Dear Mr. Carter:

My vocabulary is very limited. Therefore, it is impossible for me to adequately express to you both Mrs. Wiedermann's and my sincere appreciation for your kindness to our son, Major Sidney H. Wiedermann.

Until I received the long distance telephone call from your secretary, we were not aware of the exact whereabouts of Sidney and the information she gave me afforded us a great deal of consolation.

I have heard that all Texans know and respect the name of Amon Carter and, naturally, I too have heard of Amon Carter as a wonderful person and a Texan to be proud of. However, now that I know of the good will you have shown to Sidney and no doubt many other Texans, I am thoroughly convinced that you are truly deserving of all the fine things that were ever said about you.

I hope that on your return to Ft. Worth, you will give me the opportunity to call on you to personally express my thanks for your kindness.

With best wishes to you, I am

Sincerely yours,

B. A. Wiedermann
