My dear Ann —
We had such a glorious time in Las Vegas. I have never known such a nice
group of young people
they were a joy to be with.

It was so nice
of you to just stake
me so that I could gamble — but I did not win. Red says that I was quaid —

and that fear money
never wins. Any way
it was good fun.

Red is in California
just for a short trip.
He plans to be back
here for a meeting
on Wednesday.

I am trying to get ready for Christmas but I do not have much heart in it.
We are not going to be on this year
and I know that

We are going to be lonesome and
miss them very much.
Thank you again
for my Gambling
Stake.

Always,
Francis.
