Fort Worth, Texas,
December 18, 1952

General Dwight D. Eisenhower
60 Morningside Drive
New York City, N.Y.

My dear General: Minnie, Mary and I have just returned from St. Joe Island with Sid where we spent a week hunting and fishing and the only thing that could have possibly made the occasion more delightful or exciting would have been to have had you and Mamie with us PERIOD The fact that you are not yet on the payroll has arisen our sympathy to the point that we are sending you some vituals for your Christmas dinner PERIOD The birds, red fish, turkey and lamb chops are from St. Joe and on this special occasion I have decided to kill my last longhorn steer at Shady Oak Farm from which the Texas Hotel is preparing some unusually large porterhouse, tenderloin and minute steaks. We figured someone else might send you something and we took the precaution of phoning Mr. Green and asking him to notify you not to buy any groceries for Christmas PERIOD In addition we have sent a basket of Texas Ruby Red Grapefruit, also a smoked turkey that is good to nibble on between nibbles and soft shell pecans from Shady Oak which, incidentally, is one of the few farms that has lost money continuously for more than thirty years and never had a Government subsidy PERIOD Seriously, Sid, Minnie, Mary, and Amon Junior join me in wishing the Merriest of all Merry Christmases for Mamie, You and your family PARAGRAPH

You are going good. Everybody seems to like ^{your} ~~the~~ appointments and the country ^{again} /looks like it really has a future, so Hurrah for Ike, Texas and America! The above packages will be delivered to you either Friday afternoon or Saturday morning through the courtesy of C. R. Smith and American Airlines.

Sincerely and Affectionately,
AMON CARTER
