Dear Mr. Carter:

My Dad and myself accepted your invitation to attend the luncheon today in the Keystone Room of the Texas Hotel honoring General Sarnoff, and I want to say that we accepted the invitation with pleasure.

Some urgent business developed at 15 minutes to 12 today and we did not conclude the transaction until it was too late to attend the luncheon.

I know that we would have enjoyed it, and it was nice of you to ask us.

Yours very truly

R.E. Cox Jr.
