Dear Mr. Amos Carter:

Let me express to you, as a father myself with a fine son-in-law in the Navy, my deep appreciation of the anxiety you are undergoing right now - also let me express the hope that your present concern for your boy's life and welfare will soon be dispelled by good news that "All's well."

You may remember me as F. E. Murphy's, Minneapolis Tribune "Cow-Sow-Ben" Editor and lecturer - now writing in N.Y. City on varied subjects of personal interest - agriculture - music - opera - Sunday features. With every good wish always - and of all ways. Sincerely

C. F. Collison
