

-1- Read by Mrs. Harding

Here's to a fine gentleman of great renown
Who took four Texas ladies from New York town,
On a great big beautiful plane across the sea,
The Knights of old were no braver than he.

-2- Read by Katrine Deakins

He was always thoughtful and charming and gay
And he was never impatient at any delay, (?)
He gave parties with the greatest of ease,
"Cocktails for the ladies young man if you please".

-3- Read by Mrs. Stripling

It was "Yes Sir" here and it was "Yes Sir" there
"Just as you say" Mr. Mos-e-ay every where,
For the most wonderful trip we have this to say
Put yourself in the hands of the A. O. A.

-4- By Mrs. Carter

A million thanks for taking us along with you
And this, we well know, is way over due,
Please accept this small token and let it be said,
To our Knight of the Sky Ways the gallant "Sir Red".
