

Dear Amos:

You have been in my thoughts so constantly that I feel I must express to you my sympathy for you in your anguish and anxiety over your son. I know so well from experience the despair that engulfs a parent when a child's life is endangered in any way, and I want you to know that I, too, pray to Our Father that Amon, Jr., will be restored to you and to our Country.

Let us keep hoping and praying.

Your friend
Alicia Walker
