My dear Mr. Carter,

I was delighted to see that you had your re-union with your son! It must be a grand and glorious feeling, and I want you to know that I share a small bit of the thrill with you.

It has been some time since you played host so cordially to Admiral Halsey, to whose staff I was at the moment attached. We enjoyed your "hospitality" even back to the South Pacific on our return.

Mrs. Thurber advises me that she has met Mrs. Carter in the East.

With renewed appreciation and congratulations I remain,

Sincerely, as ever,
