

Guaranty Trust Company of New York

New York Offices
140 Broadway
Fifth Avenue at 44th St.
Madison Avenue at 60th St.

140 Broadway

New York November 29, 1938

Foreign Offices
London Paris
Liverpool Havre
Brussels Antwerp

In replying please refer to 83:18

Mr. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth,
Texas.

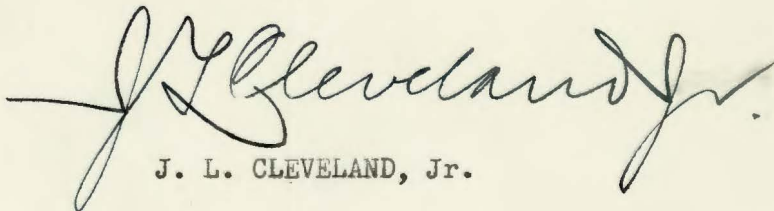

Dear Amon:

Thank you very much for sending me a copy of the booklet "Fly with the Flagship Fleet - The American Way", which I have looked over with considerable interest.

Frankly I have not done any flying, due to the fact that my children are pretty young for me to take risks of that sort, but perhaps I have been a little too cautious and one of these days, if you will acquaint me with your friends in the American Airlines, it may be that they can convince me that my traveling should be done by air. Incidentally, one of my associates, Bill Kleitz, is quite a convert and he feels that it is a great imposition to have to make a business trip on the train.

Changing the subject, I was sorry to see T.C.U. lose the Rose Bowl game. They have, in my opinion, a better team than Duke, despite the latter's excellent record, and I think would have made a fine showing against the Trojans on New Year's Day.

Sincerely,

J. L. CLEVELAND, Jr.

