T. B. BAKER, PRESIDENT

DALLAS, TEXAS Jan. 5, 1926.

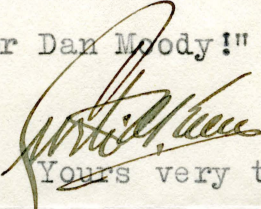

Mr. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth Star-Telegram
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Mr. Carter:

Atta-Boy, Carter! Stay in there and pitch. "Let's all have a good laugh -- it's on us," was a touch-down --as a matter of fact, it was a whole flock of touch-downs --and, to switch my simile just a little, there was a knockout in every line. I have not only chuckled until my sides are sore but I have clipped a dozen or so for some of my special friends around over the State and have sent them to them with a little comment --some of the good old Ferguson supporters in the recent election.

There is no other man ~~on~~ newspaper in the State of Texas that has the nerve to handle a thing like that as effectively as you have handled it, and I certainly want to add a hale and hearty "amen" for every line in it.

"Hurrah for Dan Moody!"

Yours very truly,

CAKeen-EC
