

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY

120 BROADWAY, NEW YORK

JOSEPH F. MANN
GENERAL COUNSEL

March 23, 1945.

Mr. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Mr. Carter:

I see that the first 1200 American prisoners from Russia have arrived at Naples on their way home and that another ship has left Russia carrying some of the several thousand of such prisoners from Odessa. Every few days I see two or three names released by the War Department, but as they are only releasing names of local boys, I have no way of knowing whether your son's name is among them or not. I am not impressed with the three monkey Departmental policy.

Sincerely yours,

Joseph F. Mann
