FORT WORTH STAR-TELEGRAM

AMON G. CARTER, V. PRES. & GENL. MGR.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS

November Fifteenth,
1915.

Woodrow Wilson,
Washington, D.C.

F O R E!

Dear Mr. President:

The Star-Telegram has made arrangements to feed a few hungry Golf players and near Golf players in a vacant room at Rivercrest Country Club, Wednesday 7:30 p.m. November 17th.

You are expected to be present and occupy stall #214. When you arrive at the Club check your valuables, including your watch and any extra Golf balls you may happen to have; this is merely an extra precaution as a matter of safety first, as we are looking forward to this to be an enjoyable occasion and trust there will be no losses incurred by anyone of our guests through the dice route, or otherwise.

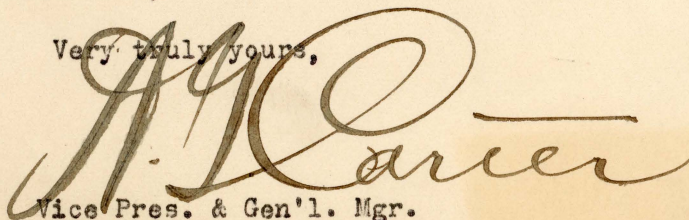

At this dinner we will present the winners with their Trophies, and also have an opportunity to hear a few sympathetic hardluck stories from some of our best players who failed to materialize on this particular occasion. It is expected of those present to be absolutely quiet, giving strictest attention and expressing a sympathetic feeling for our friends who are giving us the reasons why their names are not engraved on any of the Trophies.

Please notify your immediate family of your whereabouts, as the party will break up in ample time for you to arrive home in good standing, providing you go directly home.

Remember the place, the date and the hour. We will have the Spizzerinktum Committee there to greet you.

May we count on you?

Very truly yours,

Vice Pres. & Gen'l. Mgr.
