Opinions Varied On Ranch Week

Chamber of Commerce members were scampering about like rabbits this week to gather loose ends which strayed during Ranch Week celebrations last week-end as statements by two campus officials varied somewhat in estimating the success of the three-day affair.

On the doubtful side was R. S. Wetherell, dean of men. "As for moral conduct," Dean Wetherell commented, "conditions in this year's Ranch Week were greatly improved over past years, but I question the expense and loss of classes for such a small degree of participation."

"Even with this improvement, moral and citizenship standards dropped considerably from Thursday to Saturday night."

But the chamber was given a pat on the back by Dr. Thomas F. Richardson, dean of students, who said the club conducted a more orderly and systematic Ranch Week this year than ever before.

Asked if there was any truth to rumors of "wholesale" campusing of girls for misbehaving, he replied there had been several girls campused temporarily until an investigation was made by the Office of Student Personnel.

"It turned out there was more rumor and gossip than actual misconduct," the dean added.

Miss Elizabeth Shelburne, dean of women, declined to make any statement concerning Ranch Week or the conduct of the students.

The chamber itself was well pleased with the interest and cooperation shown by the students and faculty, according to Jack Dillon, president and Fort Worth senior.

"We have only one complaint," Dillon said. "Someone stole a side section of the jail which we borrowed from the City Park Department."

"If whoever took it will tell us where it is, no questions will be asked, and we'll go get it."

Connie Mack Hood, president of the T. C. U. Rodeo Association, reported the rodeo went over in a big way and none of the participants was injured.

Rodeo event winners, as listed by Hood, were: bareback bronc riding, Art Hoera, Fort Worth freshman; belled calf roping, Burr Hash, Lancaster freshman; boys' wild cow milking, Richard ("Punk") Patton, Fort Worth sophomore; girls' wild cow milking, Miss Catherine Moore, Richland Springs sophomore; and steer riding, Fred Dunn, Midland sophomore.

The Chamber of Commerce expressed appreciation for the cooperation and assistance of various Fort Worth merchants and persons for their aid in Ranch Week preparations.

Everybody Off!

No Sweetheart Run-Off

Spring Formal Will Feature Six Nominees

The 1950 T. C. U. Sweetheart was elected yesterday, but results of the election will not be disclosed until the Spring Formal Friday at the Casino.

There will be no run-off election as originally scheduled, since only six nominations were submitted. The Student Congress voted Tuesday night to present all six girls along with representatives from other Southwest Conference schools, at the dance.

Jack Amlung and his orchestra will play for dancing from 8 p. m. to 12 midnight.

Tickets go on sale Monday in the lounge and Congress office. Admission is $2 stag or drag if tickets are purchased in advance and $2.50 at the door.

The two constitutional amendments on the ballot passed by large majorities. The amendment increasing the size of the Student Congress from 19 to 26 won out by a 366-to-129 vote. The proposal abolishing the constitutional clause stating that no candidate may run unopposed also passed, 347 to 194.

Sliding Wage For Lounge Is Approved

A graduated wage scale for Student Lounge workers, retroactive to January 16, was approved by the Student Union committee at its last meeting.

The agreement, which goes into effect with this month's payments, is set up as follows:

- 1) All lounge workers who have served at least 250 hours will receive 65 cents per hour.
- 2) Lounge employees with 610 hours to their credit will be paid 70 cents per hour.
- 3) Employees who have worked 970 hours in the lounge will receive 75 cents per hour, with the provision that the increase be recommended by the lounge manager, subject to approval by the Student Union committee.

The graduated wage scale was approved by the Administration March 8, to go into effect in September. The Student Union committee was permitted to raise lounge salaries this semester since it is the governing body for the lounge.

A Devilish Prank

Frank Magers (Satan) asks a 'blessing' for Bob Weston (Everyman) after the Monday evening performance of the morality play, "Everyman." Miss Bebe Baker (Everyman's Betrothed) watches the horse-play with serious misgivings. (Skiffoto by C. W. Carpenter).

Two Performances Added

'Everyman' Is Excellent Play

"Everyman," the morality play which opened Monday night in the Little Theater, comes closer than any other play of the year to fulfilling the new playhouse's technical possibilities. It is a superb production.

Acting-wise, there simply isn't a poorly handled role in the play. Bob Weston is a convincing and restrained Everyman. Frank Magers as the Devil and Miss Mary Lou McNamara as Kindred are other standouts. Everyone handles the verse with a minimum of effort.

Miss Dorothy Klein and her crew have manufactured some beautiful, exciting costumes and scenery, which contribute greatly to the play as pageant. And a particularly loud huzzah for the lighting, the likes of which Fort Worth hasn't seen since Tennessee Williams' "Streetcar" rumbled into the Majestic last November. The production staff is learning how to use the theater's wonderful and intricate labyrinth of lights.

If you go to see "Everyman" expecting the usual kind of entertainment, you'll probably be disappointed. If you take along even a slight religious and/or historical curiosity, however, you should be more than satisfied. It will be presented at 8 o'clock tonight and tomorrow night and again Monday and Tuesday. You can swap your drama card for a ticket at the box office between 1 and 4 p. m. each day.

—L. D.

'King of Kings' To Be Shown Free

"King of Kings," a motion picture based on the life of Christ will be shown at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the Assembly Hall in connection with the campus Easter program.

The movie, starring H. B. Warner, is free. It is sponsored by the "Y."

City Asked To Inspect 'Speedway'

T. R. Buckman, city traffic engineer, will be asked to come to the campus to check on speeding in front of the Drug, says Dick Ramsey, Fort Worth sophomore and chairman of the welfare committee of the student congress.

A letter from the welfare committee requesting a traffic light at the Drug crossing met with no success. Mr. Buckman, in replying to the appeal, said the city felt a light would not solve the problem.

After a check by the traffic department last year showed that the traffic light then in operation on University Dr. in front of the Library was being ignored by a majority of students, the light was removed.

Ramsey will ask Mr. Buckman for a traffic light, a yellow warning light or traffic policeman for the Drug corner. He also will request that a crosswalk be painted on University Dr. where the sidewalks leading from Clark and Goode Halls converge.

Mr. Buckman's letter stated that a stop sign will be placed at Bellaire Dr. N. and University Dr. to stop cars before they turn onto University Dr.

Invitation Orders Slow

Tomorrow is the deadline for ordering senior commencement invitations, announces E. M. Moore, manager of the Book Store. Only 29 orders had been received at the beginning of the week, according to Mr. Moore.

CAMPUS NEWSBRIEFS

Students who would like to play a part in the Black Hills Passion Play, to appear in the Will Rogers Memorial Auditorium April 2 through 10, should apply to Leslie Stratton, Waco freshman, in Barracks "Y".

Gordon Hooten, Atlanta, Ga., junior, was approved by the Student Congress Tuesday night to head the Trade Booster committee. He replaces Thorp Andrews, who resigned because of other extra-curricular activities.

Band director Lawrence Intra-vaia has been selected to become an honorary member of Kappa Kappa Psi, national honorary band

T. C. U. Host To Musicians

A series of free music programs will be given on the campus Wednesday through Saturday when T. C. U. will be host for the 35th annual convention of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs.

A pre-convention presentation of "Everyman," a morality play, will be given by the drama department at 8 p. m. Tuesday in Ed Landreth Auditorium.

The T. C. U. Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Dean T. Smith McCorkle and Dr. Ralph R. Guenther, will present a concert at 8:15 p. m. Wednesday.

Dr. Horace Whitehouse, visiting professor in organ, will give an organ concert at 2 p. m. Thursday.

The fraternity promotes better music in college bands and greater fellowship among college bandmen.

A program by the Chapel Choir, under the direction of Richard Brown, Brite middler from Fort Worth, will be presented at chapel at 12 noon Wednesday.

The choir, organized to meet the needs of chapel services, was formed by Brown early in February.

Dr. W. J. Hammond, head of the history department, will leave tomorrow for Laredo and Monterrey, Mexico, where he will do special research on the Mexican labor movement. He will return Tuesday.

Dr. T. Smith McCorkle, dean of the School of Fine Arts, is in Houston for meetings of the Texas Association of Colleges and the Texas Association of Music Schools. Dr. McCorkle is chairman of the curriculum commission of the organization.

Two teachers, Dr. Ruth Anderson and Miss Mary Stella, of the School of Business, and ten students will attend an initiation banquet of the North Texas State College chapter of Pi Omega Pi, undergraduate fraternity in business, Wednesday in Denton.

Floyd Hatfield, a representative of the Gulf Oil Company who formerly lived near Cumana, Venezuela, spoke to Evening College Spanish classes and day school geography classes Wednesday evening on South America, particularly Venezuela. Color movies and slides were shown.

Dean Ellis M. Sowell, of the School of Business, will attend the national conference on A. I. B. curriculum appraisal and expansion meeting Wednesday and Thursday in New York.

Dr. Tote Is Honor Guest

Dr. John L. Tate, president of the International Convention of the Disciples of Christ, was guest of honor at a reception in Wait Hall last Friday given jointly by the Christian Service Fellowship and Chi Delta Mu. He also spoke at chapel on that day.

PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL SCOUTS are roaming college campuses in increasing numbers this spring. From the big leagues all the way down to the Epworth League the accent is on youth. Which is making life all the more difficult for college diamond coaches.

The Frogs' No. 1 attraction as far as the scouts are concerned is a 19-year old hurler named Norris ("Nobby") Graves whose wide mixture of pitches, coupled with promising control, has established him as T. C. U.'s ace moundman. Whether the cotton-thatched Poly product will yield to the cry of the $ is another question.

There supposedly is an agreement between professional baseball organizations and the N. C. A. A. that no overtures to promising baseball candidates will be made while the youth is still in school. But evidently those in authority were looking elsewhere when Philadelphia snatched Texas' Tom Hamilton out from under the very shadows of Teasipperland with a flourish of bonus bills.

BASKETBALL AT T. C. U. got a solid shot in the arm as a result of the first annual lettermen's banquet last Wednesday night. Those skeptics who maintain that T. C. U. is a "one-sport school" better take notice of current sports happenings. Cage scholarships now number into the two figures (don't ask how high!) and an attractive schedule of games will be announced soon.

Athletic Director Howard Grubbs, acting as official host for the banquet, announced in no uncertain terms that basketball at T. C. U. is on the up-swing and the sport will continue to grow. A frank statement of that type from the usually-conservative Mr. Grubbs should carry a terrific impact.

TWO FROG GRIDSTERS who played on the school's last championship football team in 1944 are still making headlines—but in widely varying fields. Jim Busby, who is perhaps better known for his baseball contributions rather than as a gridiron tailback, currently is taking spring baseball drills with the Chicago White Sox in Pasadena, Calif.

Busby, who was purchased by the White Sox after leading the conference in batting in 1948, played with Chicago's Waterloo Class B farm last season, hitting .318. The 23-year old outfielder hit safely 106 times, including 24 extra-base blows. Training camp rumor has it that Busby will move to the Class AAA Sacramento club of the Pacific Coast League shortly.

The second Frog from '44 is Albert Cragwell, the big Stephenville tackle, who—of all things—has entered politics! Proving that former gridgers can also be bookworms, Cragwell is running for tax assessor-collector in Stephenville.

A tragic accident marred Albert's chance to become one of the top linemen in T. C. U. history. During the middle of the '44 season as the Frogs entered the stretch drive, a highway accident resulted in an amputated leg. That was the year that Coach L. R. ("Dutch") Meyer used only 15 men the last five games.

With Cragwell convalescing in Stephenville, the Frogs marched on to the championship, culminated by their 9-6 victory in a mud battle over Rice. That Rice game ball, signed by every player and coach, now rests with Cragwell—a gift of his teammates.

TCU-Tech Golfers To Match Shots

The Frogs' lack-luster showing in the Southwestern Recreation Golf Meet Saturday gave Coach Thomas Prouse little cause to anticipate his team's next test against Texas Tech at 1:30 p. m. Wednesday. The meet will be played over the Colonial Country Club course.

"We finished," said Prouse, as he summed up the Recreation meet. However, his players were not as well acquainted with the Meadowbrook course as they are with Colonial, where they turned in some good scores during the qualifying rounds.

The Frogs' freshman team failed to materialize Saturday and Prouse is now on the prowl for any and all first-year candidates. They are urged to contact him in his Gymnasium office.

Men's Tennis to Start

An intramural men's tennis tournament will get under way Monday. Bill Padon, Fort Worth graduate student and intramural manager, announces. Varsity players are barred. Registrations are now being accepted in the Gymnasium and matches will be arranged according to the players' convenience.

Five-Man Track Squad Enters Odessa Relays

'Punk' Picks Golf Instead Of Baseball

"To be or not to be"—that was the question facing 19-year old Richard Patton recently. Torn between the conflicting sports of baseball and golf, his decision either way would be painful.

Golf won out and "Punk" refunded the tuition furnished him on his baseball scholarship. Needless to say, this decision caused no frown to cross the face of Golf Coach Tom Prouse.

"I decided that I had more of a future in golf," explains the sophomore who is a natural southpaw but swings his clubs from the right side.

A member of the 1948-49 Wog football and baseball squads, Patton was counted on by Coach Walter Roach to fill an outfield berth on the varsity team. He hit over .300 for the Wogs in the clean-up slot.

The stocky Patton, 5'7 1/2" and 155 pounds, first took up the links game about five years ago and studied under A. G. Mitchell, Rivercrest Country Club pro and instructor to Miss Pat Garner, T. C. U.'s leading woman golfer. In the recent T. C. U. golf team qualifications, the long-driving Patton ended in a first-place deadlock with John Hanrahan, a former high school team-mate.

Seniors Win 21-20 to Cop Girl's Basketball Crown

The seniors defeated the sophomore-juniors, 21-20 to cop the girl's intramural basketball championship Monday afternoon.

Members of the winning senior team are Misses Betty Minyard, Fort Worth; Jan Riddle, Tucson, Ariz.; Bette Perot, Texas, Ark.; Mary Lou Robertson, Fort Worth; Helen Benson, New Brunswick, N. J.; and Mrs. Betty Thompson, Fort Worth.

T. C. U.'s cinder squad will remain in fast company for weekends before their schedule eases off for a triangular meet with McMurry and Hardin-Simmons at Abilene April 5.

Tomorrow the Frog representatives will be at Odessa for the Odessa Relays. The powerhouses of the Southwest Conference, University of Texas and Texas A. & M., will be favored to take the lion's share of the honors.

With the Longhorns and Aggies entered in the Texas Relays at Austin April 1, the remaining teams, including T. C. U., will be left to scramble for any points the favorites may leave behind.

Five men will make the trip to Odessa with Coach Mack ("Boss") Clark. James Kellett, Conway Nelson, Tom Polk and Ben Hays will comprise the Frogs' mile and sprint-medley teams. If T. C. U. enters the 440-yard and 880-yard relays, Bobby McFarland will replace Polk.

McFarland also is entered in the broad jump and high jump, and Polk will go in the jump.

The Frogs garnered 17 points Saturday, good for fourth in the Southwestern Recreation Meet. Gene Schmidt finished in way tie for first in the pole vault and anchored the squad into second place. Shot put, John Morton was up to J. Kurz, the lone entrant from Oklahoma A.

Campbell Beats McCall

Looking Over the Hardware

Schmidt, Brannon Honored

Schmidt was elected captain of the 1949-50 basketball team and selected as "most valuable player" for the first annual Sumner Award last Wednesday night at the basketball lettermen's banquet at the Cafeteria. In addition Coach Byron ("Buster") Brannon was honored as the conference's "Coach of the Year" and 10 varsity lettermen were announced.

U. varsity players and coaching staff were in attendance to see the blond senior from Evansville, Ind., first elected as captain of the past season—his third consecutive as playing helmsman—and later hear him proclaimed as winner of the first annual Sumner Award. Previously he had been announced as gaining his fifth letter. His third captaincy and fifth letter set two more all-time conference records.

At the evening came Brannon was presented with the Skiff "Coach of the Year" honor voted by the seven varsity sports editors. Overwhelmed by emotion, neither Brannon nor Schmidt was able to give any remarks.

Brannon announced the following lettermen for the 1949-50 basketball season: George McLeod, Harvey Fromme, Ted Reynolds, Tommy Taylor, John Campbell, John Etheridge, James Knox, Bruce Craig, Bob Lee and Schmidt.

Dr. Henry B. Hardt, chairman of the faculty athletic committee, served as toastmaster. He introduced Frog athletic figures who made short talks. They were Athletic Director Howard Grubbs, Head Football Coach L. R. Meyer, Baseball Coach Walter Roach, Trainer Albert Smith and Brannon.

Grubbs welcomed the group to the banquet, adding "I hope this will be an annual affair and continue to grow as the fortunes of our basketball team rise." The school athletic department served as check-grabber for the occasion.

Other guests who spoke included Amos Melton of the Fort Worth Press, Flem Hall and Jack Murphy of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and Dr. Wendell W. Sumner, donor of the new basketball award. Dr. Sumner, in presenting the award, called attention to Schmidt's fine record both as an outstanding player and student.

Wog point-makers were Mercer, with third in the mile and fourth in the 220-yard dash, and Harlan McWilliams, Williams, Rogers, Hoeffler and Roach, who ran laps on the mile relay which finished third to Oklahoma A & M. and the University of Houston.

Cowpokes Test Frog '9' Today

Oklahoma A. & M.'s Cowpokes will catch T. C. U.'s baseball team on the rebound at 2:30 p. m. today on the Stadium diamond. The University of Oklahoma handed the Frogs their first defeat of the season Wednesday by a score of 3-1 in the home opener for Coach Walter Roach's crew.

The Cowpokes, 1948 and 1949 District Five N. C. A. A. champions, will conclude the two-game series here at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow.

Coach Toby Greene's nine lost five starters and three front-line hurlers through graduation, but some bright prospects figure to take up most of the slack.

The Frogs will jump into the conference scramble next week, meeting the Texas Longhorns in Austin Wednesday and Thursday.

The Frogs out-hit the Sooners, 7-4, Wednesday but the visitors used theirs to better advantage. Norris ("Nobby") Graves went the distance for the Frogs, striking out six and walking five. Oklahoma's John Davis walked three and struck out two.

Outfielder Bill Barnes grounded out, third to first, but Johnny Jones, first baseman, moved Franks to third with a one-base knock. Franks then scored on Wade Stepp's long fly.

The Frogs' Jones was the leading hitter of the day, with three singles in four trips to the plate.

Johnny Swaim will be the probable starter today against the Cowpokes' Ward. Ed Mathis or Mike Salim will get Roach's nod tomorrow against Carl Pevehouse.
