

MRS. BERNHARD A. WIEDERMANN

San Antonio Tex,
Feb. 12 '93

Dear Mr. Carter

We share your anxiety and anguish at the message telling of Amos Jr's missing.

I am staunch in my belief that he is well and safe and that you will hear from him in the near future.

We must have the courage and fortitude to live thru these dark days since better days are coming and it will be Amos Jr. who will be telling you stories of adventure and you who will be listening to him.

Believe me he can take this, being a prisoner, and he has many friends with him, far better than you, it behooves you now more than ever to take the best care of your health so that Amos Jr. will have no worry on that score when he returns.

Please come and spend a week and with us or so long as you care to stay, we can be mutually helpful I know.

We will let you know whatever we hear from Sidney - our prayers for the safety of our sons will be heard.

Our best love to you.

Elizabeth H. Wiedemann
