OFFICE OF THE TREASURER

Dear Mr. Carter:

The receipt of your very kind invitation to come to Fort Worth on September 18 and 19 adds to my regret that I shall be unable to make that trip.

I have to be in Chicago for an accounting meeting at the same time, and have discussed the matter with Mr. C. R. Smith who has excused me from attendance at the Directors Meeting in Fort Worth.

I have always wanted to experience the well known hospitality of Shady Oak Farm, and hope you will give me a rain-check for some future meeting.

Sincerely,

W. K. Sullivan
