had been Mr. Rogers intention to autograph the books as soon as he returned from the Alaskan trip. After receiving your autograph on these two books, it is Mr. Carter's intention to ask the President and Vice-President as well as other distinguished friends to autograph the books for the children. I am sure there is nothing he would appreciate more than having your autograph precede the other names.

With best wishes, I remain

Sincerely,

Secy. to Mr. Carter.
