Dear Amon:

Yours of the 6th is at hand this morning. We will do everything possible for Mr. Essex and will let you know the prospects a little later in the month, but I think we can take care of this gentleman.

Several regrets are coming in for the directors' meeting so it may be we will have just the executive committee meeting, but of that I will advise you later.

Best regards.

Sincerely yours,

D

A. N. Kemp

P.S. Since writing the above I find Walter will not be able to be with us, so perhaps it would be as well to cancel the executive committee meeting this month and just hold the regular directors meeting. What do you think?
