

May 22, 1945.

Mr. R. C. White,
Ouachita Bank Building,
Monroe, Louisiana.

Dear Mr. White:

We are so happy that you have finally been advised that your son has been liberated and hope that he will soon be home. Amon Junior called from New York Sunday night and you can well imagine how wonderful his voice sounded. He was to report immediately to Washington and from there we will have to wait further information. His Dad is still in Paris. So, I hope they will all be home again soon.

Thanking you for your letter, I am

Yours very truly,

Secy. to A. G. Carter.