There's one little hitch! Besides the matter of obtaining wagons—day—has stumped Fagan and Prexy Mary Claude Scott. those two promise a good hay or no hay.

Orators Will Compete For War Bonds—Girls' Festival Plans Made

Dates for the 31st annual Gough Oratorical Contest and the second annual all-girl Reading Festival have been tentatively set for the last week in June or the first week in July, according to Prof. Lew D. Fallis.

The reading festival, instituted in 1944 by Prof. Fallis, will follow the Gough contest by one week.

Dr. Roy Gough, A. M. '18, sponsor of the contest, will preside and make the oratorical prize awards. First prize will be a $50 war bond, second prize a $25 war bond and third prize $10 in war stamps.

Subjects for the Gough contest must be original and run between 10 and 12 minutes. James Fairbrook won the 1944 contest with his "What Price Religious Freedom."

Subject matter for the all-girl Reading Festival may be taken from prose or poetry. Original selections will not be acceptable. Time for the reading selections must not run over eight minutes.

Miss Ann Barham placed first in the 1944 Reading Festival and was given a plaque. Sponsored by the speech department, the 1944 Reading Festival was the initial contest of the annual affair.

Dean Jerome Moore will give the scripture reading. President M. E. Sadler will present the names. Individual tributes will be made by different persons for each man who is to be memorialized.

1909 Antics, (Human) Cat Fight, "The Damask Cheek" Fun

Bob Matheny and Jake Swindell have been cast as "loving" others in the Dramatic Club's production of John van Druten's "The Damask Cheek," scheduled for Jan. 25 and 26. This casting, according to the rest of the Dramatic Club members, is the purest of irony. The fields finger of fate also Mrs. Katherine Norton's choice the feminine lead and substitute Miss Ann Barham. Certain members of the club secretly with relief at this occurrence. It is the consensus of these members that Miss Barham has gotten her teeth into her first glove-fitting role.

As if fate hadn't done enough, Mrs. Norton got wind of a kick caused by the more conventional forms of "heck" and "dern" that were used in the September production of "Village Green." As a result, Mrs. Norton's blue pencil, often over the voiced complaints of the entire company, has taken out several lines. However, where a dramatic point was to be sacrificed, the blue penciling came out second best.

Nevertheless, the play will be funny because it strikes close to the rules of behavior of the current T. C. U. generation. Laughter will be provoked by the innocent forms of amusement which were undercover affairs in 1909.

In general, the performance will be professional and entertaining enough to warrant the 50 cents admission. A great deal will depend on whether the lady-like Miss Grada Lindsay can let her hair down when she cat-fights with Miss Barham.

Mrs. Norton refuses to name her most promising actors of this production, but a bad guess wouldn't be Misses Dorothy Nies and Peggy Faught. Miss Barham will probably give the most professional performance. Bob Matheny will give a good portrayal of Bob Matheny—which, as far as the play is concerned, is another stroke of luck. Miss La Verne Fenny will also be remembered by the audience.

The situation of "The Damask

Cheek" is created when a 30 year old English spinster, Rhoda McDermid (Ann Barham), visits her domineering aunt, Mrs. Randall (Dorothy Nies), in the New York of 1909. Though she isn't aware of it herself, Rhoda is in love with her cousin, Jimmie Randall (Bob Matheny), who finds himself engaged to a hard bitten actress, Calla Longstreth (Grada Lindsay).

Until an unexpected kiss from Ladies' Man Neil Harding (Eddie Simpson), Rhoda takes no positive action in getting her man. The Largest athletic feed of the year scheduled for Tuesday night—the annual Frog Dinner, given by the University, at the Fort Worth Club. Big two-pound steaks that melt in your mouth are a tradition at this feed, but, from what one hears about the steak situation nowadays, it may be chicken this year! It's at this annual dinner that the battery is recharged for next season's grid fight.

Frog Flashes

Gene Schmidt, Coach Hub's leading scorer, has been classified I-A. Tommy Gatzek, already I-A, did not return to school from the Frogs' holiday eastern trip. Virgin Thornburg has been declared ineligible, due to an irregularity in his transfer from another school. T. L. Griffin injured an ankle early in the week and the medicos say he may be out of action several weeks. Hub may have to call out the volunteers in order to play out the cage schedule, just as Hugh did in the middle of the 1942 grid campaign.

T. C. U. and Baylor have not been able to get together on a date for a football game next fall. For two years, the Bears have not competed. Then the Baylor board decided to renew competition in 1945. In the meantime, T. C. U. had had an opportunity to sign a three-year contract with the University of Oklahoma on the vacated Baylor date (last Saturday in November). So, until 1947 at least, that date is not available for Baylor. Coach Meyer offered the Bears the last Saturday in September—listed as an "Open Date" on the 1945 schedule announced today—but Baylor has yet agreed to that date.

Coach Meyer is in Columbus, Mo., attending the annual conclave of the National Football Coaches' Association. He left in a mood to contend long and vigorously for a change in the kick-off rule. Meyer thinks the rule should be changed to require the kick-off to be in bounds. However, most observers seem to feel that nothing will be done about rules for the duration.

The campus will be well represented in the Golden Gloves Tournament coming up. Already entered are James Cooper, Jack Emby, Marcell Soudley and Bill Smith. CPO W. W. Wearre is promising several other promising athletes-slingers. Cooper was a pocket gloves winner in Big Spring in 1942, and Fort Worth A. A. F. light-heavyweight list in 1944.

The Frog cagers will not play the Hamline University Pipers in Kansas City, Jan. 20 because of the professionalism verdict handed down by the A. A. U. There is talk of scheduling another contest for the date, but nothing definite is known just now.

Everything points to one victory and one defeat for the Frogs on their South Texas jaunt. They should be able to take the Aggies at College Station tonight, but it will be little short of a miracle if they hold the strong Rice Owls in Houston tomorrow night. Many figure the Owls will cop the victory without too much trouble.

Coach Hub Optimistic As Frogs Go South To Play Aggies, Owls

After starting their conference basketball campaign with a victory, Texas Christian's basketballers go back to the hardwood wars this week-end with games tonight and tomorrow night in College Station and Houston, respectively. Tonight the Frogs face the Texas Aggies and go against the Rice Owls tomorrow night.

Following a week of conditioning and stressing fundamentals, Coach Hub McQuillan is quite optimistic of his club's chances against the Aggies and the Owls. Several hours daily this week have been devoted to building up "surprises" which McQuillan hopes to spring against his two foes.

Probable starters for both nights include Max Mohnke and Hoot Gibson, guards; Gene Schmidt, center; and Leroy ("Mutt") Pasco and Ron Pearson, forwards. Mohnke, 1944 A. & M. cage captain, has been named a definite starter by McQuillan. He will also captain the club for the Aggie tilt.

The Frogs will rule as slight favorites in tonight's game due to their impressive victory over Texas last week while the Aggies were bowing to Rice, 53-22.

Aggie starters include Milton Cherno, Bob Collins, Dub Ellis, Bill McCormick and Charles Weinbaum. Cherno is the high-scorer of the outfit, Ellis the towering goal tender.

The Frogs' main worry in tomorrow's tilt will be Bill Henry, the Owls' 6-8 center, who set both seasonal and game scoring records for the conference last season. But the Owls are definitely not a one-man team.

Coach Joe Davis has Dick Whier, 6-3 forward; Bob Foley, 6-1, at the other forward post; Henry at center; and Murray Mendenhall and Dick Noonan at guards. Mendenhall has been an early season sensation. He was an all-state performer at Fort Wayne, Ind., when his team won the state title in 1943.

The Frog squad left early today for College Station and will return early Sunday.

First-Half Spurt Earns Frogs 39-38 Victory

Holding their opposition in check with an air-tight zone defense while scoring freely with a fast break, the Frog cagers ran up a wide margin early in the game and held on to a slight lead throughout the second half, to turn back the University of Texas, 39 to 38, last Friday night in the Basketball Gymnasium. It was the opening Southwest Conference game for both clubs.

The Frogs were off to a fast start on field goals by Gene Schmidt and Jordan Rothbart, but Steers Joe Crowley and Bob Horner kept the Longhorns in the game. Then Schmidt and V-12ers Ron Pearson and Max Mohnke combined in the Frog scoring and the Christians walked off the court at intermission holding a 21-to-14 lead.

Four civilian members of the Frogs took over—Schmidt, Rothbart, Keith Hensley and Leroy ("Mutt") Pasco—and, with only five minutes gone in the last half, the Frogs were out in front 31 to 18.

From this point Coach Bully Gilstrap used fresh reserves while Coach Hub McQuillan's charges tired fast. Jack Wallace, Don Wooten and Bob Cleary began to hit long shots with amazing accuracy and pulled the Frogs out of their zone into a man-for-man defense.

With two minutes left the Steers closed the margin to 1 point on Crowley's field goal. But Merle Gibson tipped in a goal for the Frogs to send them ahead by three points. This lead was held for only seconds as Crowley canned a crisp shot, to end the scoring at 39 to 38.

The largest crowd of the year, in frenzied excitement with only 45 seconds to play, watched the Frogs freeze the ball, aided by two Texas fouls.

Schmidt captured high scoring honors for the game with 12 points. Crowley scored 10 points for the Texans.

"Frog Banquet" To Honor Squad

Squad members of the 1944 conference football champions, coaches, members of the faculty athletic committee and newspaper sports writers will attend the annual "Horned Frog Banquet" at 7 p. m. Tuesday at the Fort Worth Club.

Dr. Gayle Scott, chairman of the athletic committee, will preside at the banquet. Short talks will be made by the coaches, friends of the Frogs and several of the players.

Lt. Montgomery 'Hurrahs' Frogs From Pacific Isle

"Hurrah for those Frogs," writes Lt. Beecher Montgomery, B. S. in Phys. Ed., '43, to his wife, Mrs. Dorothy Bryant Montgomery, president of the senior class.

"T. C. U. has always had a championship team, but this year, the fellows proved it."

Lt. Montgomery received his commission with the Marine Corps in 1944. He is now stationed on an island in the Pacific. During his campus days, he is best remembered for his performance in the T. C. U.-Texas game of 1943, which resulted in a Frog victory.

"I really enjoyed sending Beech the news about the Frogs. I have been sending him The Skiff ever since he left the campus," Dorothy says.

10 Teams Enter Cage Tourney

F. W. Horton's V-12 blue league team ran over the red league quintet of Hugh Walters by a score of 56 to 16 Wednesday afternoon when the first intramural basketball game of 1945 was played. Horton was high-point man for his team, with 16 points, and Earl Conrad led his mates with 10 points.

The 1945 intramural basketball league is composed of 10 teams, according to Director Tom Prouse. The league is further divided into a red and blue division, five teams in each unit.

Each team will be restricted to play in its own league until the finals, when the two top teams of each division will play a straight elimination contest to determine the campus championship.

Members of the winning team will be awarded gold-plated basketball charms.

"Schmuckie" Will Seek Dorm Coke Machines

Miss Betty Jean Schmuck has been appointed by the Student Council to investigate the possibility of getting "coke" machines for the two girls' dormitories.

Dr. Austin L. Porterfield will speak Sunday at the First Christian Church in Ennis. Last Sunday he spoke at the Central Christian Church in Waco.

Attention, Gossipers! Here's Latest "Dirt"

Everybody likes a gossip column except the people who get in it. So, at the expense of approximately 35 people, The Skiff will please the rest of the some 1000 odd students—well, try, anyway.

You see them all the time: MONROE (CRIP) HARRELSON and PODOY JONES, RANSOM J. JACKSON, JR. (what a name) and PAT CRAIG, CHUCK MOONEY and PEGGY WHITEHEAD, C. A. FAGAN and BABY GARNER, BENNY HOULE and SADIE BETH TEVIS (he went 144 miles just to have one date with her during the holidays), PAT RITENOUR and EDWARD McCARTY (even good things come out of a genetics class), HARVEY ANDERSON and CHRIS WARNER.

LANELLE BUTTERFIELD has been keeping three boys up in the air, all at one time. Two of them are from FWAAP and the other is her "home-town flame."

That "just friends" is a good gag, but it isn't very convincing in the case of BILL TODD and ANN CULVER. It's not "just friends" with CARL DEFLAUGH and BEVERLY BOND though, they're engaged now.

Diamond rings are popping up on the campus, sorta-like mushrooms. Among those sporting new ones are MARGARET BRUNER, MARY HELEN KEY, BETTY HAZELWOOD and BARBARA MEDFORD. Rumor has it that MAX HELEN PICKENS is also expecting one.

People are still talking about the Cotton Bowl game and trip to Dallas. Someone was wondering who JIMMY SHIELDS was really with at the game. Those sitting around her were BOBBY CRUTCHFIELD, ERNEST PARROTT and an unidentified sailor. BONNIE WELDON was THE popular one at the game. She was accompanied by six soldiers. Who said there was a man shortage? Bonnie says they were all hollering for Oklahoma A&M when the game started, but when it was over, she had them converted.

A boy at S. M. U. is the target for all these love poems AVIS HADDEN has been writing. Avis says all the famous poets composed verses for their loved ones, so why should she be an exception. Yeah, she and Mrs. Browning! Is she kidding?

Always looking for letters: BETSY FEAGAN from JIMMY, DORIS HAMPTON from SCOTTY (he's coming home soon, too), JUDY EVANS from APPLGATE, WANDA McCULLOH from ANDY.

Anyway you can fool some of the people some of the time, MARY BRISTOL found out when she convinced some of the girls in Foster that she was married. (Note to the dean: She really isn't though.) MILLICENT COBB will be going down A&M way this week-end to see MARC SMITH.

GEORGE CONNER has been recommending the new "Goode Hall Cocktail" of Listerine and 7-Up.

They are Misses Therylene Knox, Ellen Becker, Bette Griffin, Nancy Barnard, Nancy Shackelford, Betty Joe Gamble, Shirley Meason, Janie Coffin, Jean Black, Janet Kroll, Fay Garner, Elene Wood, Joy Lee Chadler, Virginia Mason and Betty Cavender, and Mmes. Mr., Mrs. Cornelius In New Haven

Miss Margaret Bruner has announced her engagement to Lt. Harold L. Snyder who is stationed at Fort Worth Army Air Field. The date for the wedding has not been set.

Miss Janie Franklin Remembers Pearl Harbor, and Impudent Jap Who Ogled From Strafing Plane

Perhaps the most audacious ogle of the past decade was cast at pajama-clad Janie Franklin as she stood in her Hickham Field yard and watched the tragedy of Pearl Harbor. One of the Jap pilots, breaking formation, zoomed in at tree top level, grinned a toothy grin, and waved—simultaneously spattering roof tops of the field's residential section with machine gun slugs.

"It happened so quickly that I don't remember what the plane looked like," says Miss Franklin, "but I managed to reply with a few Army terms that I had picked up here and there." At the time, Janie had been accidentally overhearing such phrases for 15 years.

But Pearl Harbor was only one of many adventures in the life of Janie. Ask the green-eyed, taffy-haired Miss Franklin to recall her life and she is likely to spend most of her time bragging on her 6-year-old shell-shocked collie, a Pearl Harbor veteran, whom she calls "Missie."

About Pearl Harbor itself, the 5-foot 6-inch Miss Franklin recalls that one bomb dropped near Hickham Field landed in the midst of a Japanese settlement.

Further prompting will reveal that Janie will be 19 this April and that she has moved 11 times, spending no more than four years or, until after Pearl Harbor, less than two years in any one spot. This moving was caused by Army orders that shifted her father, Col. N. D. Franklin, to stations in France, Maryland, Hawaii, San Francisco, Washington, Denver and Fort Worth. The Japs came on her second trip to Pearl Harbor.

Now a resident of Jarvis Hall, Miss Franklin is concentrating on a major in speech. However, if she ever gets bored, Janie can recall those evacuation days of Hawaii or the time that her French governess was fired for visiting saloons while tending her year-old ward.

Col. and Mrs. Franklin tell Janie that the trip was made to France while she was but five weeks old. It was shortly before sailing time that Mrs. Franklin summoned an Army chaplain, who placed Janie on a packing crate for her christening.

Such a crammed and traveled life has given Miss Franklin a broad outlook on living. "I ask nothing for myself," she says, "but I hope that my mother gets a fine son-in-law some day."

Food and Letters Chief Interests, Says Sgt. Godley

"If Pepe le Moco had been any kind of a guy, he wouldn't have lived in the Casbah," said WAC Sgt. Dorothy Nell Godley of her visit to the Casbah of movie fame in Algiers, as she poo-pooed the idea that overseas duty in the WACS is glamorous.

Sgt. Godley spoke of her experiences in North Africa and Italy before an open meeting of the Poetry Club and Sigma Tau Wednesday afternoon.

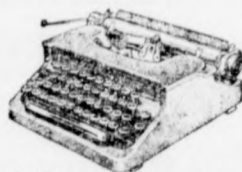

The trains were rather like the Toonerville Trolley, said Sgt. Godley and added that "Where are you from?" was the question most asked her during her two years overseas.

She stated that she was in the first show ever given using WAC personnel in "Sunny Italy"—"It says so on the travel folders! We must have arrived during the wrong season!"

Overseas WACS have two main interests, Sgt. Godley reported—letters and food. "Not that the GI food isn't plentiful, but it doesn't have exactly the right ingredients for a midnight snack."
