

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF DALLAS

R. L. VAN ZANDT, GOVERNOR
J. W. HOOPES, VICE GOVERNOR
LYNN P. TALLEY, CASHIER

April 26th, 1915.

Mr. Elmo Sledd, Vice-Pres.,
Fort Worth National Bank,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Elmo:

I am enclosing you herewith a check that reached me through the Corn Exchange National Bank at Chicago. The attached correspondence gives the necessary instructions. I am also enclosing a copy of my letter to the Corn Exchange National.

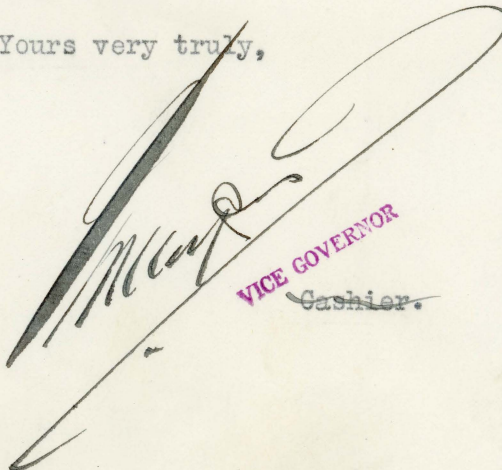

This is the first white flag I have ever seen displayed by any one from Fort Worth. I knew, of course, there were some good rag chewers over there, but I thought they all worked in banks.

I take it that this is the man that invented Carter's ink. If not, he is a direct descendant and has inherited the manufacturing plant. If I am not much mistaken, I recognize the material from which this check was made, and if Mr. Carter is using it for a check, I take it that he is like Warren Andrews--he has no occasion to use it at home.

If you can work Warren for $10.00 for this check, please send a draft for the amount, addressing the letter to Lynn, as I am leaving tonight to attend the meeting of the A.B.A. Council.

Yours very truly,

W.H.

VICE GOVERNOR
Cashier.
