

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

October 5, 1939

Dear Amon:

The President asked me to thank you for your letter of September twenty-fifth and to tell you that he would give your recommendation serious consideration when and if the Maritime Commissioner was appointed to the Pacific Coast.

How is everything down in Fort Worth? I hope you have a few stray bottles of that "Old Rarity" so we can work on it when we pass through.

How is that snappy looking blond who came in to have a drink with us? You said her dear husband had just died and left her fifteen million dollars.

With best wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,

EDWIN M. WATSON

Secretary to the President

Mr. Amon G. Carter,
President, Fort Worth Star-Telegram,
Fort Worth,
Texas.
