Hooser, Osburn In Race For Student Presidency

National election campaigns will take a back seat on the campus for the next five days as 47 candidates ply voters with cigars, handbills and hill billy music in the Student Association contests which will be decided at the polls Wednesday.

Six lower class representatives will be selected from among David E. Trevena, Corpus Christi; Clyde J. Moore, San Angelo; Larry H. Meeker, Fort Worth; Richard H. "Dick" Growald, Fort Worth; Miss Betty Sue Scott, Lancaster; and Haskell Davis, Houston, all sophomores.

Miss Ann Andrews, Fort Worth; Dee Porter, Vernon; Miss Francine Frank, Fort Worth; and Miss Dora Mae Turner, Waxahachie, all freshmen; and Miss Mary T. Ryerson, Ithaca, N. Y., sophomore.

Jimmy Paschal, election chairman, calls attention to the following regulations governing candidates in Wednesday's election:

1) There will be an assembly at noon Tuesday in Ed Landreth Auditorium to introduce candidates to the student body. All candidates must attend this assembly. Candidates for major offices will be allowed to speak.

2) An itemized account of campaign expenses must be turned in by each candidate to the election committee before 6 p.m. Tuesday. Expenses for each candidate must be limited to $15, with the exception that presidential candidates may spend $25 and vice-presidential candidates may spend $20.

3) Posters will be limited to size 18x20. Only two may be placed in the Administration Building. Posters in the Administration Building must be taken down by 5 p.m. Tuesday. No campaigning will be allowed in the Administration Building after midnight Tuesday.

4) No posters may be placed in the Lounge.

5) All candidates will meet at 1 p.m. today in Room 108, basement of Goode Hall, to draw for positions on the ballot.

Students will vote between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Lounge.

Clubs Will Meet With Annual Staff

All campus clubs have been urged to send a representative to a meeting with the Horned Frog staff at 4:30 p.m. Thursday in Goode Hall basement.

"This will be the one and only chance for campus organizations to get a club page in the 1951 annual," said Clyde Moore, club editor.

The club section will be handled differently this year, and it is absolutely necessary for all organizations to be represented, said Moore.

Quenna Smith Named Queen

Miss Quenna Dean Smith, Wichita Falls freshman, was named Freshman Prom Queen last night at the annual dance in the Field House.

Teddy Vaught, Lubbock sophomore, presented the queen with a gift from the sophomore class. He also read a telegram of congratulations from last year's queen, Miss Beverly Herrin, who is not in the school this year.

The queen was crowned by Bill Tatum, Lubbock junior, to the music of the Collegians.

The Collegians, new campus dance band, under the direction of Morris Repass, Littlefield junior, played their first T. C. U. dance.

The Prom was held in the replica of a medieval castle, representing the home of the new queen. The Letis, sophomore girls' club, were in charge of the decorations.

Queen judges, who watched the freshman girls promenade across the bandstand, were Dr. W. J. Hammond, chairman of the history department; Miss Kitty Wingo, assistant professor of physical education; Mrs. Ann Pearson, secretary to the dean of students; Prof. Warren K. Agee, acting chairman of the journalism department; and Jimmy Paschal, Horned Frog editor.

The Vigilantes, men's booster club, were in charge of the concession stands.

Wednesday Is Activity Card Photo Deadline

Wednesday is the deadline for having pictures made for athletic activity cards.

Students whose photographs have not been made should go to Allen Studio, 607½ Thorckmorton.

Since the photographer is busy taking pictures for all city high schools, T. C. U. students must go after 4 p.m. today or tomorrow or from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Wednesday.

Nearly all activity card photographs taken during registration are finished and cards are now being distributed from the Business Office.

To receive their cards, students must show the numbered coupons which were given out when pictures were taken.

The activity card will be required for admittance to the freshman football game tomorrow night.

Persons going to the Oklahoma A. & M. game must take the card to the Stadium Office and buy tickets before leaving for Stillwater.

Activity cards will be required for all other athletic events of the year.

Students may pick up their tickets for the Arkansas game, Oct. 7, from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Wednesday at the Stadium office.

Every person, including veterans' wives, possessing an activity card must present the card in person in order to obtain a ticket, stresses Amos Melton, business manager of athletics.

Electrical Contract Let

Shiner Electric Company, 408 East First St., has been awarded the contract for electrical work on the new science building, President M. E. Sadler announced this week. Three other Fort Worth firms already have been given work contracts on the structure.

A city building permit was issued Tuesday. Construction value was listed at $1,047,216.

The Invasion Is On!

Two Planes, Special Train Will Leave For Stillwater

T.C.U. invades Stillwater, Okla., tomorrow—over the highways, on the rails and in the air.

When the Frogs take to the turf for the second time this season against the Oklahoma Aggies at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow, a slew-pot full of Christian followers will be on hand to lend moral support.

They'll have traveled by car, train and airplane. Shut the door, Cowpokes; they'll be coming in the window.

The Stillwater Special, carrying the football players themselves and any students who wish to tag along, will leave at 10 o'clock tonight from Santa Fe station.

It is scheduled to arrive in Stillwater at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow. The train will leave Stillwater at 7 p.m. tomorrow and return here at 7 a.m. Sunday.

There is still room available for students who wish to board the special. A roundtrip chair car ticket costs $14.89. A first-class roundtrip ticket may be purchased for $19.26. Students who desire luxury privileges may be accommodated also. Lower-berth roundtrip tickets are listed at $28.81.

Time-cramped game enthusiasts may fly to the game tomorrow morning by contacting Bill Haworth at 3-7865.

Two chartered DC-3's will leave here at 10 a.m. They are scheduled to arrive in Stillwater one hour and 20 minutes later. The planes will leave approximately one hour after the game. According to Haworth, the DC-3's are scheduled to be back in Fort Worth by sundown.

Fare for the plane ride is $18.95.

For the fans who intend to drive, three routes have been suggested by the Southwest Motor Club.

The first, and the best, according to that organization, is 317 miles. Good highways are available all the way on this particular route, the motor club says.

Highway 81 to El Reno, Okla., is suggested. From there, motorists should switch to Highway 66 into Oklahoma City. Drivers are advised to take Highway 77 on to Guthrie, Okla., and Highway 33 into Perkins, Okla., Stillwater may be reached by traveling Highway 40 from that point.

If everyone is properly confused, here's the second route. This one, however, is said to run into some bad roads.

Take Highway 377 to Denton, change to Highway 77 to Guthrie. Hit Highway 33 out of Guthrie and proceed to Perkins. Then take the same Highway 40 into Stillwater. This route is 38 miles shorter, according to the motor club.

The fastest route is the third; it's 264 miles. The motor club suggests Highway 377 to Ardmore, then Highway 33 to Paul's Valley. From there, Highway 19 will get you to Stratford. From Stratford, Highway 18 will take you to the intersection of Highway 33, where you switch off to Highway 40 into Stillwater.

If at first you don't succeed, stay home and see it on television Sunday.

Enrollment, Incomplete, Totals 4107

A total of 4107 students—including 1185 veterans—had enrolled for the fall term as of Wednesday. It was announced by President M. E. Sadler. However, he added, processing of enrollments is incomplete and final figures will be issued at a later date.

Wednesday's announcement would indicate an appreciable drop in enrollment from last fall's total of 4629.

The most significant trend was noted in the decreased number of veterans. This year's total is 887 below last year's figure of 2072. However, the loss is partially offset by an increase of about 400 non-veteran students.

The breakdown below compares this fall's figures (all incomplete) with the fall of 1949:

	Fall 1950	Fall 1949
DAY SCHOOL	2703	3211
EVENING
COLLEGE	1404	1418
TOTAL	4107	4629
VETERANS	1185	2072

President Sadler said Wednesday the day school enrollment is now approaching the ultimate goal set by the Board of Trustees in 1944. It was decided at that time that the school's enrollment would be held to 2500 selected students.

However, the board's action was tabled, Dr. Sadler said, in order to fulfill the school's responsibilities under the veterans' training program.

TCU Group Hears "Quick Action" Hoped For Literacy Expert

"The poor and illiterate masses of the world don't want charity. They just want a chance to improve their lot," Dr. Frank Laubach, widely known authority on literacy, told students and faculty members at an assembly in Ed Landreth Auditorium Tuesday.

Speaking on "Literacy as a Weapon Against Communism," Dr. Laubach reminded his audience that Communists have gone to the masses and, by promising better things, convinced them that they should overthrow their governments.

"China was captured, not with guns, but with propaganda and promises. Russia isn't going to start a hot war as long as she's winning the cold war," he said.

In closing, Dr. Laubach declared that the best way to win people to democracy is to appreciate them, "rub elbows with them" and "help them up."

"Quick Action" Hoped For Religion Unit On $500,000

"Quick action" on the $500,000 School of Religion Building is hoped for, said President M. E. Sadler Tuesday, after weekend conferences with Charles Betts, advisory architect, and members of the Board of Trustees.

Betts returned to his home offices in Indianapolis, Ind., Monday, and will soon submit general plans for the three-unit project, along with cost estimates and recommendations for a building site, Dr. Sadler said.

"When the general plans are completed, we will have something concrete to present to the various boards and committees," he said.

The building will house three units—a chapel, a graduate school and an undergraduate department—and will follow the same Georgian architectural lines of the newest campus buildings.

One of the building sites under consideration lies east of University Dr., opposite the Fine Arts Building.

The cost of the chapel has already been underwritten by one friend of the University, and other friends have agreed to help substantially in the construction of the other two units, according to Dr. Sadler.

Student Ministers Serve 95 Churches

Student ministers from the religion department and Brite College of the Bible are now serving 95 churches in 86 towns in Texas, Oklahoma, and Louisiana, says the Rev. Thurman Morgan, director of ministerial students and services.

Ninety students are engaged in the work which is paid for by the congregations that are served. Trips are made once, twice, or four times monthly, and salaries paid range from $15 to $50 per visit. The student preachers must pay their own travel expenses.

Sportsmanship Trophy To Be Presented Jan. 1

Presentation of the winner's trophy at the Cotton Bowl game in January is the major change in recent legislation of the Southwest Conference Sportsmanship Committee, according to Bill Hamilton, Fort Worth senior and secretary of the committee.

The past two awards have been made in the spring, near the close of the school year. At the last meeting, the committee voted to make future presentations at the Cotton Bowl game Jan. 1. Schools will be judged from a January-to-January standpoint.

For new students here is a quick run-down on the Sportsmanship Award:

It was sponsored by Texas A. & M. and adopted by all member-schools of the Southwest Conference in 1948. Its purpose is to promote goodwill and sportsmanship among all schools, especially during athletic contests, particularly at football and basketball games.

The committee is made up of three representatives of each S. W. C. school: the student body president, school paper editor and head cheer leader.

The sponsor of the program, A. & M., was the winner the first

Brite Chapel Speakers Named for Next Week

Speakers for Brite Chapel services during the coming week have been announced by Prof. Glenn C. Routt, assistant professor of religion.

They are: Monday, Robert Boyte, Oklahoma City sophomore; Tuesday, Stan Hovatter, Birmingham graduate student; Wednesday, the Rev. Thurman Morgan, assistant to the dean of Brite College of the Bible; Thursday, Miss Billie Ruth Crout, Corpus Christi sophomore; and Friday, Tom Plumbley, El Paso graduate student.

The 20-minute chapel services begin at 12 noon, Mondays through Fridays.

7 Join Library Staff

year. Last year Rice took top honors, with T. C. U. a close second.

Taken into consideration as prerequisites are students' behavior and attitude during athletic contests, conduct of participating teams, yell leaders' behavior, attitude of host student governments and display of general good will and sportsmanship.

Hamilton emphasized the fact that although a student body may show the best of sportsmanship, a team on the field can neutralize that quickly by playing unfairly or unnecessarily roughly. One Southwest Conference school was eliminated from the running last year by bad publicity originating from just such a cause.

By putting forth real effort and co-operation, said Hamilton, T. C. U. has a good chance of winning the award this year.

Foreign Students To Be Guests Of Rotary Club

Beginning next Friday, and continuing each Friday thereafter, one of T. C. U.'s foreign students will be a guest of the Fort Worth Rotary Club under the sponsorship of the group's international service committee, headed by Dean Jerome A. Moore.

Dean Moore said the plan—began last year—had proven "highly successful." Each student will give a brief talk at the weekly sessions.

The committee plans a tour of Fort Worth for the foreign students at some later date, Dean Moore said.

Snake Expert Pays Visit

Roger Conant, curator of Philadelphia Zoological Garden since 1939, visited Prof. L. W. Ramsey of the mathematics department and Dr. John Forsyth of the biology department last Friday.

Marriage Films To Be Donated

The sociology department soon will receive five new sound films, concerning marriage and family relations, Dr. A. L. Porterfield, professor of sociology, said. The films will be made available through a gift from the Leo Potishman Foundation at T. C. U.

The foundation helps the social science department publish works in the field of social sciences.

The films will be shown in sociology classes and also loaned to such organizations as Parent-Teacher Association groups, churches and clubs, Dr. Porterfield said.

Potishman is a Fort Worth grain executive.

Transcript Issues Make New Record

Registrar S. W. Hutton announced yesterday that his office had issued a record number of transcripts from June 1 to Sept. 18—a total of 1686.

"To the best of my knowledge, that represents the heaviest volume of transcripts we've handled during any period of four and one-half months," he said.

The average of about 15 transcripts per day during that period brought in revenue totaling $232.80, Mr. Hutton added. A fee is collected for each transcript after the first one issued to each student.

Program Is Indorsed

The journalism program at T. C. U. has been indorsed by the American Society of Journalism School Administrators, and Prof. Warren K. Agee, acting chairman of the department, has been elected to membership in the association.

Notification of the dual action was received this week by Prof. Agee.

61 Obtain Jobs Through Bureau

Jim Burton, student employment assistant, reports he has had 131 requests for part-time employment since the beginning of the fall semester. Sixty-one students have been placed, he said.

Because of the present emergency, jobs are easier to obtain than in the past, and the student employment office continues to receive many requests.

About half of those seeking jobs are women, Burton said. He explained that he has more difficulty placing women than men, because most of the girls are freshmen and have had no previous experience or want employment on the campus, and there are not enough jobs to go around.

For that strong-backed lad who is not allergic to yard work, or the aspiring salesman, there is always an abundance of work, Burton said.

For that guy or gal who is short on change and wants to earn "three squares" a day, he added, the Cafeteria always has a number of vacancies.

Thompson Receives $50 Math Award

James Chilton Thompson, Fort Worth junior, received a $50 tuition award this summer for outstanding work in the Parabola Club. Thompson is majoring in mathematics and physics.

Applications were submitted to the Parabola scholarship committee, headed by Miss Ina Mae Bramblett, assistant professor of mathematics.

Seiler, C.P.A., Survives Test

Cheer up! Those two-hour final tests that seem to outlast eternity are only fleeting moments.

Consider the prospects of taking the C. P. A. test given by the State Board of Public Accountancy. If you are allergic to long tests, you'd better call the whole thing off or be prepared to suffer the results, for the C. P. A. test is a three-day examination — covering questions on law, accounting theory, accounting and auditing.

Robert E. Seiler, '49 T. C. U. graduate with the B. S. in Commerce degree, vouches to this fact, for he has just received his C. P. A. certificate.

He was the first student to register for the new graduate program offered by the School of Business and is assistant instructor in accounting.

After being graduated from T. C. U., Seiler took a job with Lennox Furnace Company of Fort Worth as chief cost accountant. Here he received the required practical experience to qualify for the accounting practice portion of the examination.

Only about 24 per cent of persons who take the test pass it, Mr. Seiler says.

The C. P. A. certificate in Texas is also valid in 45 other states and the District of Columbia.

Ma Snodgrass' Dotter Nell 'Gonna Be Jes Dandy' Here

BY DAN JENKINS

It was, as I recall, in front of my 9 MWF Coffee class where I found the letter—the same letter which hurled me into unabbreviated periods of thigh-slapping, sprinkled throughout with occasional guffaws.

I had stooped over to lace my shoe, and to examine the gams of a shapely coed, who, like myself, had come for her early-morning curds and whey, when I spotted the un-postmarked envelope.

Chancing federal arrest (and hoping for a substantial money order) I snatched the dispatch and read it. But, shucks, it was merely a letter from freshman student Ira Nell Snodgrass to her mother in Twin-Filling Stations, Tex.

No check, no money order, just a plain letter from Ida Nell to her white-haired old mother, who, I supposed, was waiting diligently by Dobbin's stall for word from her daughter who had galavanted off to "git some schoolin'."

Die? I thought I'd laugh.

Feeling it my duty, both as a student of the University and as an advocate of the Better Farm Implements Program, I hereby submit the note in its entirety for your approval.

"Dear Ma:

"This her's yer girl, Ida Nell, rightin home lettin ye know thet everthins hunky-dory. These here folks shore ere nice. Shucks, Ah hawdly gut on the campus fore they tuck and thrun me in one a them regystration lines over to the book larnin place.

"They guv me one of them purty pink cards. Shucks, Ma, it sorta matches them britches Uncle Lon guv me fer Xmas last. Then they slapped one of them fancy green caps on me. It kinda reminded me of the one them fellers guv Cousin Wilbur down at Huntsville . . . septin his had them blue and white stripes on it.

"Donche be a-worrien 'bout me, Ma. Alla folks here done tuck keer of me. Yestidy, one real nice feller sold me his elevator ticket fer half price, only $5. An tomorry, Ah kin buy a Football-Player-Date-Card fer only 10 bucks.

"Ah'm gonna do lack ye said, Ma, and get me a feller. Thought Ah had one yestidy, but thet new hold Pa learnt me didn't work. Ah'd gut one last night, septin they wouldn't let me in the freshman dancet. They claimed my dress wasn't fitten. Shucks, back home Clem Hatfield never minded burlap.

McGuirk . . . Nothing to Say

Now U. S. Citizen

Artist McGuirk Met King, Queen

Robert McGuirk is a freshman. He is also a recent American—since Nov. 22, 1948—and considers himself a full-fledged nephew of Uncle Sam.

And he is a cartoonist. Not that he believes his work will threaten the more famous artists, but he is a talented young man with a pencil and paper and his sense of humor shines from his cartoons.

He is a native of Montreal, and has enrolled with the Canadian Merchant Navy, the Canadian Army and the United States Navy.

In London, with the Canadian Navy, McGuirk met the King and Queen. He happened to be in a service center when Their Majesties made a "pop" call to talk with service men. He admits he couldn't think of a thing to say.

While on furlough from the Canadian Army, he found time to hitch-hike through 42 states—in Army planes, in a state patrol car, on a Greyhound bus, with a representative from California, with cross-country truckers and with a family that reminded him of "Tobacco Road."

"I still think this is one of the best ways to become acquainted with a new land—and the United States was new to me then," he said.

"After that trip I was ready to sign up for Social Security."

Joining the United States Navy was a ticklish matter. McGuirk was still a citizen of Canada. After considerable thought he decided he would join, then tell the authorities about his lack of citizenship and see what happened.

According to McGuirk, the Navy balanced his previous honorable service against court-martial, imprisonment and deportation and permitted him to stay.

While with the Navy, Bob met his future wife, a nurse in the Air Force.

"The day after I met her," he commented, "I wondered how an officer would react if proposed to by an enlist-ed man."

Shortly after their marriage she was transferred to Carswell Air Force Base and it was here he decided to further his education.

McGuirk plans to use his ability as a cartoonist as a stepping stone into newspaper work. He feels that cartoons should be plain and simple, with the meaning conveyed by a first glance.

Most readers have no difficulty in "getting the point" of a McGuirk cartoon.

Letters to the Editor

More Car Space

To The Editor:

As a student of Texas Christian University for the past three years, I have found the parking facilities around the T. C. U. campus to be very inadequate.

There could be ample parking space provided in a more accessible location to the classrooms. The east campus parking area is so far from classrooms that a person would do well to leave his car at home and ride a bus.

I, and many others with whom I have talked, see no logical reason why parking should not be permitted along either side of University Drive in front of the Administration Building and the Library. This is a divided street and is amply wide enough to accommodate parked cars without interfering with traffic going either way. This area alone would provide parking space for fifty or a hundred cars, and it would be nearer a larger number of the classrooms.

If your paper would get behind a move for better parking facilities, I feel sure you would have full support of every student in T. C. U.

Leaving Us? Get Withdrawal Slips

In an advance effort to decrease the number of students who withdraw from school without going through the proper channels, Dr. Thomas Richardson, dean of students, has come out with a timely reminder.

When a student decides to withdraw from the University, he must go to the registrar's office and obtain proper withdrawal forms, Dr. Richardson said.

"Until he does that," the dean explained, "he is still enrolled in school and his tuition is being expended. Also the veteran's G. I. eligibility is still in force."

Dr. Richardson explained that in an emergency the student should notify his office and proper arrangements would be made to terminate the student's status.

The dean cautioned that because of the V. A. rules it is doubly necessary for veterans to observe the withdrawal regulations.

Spirit Not All Yell Cafeteria Habits Need Correcting

To The Editor:

Sometime during the course of every school year there arises a discussion of "school spirit," that elusive state of mind so essential to a school's well-being. I write from the standpoint of one who has been converted to that state fairly recently.

The discussion of this subject generally comes after the first major football disappointment. I am writing now, before the season starts, because I include much more than attendance and yelling in my idea of "school spirit."

Its presence or absence depends upon the attitudes of students and faculty alike, attitudes which shape their entire college life. The person who yells his lungs out in the stadium, but will not lend his support to campus projects and activities, is still on the short end.

Student elections are coming, groups and clubs are organizing, and social events are being planned. Students and teachers are giving their time, energy and talents to make our years here fuller and more enjoyable. Let's pitch in and help them.

Martin A. Turner Jr.

Cafeteria Habits Need Correcting

Drink your water out of a water glass instead of an iced tea glass. Use a straw for bottle beverages.

Follow these two rules, student, and you'll make Mrs. Helen Orbeck, Cafeteria dietician, a happy woman. And you may even get a pat on the back from Emily Post.

Mrs. Orbeck explained that misuse of glasses slows down the chow line. And hungry students, according to Mrs. Orbeck, do not wish their chow lines slowed down.

Also, glutton, it isn't etiquet to pile your plate with bread—that you will never eat. Too much waste tends to lower the quality of the food, Mrs. Orbeck says.

Let's keep our digestive juices on the right tract!

TOM TOM

Football coaches are a unhappy lot—to hear them tell it. Every season they haul out the crying towel and shed big tears when thinking about their team's prospects for the coming campaign.

Quite naturally, there are exceptions. Otis Douglas, the Arkansas Razorbacks' new head coach, is one of these.

Douglas could see no cause for alarm after looking over his candidates. The Porkers were loaded with talent, two lettermen deep at every position, and were rated as the dark horse of the Southwest Conference.

But at Stillwater, Okla., there was nothing but doubt, apprehension, and gloom. J. B. "Ears" Whitworth, appraised his Oklahoma A. & M. squad and let it be known that he would be doing well to field 11 men who could stand up to a good stiff breeze.

After firing a few slackers last spring, Whitworth had, with the aid of draft and reserve calls, cut his returning lettermen from 33 to a mere 13.

The Cowpokes invaded the Arkansas hills to challenge the powerful Hogs. Arkansas was installed as a three-touchdown choice.

And why not? The Porkers were big, fast and rugged, while the Aggies had only 18 able-bodied men. The remainder of the team would see action only in emergency. That's what the man said, anyhow.

We had cautiously spotted the Aggies seven points and then began to wonder if 40 would not have been a better guess.

The final score, you know, was Aggies 12, Hogs 7. All of which is the height of something or other.

Maybe Whitworth was sincere, or maybe he underestimated his team, or maybe his players just played inspired ball.

Whichever be the case, maybe the Frogs would do well to play it close to the vest tomorrow when they take the field against the poor little Cowpokes.

The Kansas Jayhawkers were primed and ready for T. C. U. last Saturday as they fought the Frogs to a standstill through 57 minutes.

T. C. U. worked up a sustained offensive only once and that was stalled by a fumble.

The Frogs' passing game was almost completely stymied, except for the touchdown pass from Gil Bartosh to Wilson George. Amos Melton, athletic publicity director, is unable to recall any game in which T. C. U. failed to make a first down passing.

The Tom-Tom got off to a flying start last week, calling five of six games, including an on-the-nose figure on the Baylor-Wyoming game. So, with fingers crossed and coins tossed, here we go again.

T. C. U. over Oklahoma A. & M. by 14 points—We'll root, root, root for the old team.

Arkansas over North Texas by 12 points—Maybe they will be cocky when they get to Fort Worth.

Texas A. & M. over Texas Tech by 6 points—The Aggies like the taste of victory.

Baylor over Houston by 18 points—And the new stadium is successfully dedicated.

Rice over Santa Clara by 14 points—Here, too.

Texas over Purdue by 21 points—And the Phillies in the National league.

S. M. U. over Ohio State by 14 points—That boy Rote is a pretty fair football player.

Notre Dame over North Carolina by 18 points—Poor Leahy.

Oklahoma over Boston College by 14 points—And Wilkinson.

Kentucky over Mississippi by 21 points—The Wildcats are rough.

Freshmen, Juniors Win Intramural Grid Openers

The Freshmen edged the Sophomores 25-19 and the Juniors defeated the Seniors 21-7 Tuesday in the lid-openers of the intramural football season.

The Freshmen scored touchdowns on a 24-yard pass from Barry Hall to Jack Hayward, a 2-yard plunge by Don Boswell, a kick-off runback by Todd Martin and a pass interception and runback by Paul Moody. Boswell ran over for the lone Freshman point-after touchdown.

For the Sophomores, scoring came on an end run by Eddie Nicholas and passes from Phillip Jordan to Charlie Webster for 32 yards and from Bob Christopher to Blair Hankins for 30 yards. Hankins passed to Nicholas for the extra point.

In the game between the upperclassmen, the Seniors scored in the first quarter on a pass from Floyd Sanders to Charles Roberts and Buster Locke kicked the point.

The Juniors held their opponents scoreless the rest of the game while piling up 21 points.

Three touchdowns came on passes from the arm of David Easterling. James Wilson caught one in the first quarter.

Charley Jackson Bows Out; Will Finish Season As Coach

BY DAVID DICKINSON
Co-Captain Charley Jackson last week hung up Purple jersey No. 41 for the final time, bowing out of his senior season as the result of a chronic knee injury.

The popular halfback quit the squad before the Kansas trip in order to "make room for somebody who can do the team some good."

The trick knee prevented Jackson from playing a down last year and failed to show much sign of holding up to the rigors of the 1950 schedule.

The joint recently was re-injured during a place-kicking drill. The original wound was received in the 1949 Oil Bowl all-star high school football game, only a few days before the 170-pounder enrolled at T. C. U.

Jackson led Horned Frog backs in pass-receiving as a freshman in 1946 and that same year played prominent role in a stunning upset victory over the University of Texas, knocking the defending champion Longhorns out of a second straight conference title.

In 1947 Jackson ranked third in the pass-receiving department and was second in punt returns, trailing his room-mate, Lindy Berry, who led the nation in run-backs in 1947.

Despite his injuries, Jackson earned football awards in 1946-48 and is a member of the "T" Association, campus lettermen organization.

Jackson was named to all-district teams as a guard and tailback while playing for Denison High School and captained the Yellow Jackets as a junior and senior.

Cheerful Charley will finish out his college gridiron career as backfield assistant to Wog Coach Walter Roach. Jackson never made an all-conference selection, but there is little doubt that he deserves the "hard luck" trophy for 1950.

T. C. U. Faces Real Test Against Cowpokes

Frogs Begin New Romance; Court Lady Luck in Kansas

Lady Luck flitted about with abandon at Lawrence, Kan., Saturday, but when the chips were down, she dropped right in the laps of T. C. U.'s embattled Horned Frogs.

The Frogs rose to the occasion. With less than three minutes remaining Quarterback Gil Bartosh rifled a 28-yard scoring toss to End Wilson George to give T. C. U. a 14-7 victory over the Kansas Jayhawkers.

Only seconds before, the Hawkers, to all appearances, had won the game on an 89-yard gallop by the Kansans' sizzling sophomore, Charley Hoag.

But a holding penalty nullified the touchdown and the score remained 7-7. A short punt followed, the Frogs drove to the eight, were penalized to the 28, from where Bartosh threw the game winning pass.

T. C. U. scored first, midway through the initial quarter, when Fullback Bobby Jack Floyd plunged over from the two-yard line. The touchdown was set up by Halfback Malvin Fowler, who intercepted a pass on the Kansas 42 and returned it to the 28, from where the Frogs went over in eight plays.

The Hawkers roared back to knot the count three minutes later, covering 66 yards on six plays. The pay-off came on a 22-yard pass from Hoag to Fullback John Amberg.

From there on, until the big break, both teams settled down to an even battle. Each team fumbled five times, with the Frogs recovering six.

The sophomore-loaded Kansans held an edge in rushing, 183 to 177 yards, and passing, 104 to 46 yards. But they still pay off on the final score.

Halfbacks Johnny Dunn and John Medanich generated the bulk of the Frog attack, gaining a total of 132 yards. Dunn carried 13 times for 85 yards and Medanich nine times for 47 yards. Homer "Golden Toe" Ludiker got off to a perfect 1950 start, converting after both Frog touchdowns.

After looking forward to a breather with supposedly weak Oklahoma A. & M., the Frogs now find they will be playing an Oklahoma tornado which downed highly-touted Arkansas last week, 12-7. The Aggies were the team that went into the game as 20 point underdogs with only 18 men to go on the field.

Walter Roach, freshman grid coach, who scouted the game, says the Cowpokes were in splendid condition for the season opener and it was no fluke that they came out on the long end of the score.

To make things blacker, the Horned Frogs must go against the Aggies with three right halves on the injured list. Halfbacks Malvin Fowler, John Medanich and Jim Hickey all have leg injuries. Hickey will probably play and Medanich has an outside chance of seeing a little action. But Fowler is expected to be out for two or three weeks at least.

Billy Moorman is off the injury list and will be ready, while Tom Evans can play if necessary.

John Morton has been switched to right half from his fullback berth and gets a chance to prove he can still step out as he did last year against Texas, Rice and S. M. U.

Gil Bartosh has assumed the starting offensive quarterback slot, at least temporarily, and sophomore guards Hubert Parrett and Herbert Zimmerman will be defensive starters.

The Frog line will be facing two hard-charging backs in Darrell Meisenheimer, guard converted to right half, and John Grabko, fullback. Meisenheimer turned in some good ground gains for the Aggies against the powerful Hog line while Grabko, although injured last week, may see limited action.

The team will leave Santa Fe Station at 10 p. m. today, accompanied by a small contingent of students on the Stillwater Special.

Stay-at-homes will have to be content with a play-by-play account of the game over WBAP-820 at 1:20 p. m. tomorrow or the movies of the game over WBAP-TV at 2:45 p. m. Sunday.

Sidelined

Malvin Fowler, highly touted sophomore halfback, will be lost to the Frogs for several weeks because of a knee injury suffered in the Kansas game.

From 1929 through 1933 Francis Schmidt's Frog squads won 46 games, lost six and tied five. His poorest seasons showed nine won, two lost and one tied in 1930, 1931 and 1933.

Looney Gets a Free Tour Of 'Baseball Nutty' Japan

BY TOMMEY THOMPSON

Playing before 310,000 fans in eight games is an experience of which few baseball players may boast, especially in the non-professional ranks.

That was the attendance mark hung up by the Fort Wayne, Ind., Capeharts during their all-expenses-paid tour of Japan early this month, reports Bill Looney, Saltillo senior and Frog catcher.

The Capeharts were awarded the trip after they swept to their fourth consecutive title in the annual National Baseball Congress Tournament at Wichita, Kan., in August. Looney earned a berth on the 19-man squad when the No. 2 Fort Wayne catcher was unable to make the journey. The husky T. C. U. backstop, who won all-Conference recognition last spring, played with the Alpine Cowboys during the summer. The Cowboys, who won the Texas title, were knocked out of the tournament by Capeharts.

"They're baseball nutty," says Looney of the Japanese fans. And the Nip players produce a more than capable brand of baseball, as proved by their four victories in eight games.

The Americans were at a disadvantage, however, for the final five contests.

In Osaka, after the third contest, which was the only game the Yanks lost in their best-four-of-seven series with the Japanese amateur champions, the Capeharts were entertained by a wealthy Japanese personage.

The ensuing dinner was the cause of all their trouble. The dancing girls were much easier to take than the unfamiliar courses on the menu, Looney says.

Despite their discomfiture, however, the Yanks went on to win the series before losing three straight to two professional teams. An injury to his throwing hand had sidelined the regular Capehart catcher and left Looney to shoulder the burden.

Although he made only four hits, including two triplets, in 16 tries, Bill was pleased with his defensive work, at which he excels. He thwarted every one of four base-stealing attempts.

The team made the trip, sponsored by N. B. C., by air. Time consumed from Wichita to Tokyo, by way of Seattle and Anchorage, Alaska, was 36 hours and 40 hours on the return flight.

Linebacker Keith Flowers was named to the high school all-America in 1948 while playing fullback at Perryton High School.

Wogs To Face Blueriders In '50 Opener Tomorrow

Braced by six all-state players, T. C. U.'s untried Wogs take on Arlington State College Blueriders at T. C. U. Stadium tomorrow at 8 p. m.

The probable starting lineup will read: ends, Bernard "Corky" Brown and Guy Thompson; tackles, Morgan Williams and R. C. Harris; guards, Kenneth Lambert and John Ramfield; center, Ike Billings; quarterback, Danny Powell; halfbacks, Glen "Bubba" Jones and Daniel Hallmark, and fullback, W. O. "Rusty" McCollum.

The backfield is strong but the team appears to lack the over-all depth of last year's once-beaten squad.

Coach Walter Roach said that he will not use an offensive and defensive team as such in the first game. The team will operate from the same formations as the varsity, single wing, double wing, and t-wing, he said.

Arlington already has one game under its belt, having beaten Ranger College, 13-7 Saturday.

Students must show activity cards for admittance. The cards are being distributed at the Business Office.

Osburn Defeats SMU's Crawford

Dixon Osburn substantially raised his hopes for capturing the Southwest Conference singles title Sunday when he defeated last year's conference champ, Ken Crawford of S. M. U., 1-6, 8-6, 6-2.

The match was played as a part of a series between Fort Worth and Dallas.

LOTS OF NEW SPORTSWEAR NOW READY!

New Band Sweetheart Bussed, Hugged, Happy

BY BOB MILLER

A slender freshman girl shyly picked her way down the steps that led to the director's podium in the center of the room. Reaching the center, she glanced upward at the crowd of students sitting silently and expectantly before her.

Then Nolley Vereen, Greensboro, N. C., senior, stepped forward, took the girl's hand and turned to the audience.

"Here's our choice, fellows, Miss Jo McNeil — 1950-51 sweetheart of the Horned Frog Band."

Immediately the big rehearsal room resounded with applause.

Vereen, the band president, hugged Jo briefly, then left her standing alone facing the 71 applauding band members, including the majorettes and flag-twirlers.

As shouts of "speech, speech" filled the air, the blonde Miss McNeil was visibly shaken with emotion. Her hands trembled as she tried to hide the tears from her newly acquired friends.

Finally, she cleared her voice. "Thanks—very much."

That was all she managed before she choked up again.

Half embarrassed and smiling, but on the verge of tears, she went back up the steps, considerably faster this time, and headed toward the door. On the way out she was hugged again, this time by Jim Guthrie, Waco sophomore, who had introduced her as a candidate.

And thus Miss Jo McNeil is now a member of the Horned Frog Band.

As a member she will attend all home and out-of-town games with the band, and march with the aggregation in parades.

Such acclaim is not new to the green-eyed freshman from West Texas. Last year her home town picked her as "Miss Denver City of 1949" in a local beauty contest, and she was a drum majorette in high school.

She will be formally presented to the student body during the first home game, Oct. 7, when T. C. U. plays the University of Arkansas. Band members will form the letters "JO" and she will receive a bouquet of flowers and a kiss from the drum major, Frank Kasco, Fort Worth graduate student.

"It was all so sudden, and was over before I knew just what had happened," she smiled, when asked about her election.

Jo's first duty as sweetheart will be to accompany the band to Stillwater, Okla., for the game tomorrow.

For the past two weeks the band has been preparing its half-time activities for this game. Marching to the strains of the "Fight Song," the musicians will advance to the 50-yard line, where they will form an oil derrick. A drill, composed of the majorettes, will march down from the top of the derrick. When the majorettes reach the bottom, "oil" will shoot out, this being formed by two majorettes carrying a long piece of cloth.

From this position the band will cross the field, forming its swing position, and will play Director Lewis' Gillis' arrangement of "Caravan."

Bid Submitted For ROTC Unit

T. C. U. may have its first Reserve Officers Training Corps units next fall, President M. E. Sadler announced this week.

Application was submitted by the school Monday "through channels" for "an R. O. T. C. unit or units" to begin training here in the fall of 1951, Dr. Sadler said.

At a meeting of department heads last weekend, he said, it was agreed that the school could handle a specialized training program which would include one or more of the following: chemical warfare, signal corps, transportation and ordnance units.

It is not anticipated that any infantry or artillery units would be included under the proposed program.

'The Mirror' Auditions Arranged for Monday

Auditions will be held at 3 p.m. Monday for two 30-minute radio shows to be directed by Charles Henson, instructor of radio and television.

Any student may try out for roles, including the 60 persons who auditioned last week. "The Mirror" is the title for the program.

Work will begin next week on the first show to be presented by the Speech-Drama 328 Radio Workshop class. Entitled "Flight to Fairyland," the show appeals to children from 5 to 10 years of age.

The 15-minute shows are presented to radio stations free of charge.

McCorkle Named Fraternity Official

Dr. T. Smith McCorkle, dean of the School of Fine Arts, has been appointed province governor for Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, honorary music fraternity.

T. C. U. has had a chapter for two years.

On Oct. 10, at Dallas, Dean McCorkle will address the National Association of Educational Philosophy.

He is scheduled to speak Nov. 13 to the San Antonio Music Teachers Association at San Antonio.

Prof. Metcalf Named To St. Stephen's Post

John Glenn Metcalf, associate professor of organ, has been appointed minister of music at St. Stephen's Presbyterian church. He will assume his duties Sunday.

Metcalf came to Fort Worth Sept. 1. Previously he had taught at the University of Illinois, Hendrix College and Central College.

He received his B. A. degree from Arkansas College, his Bachelor of Music from the University of Illinois and his Master of Music from the University of Michigan.

He is a member of the American Guild of Organists and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia.

Leading Roles Announced For Season's First Play

Lead roles in the season's first play, "Three Men on a Horse," have been announced.

Taking the male leads will be Bob Cornell, Ithaca, N. Y., junior, Bill Lewis, Fort Worth sophomore; and Philip Minor, Fort Worth graduate student.

Feminine roles will be portrayed by Miss Dee Harris, Fort Worth junior, and Miss Nancy Heman, Fort Worth, sophomore.

The three-act comedy will be presented Oct. 24-28.

Auditions will be held Tuesday and Wednesday for the cast of the second play, "Nathan, the Wise." The cast will not be limited to speech-drama majors; any student interested in play production may audition.

Copies of the comedy may be obtained in the library of the Fine Arts Building.

Thursday and Friday auditions will be held for another production which will be presented in the "arena" or "theater-in-the-round" style.

The play will be "The Damask Cheek," by Van Druton, author of "The Voice of the Turtle." It will be presented Nov. 16.

Both actors and audience will be on the Little Theater stage. Bleachers will be set up on the stage and the acting area will be approximately 25x25.

The play, first of its kind at T. C. U., is meant as an experiment to determine if the actors, and local patrons, enjoy productions of this type.

Mundhenke Book Just Off Press

"This Human Adventure," written by Dr. H. R. Mundhenke, chairman of the department of economics, has just been published by the Leo Potishman Foundation of T. C. U.

The new text is now being taught in two sections of Social Science 312a. It is intended to give freshmen a picture of "what we do in groups."

The book centers around the theme of American democracy, with one chapter devoted to its meaning.

"It is believed the text will prove useful in classes in junior colleges and teachers' colleges—not only for introductory courses in social science but in courses for teachers who intend to teach social sciences," Dr. Mundhenke said.

The text is now available in multilith printing with a flexible cover. The price is $3, less the usual 20 per cent discount to teachers and libraries.
