

June 15, 1931.

Mr. Will Rogers,
Santa Monica, Calif.

Dear Will:

Frank L. Dougherty and Tol Pendleton, two of my friends in Fort Worth own one of the most beautiful ranches in Arizona, consisting of about 100,000 acres. Mr. Dougherty is going to be in California and is anxious to meet you, so I am giving him a letter of introduction and your telephone number so he can get in touch with you.

He is an old time cow-puncher. His father was one of the outstanding ranchmen in Texas and Frank, after finishing college, has spent all of his time on the ranch except during the period of the War at which time he was an aviator. So, you should have much in common.

I will appreciate any courtesy you extend Frank. I am sure you will enjoy meeting him and you can depend 100% on anything he tells you.

Thanking you and with best wishes, I remain

Sincerely,

AGC.KD