

March 12, 1943.

Mr. L. C. Porter, former Superintendent of the T. & P Terminal Warehouse in Fort Worth, now Assistant to the President of the T. P. Ry. Company in Dallas, called Carl and asked him to please convey to you his sincere sympathy in your unfortunate news about Amon Junior and that he and Mrs. Porter were hoping and praying you would have better news later.