

AN IMPERATIVE WORD

All teachers are requested to check once more on their "admit-to-class" cards to make sure a card is in hand for every student attending each class. This is necessary, for it is the only means of an accurate check in the Registrar's Office and in the Business Office. The "admit-to-class card" is the student's ticket of admission. Any students discovered in your classes without the proper credentials as stated above must be sent to the Business Office immediately and denied further class privilege until the "admit-to-class card" is in hand. This word was sent out to all teachers during the first week of school, but several instances have been discovered where the teacher is permitting the student to attend without the card.

PLEASE BE ADVISED

The period for the Thanksgiving Holidays was changed by Cabinet action recently. The new date will be November 27-30 inclusive. This does not change the mid-semester examination schedule, November 15 being the closing date for these examinations.

COUSELORS OF FRESHMEN

The new and returning Freshmen have been divided among the Counselors. A very cooperative and representative attendance of the Counselors at the meeting held October 8 speaks for the TCU spirit in this important program. For those who were not present a list has been prepared and forwarded through the faculty mail.

A letter is being mailed to each Freshman explaining the TCU plan of counseling and suggesting that the student take the initiative in contacting the Counselor. If the students in your group do not contact you by October 25 please make your own direct contact by using the Student Directory in your hand or in the office where you make headquarters.

Another meeting of the Counselors will be held shortly before the mid-semester examination period to exchange experience and to unify our work in this regard.

FIRST SIX WEEKS

October 24th will mark the close of the first six weeks of school. A student may drop a course on or before that date without an "F" grade counting against him in figuring points and hours. If a course is dropt after that date and the grade at the time of dropping is "F" it will be counted against the student. Please announce this in your classes.

ENCLOSED IS A COPY OF THE SHORT COURSE BULLETIN for your use. If you would like any further information on these courses, or if you should know of any one that would like a copy or would be interested in having a copy of the Bulletin, please call or have them call Clifton Oliver at the School of Business Office and leave their name and address.
