General H. H. Arnold,
 Commanding General, Army Air Forces
 Pentagon Building
 Washington, D.C.

My dear General: C. R. Smith will be in Fort Worth the nineteenth of September at which time I am giving him a Texas home coming welcome which includes an old time country fashion barbecue at Shady Oak Farm, fried chicken, steer meat, blackeyed peas, home grown onions, watermelon and sweet potato pie PERIOD We will have about 300 guests just the kind of olkds you would like. If physically possible nothing would lend to the complete success of the party more than having you with us. C. R. and all of us would be tickled to death. Meanwhile you could select your six beautiful Herefore heifers and the Grand Champion bull from Shady Oak Farm which I promised you on a previous occasion for your ranch in California. If you could fetch along General, Spatz, General Baker and General George or any other of your friends you like we will take good care of all of you. Do your level best. Sincerely,

Amon G. Carter
