PLEASE READ EACH QUESTION CAREFULLY	PLEASE CIRCLE THE ANSWER THAT APPLIES TO YOU
Have you experienced any of the following symptoms in the past 48 hours: • fever or chills • cough • shortness of breath or difficulty breathing • fatigue • muscle or body aches • headache • new loss of taste or smell • sore throat • congestion or runny nose • nausea or vomiting • diarrhea	YES	(NO)
Within the past 14 days, have you been in close physical contact (6 feet or closer for a cumulative total of 15 minutes) with: • anyone who is known to have laboratory-confirmed COVID-19? OR • anyone who has any symptoms consistent with COVID-19?	YES	(NO)
Are you isolating or quarantining because you may have been exposed to a person with COVID-19 or are worried that you may be sick with COVID-19?	YES	(NO)
Are you currently waiting on the results of a COVID-19 test?	YES	(NO)

In addition, RRI team members and participants will wear facial coverings. Participants and the interviewer may remove coverings during the interview only for optimal sound purposes. They will maintain the 6-ft. distancing guideline. Should you self-report you may have been exposed to COVID-19, we will re-schedule the interview or conduct it via Zoom.

We do not believe there are any risks from participating in this research that are different from risk that you encounter in everyday life.

What are the benefits of participating in this study?
Although you will not directly benefit from being in this project, others might benefit because the study will provide critical perspectives, deepen understanding, and result in recommendations for action and healing when it comes to race relations. Indeed, the interviews will raise awareness of past and present instances of racism and inequality and thereby help the TCU community work toward a campus where everyone is respected and valued.

Will I be compensated for participating in this study?
You will not receive any payment for your participation.

What are my costs to participate in the study?
To participate in the research, you will not need to pay for anything.
