Temporary Budget Approved; Reveals $3257.50 in Treasury

Homecoming Gets $700; Improvement Fund, $944; Last Year's Debts, Dance Loss Cut Surplus to $460

The Student Congress has approximately $3257.50 in its treasury, according to figures released in a temporary budget submitted by Jess Baker, student treasurer, to the Student Congress at its Monday night meeting.

The total is incomplete, Baker said, since the Business Office has not completed work on the Congress books.

Lynn Fleming Is Secretary

Congress Also Acts on TV Sets, Rules, By-Law

Appointment of an Association secretary, decision to purchase two television sets, naming of a Congress rules and procedure committee, and acceptance of a by-law to the Constitution were among actions of the Student Congress at its Monday night session.

The new association secretary is Lynn Fleming, Corpus Christi senior, who will be paid 60 cents an hour for her secretarial work.

The Congress also authorized purchase of two table model television sets for the Student Lounge. A low bid of $800 by Burge Hardware was accepted after negotiations for the sets had been made by the Pierson, Fort Worth senior, chairman of the television committee.

A rules and procedure committee was appointed by President Bob Brown, Bedford, Ind. senior, to draw up parliamentary rules and to hold a regular meeting time. Chairman of the committee is Jess Baker, Fort Worth senior. Other members are Miss Shirley Hammon, Fort Worth sophomore, Bill Hamilton, Fort Worth sophomore, and Dee Kelly, Bonham junior.

The by-law which Congress approved, the first of the new Constitution, sets the salary and duties of the dance manager. It calls for congressional approval of all bids for dance costs and states Congress' general dance policy.

Grid Ticket Rush Starts Monday

Any galloping hoofs or roaring automobiles heard Monday morning can probably be traced to students enroute to the Stadium Office in pursuit of their tickets to the Homecoming game with Texas.

The stamper will begin at 8 a.m. and will last until 4:30 p.m. Friday.

There will be approximately 3500 tickets available to all activity book holders, but Stadium officials expect the choice seats to be gone by Monday noon.

Looking ahead, Athletic Director Howard Grubbs says that anyone owning an activity book, veterans' wives included, can be assured of a seat to the S. M. U. game, which will be played in the Cotton Bowl in Dallas on Nov. 27. The Stadium Office will not release these tickets until the Monday preceding the game. They will sell at $1.20 each.

Tickets to the Nov. 20 game with Rice, declared to be the official student body trip, also can be obtained on the Monday preceding the game at the same price, Mr. Grubbs concludes.

Fowler Speaks Tonight For World Federalists

The church and world government will be the subject of Prof. George Fowler, of the religion department, in a speech to the T. C. U. chapter of the World Federalists at its 8 p.m. meeting today in Brite College of the Bible Club Room.

Clayton Moren Grabs Off Two Pigskin Prizes As Skiff Gridiron Contest Enters Final Week

Lightning struck twice in the same place as Clayton Moren, son of Little Rock, Ark., won both The Skiff and Varsity Men's Shop weekly football prediction contests last week.

Moren was one of the eight out of 121 entries who picked nine correct winners. James O. Whittaker, sophomore from Fort Worth, and Charles O. Petty, Fort Worth junior, two of the previous week's leaders remained very much in the race for the grand prize by picking nine games right, but they were less accurate in predicting the scores of the games than was Moren.

Present leaders in the contest for the grand prize are:

- Charles O. Petty 19
- James O. Whittaker 19
- Henry Lawrence 18
- Bobby Herring 18
- Vaida Marcuse 18
- Joe T. Simpson 18
- R. H. Coleman, Jr. 17
- Robert A. Davis 17
- Rex Humphries 17
- Jimmy Lyon 17
- B. M. McClure 17
- J. D. McClure 17
- Charles W. McDonald 17
- Bruce Mason 17
- Dick Ramsay 17

Campus Poll Reveals T. C. U. Students Endorse Organized Booster Clubs, Pep Squads, 21 to 1

T. C. U. students voted 21 to 1 in favor of organized booster clubs or pep squads, a campus poll revealed today.

Only four students, out of 86 interviewed, were against the proposed idea of having groups of students voluntarily band together for the purpose of promoting school spirit on the campus and at football games. One student interviewed was indifferent.

Among those wholeheartedly in favor of such organizations, Doyle Malone, Plainview junior and Frog letterman, said: "Knowing students are behind the team enables us all to play a little harder." Miss Margaret Baker, Uvalde freshman, summed it up by saying: "There's just not any good ole spirit—such clubs should remedy that situation." "Other schools have it, we need spirit, too," commented Don Pierson, senior class president from Fort Worth. "A. & M.'s spirit, even though it is forced, plays a big part in the team's attitude," he continued.

"A unified pep squad, full of spirit, would be a definite asset to the football team and T. C. U." Miss Ann Zimmerman, cheer leader and Cleburne senior stated. Miss Joan Ellis, Del Rio sophomore, feels as though "high school games are better than these here because of all the spirit shown at high school games."

Of the out-numbered negative replies, roommates Miss Margaret

Ann Patton, Houston sophomore, and Miss Joan McShan, Lancaster sophomore, were opposed because groups of unified "cheerers" would seem too much like high school and students couldn't sit with who they wanted to, respectively.

F. R. ("Woody") Woodard, drum major and Odessa junior, said: "I don't think we'll ever have the true spirit until we have assemblies regularly and all get together. Then, too, a lot of older students, not veterans necessarily, wouldn't like it so well."

Members of the Purple team, cheer leaders, class officers and students seem agreed that the lack of spirit is possible of spelling failure to school efforts, whether it be at football games, pep rallies or class meetings.

Everything In Readiness For "Welcome to Exes"

Brite Will Be Council Host

9 Schools' Delegates Due At Meetings Next Week

Bishop William C. Martin and Dr. G. Alfred Brown of the Methodist Church will be principal speakers at the Southwestern Regional Conference of the Inter-seminary Movement which will be held Tuesday and Wednesday in the University Christian Church.

Nine theological seminaries and Bible colleges of the Southwest region will send delegates to the convention, which is sponsored by Brite College of the Bible. Purpose of the conference is to promote a greater fellowship among the seminary students of this area.

Theme of the meeting centers around the Ecumenical Church and the organization of the World Council of Churches, which met this summer in Amsterdam.

Other convention speakers will be Dean James I. McCord of Austin Presbyterian Seminary, and Dr. Harry C. Munro, head of the department of religious education in Brite College of the Bible.

Bishop Martin will speak at 3:45 and 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the church. Lectures and discussions will be at 4:45 p. m. Tuesday and 9 and 9:45 a. m. Wednesday. A sermon will be delivered by Dr. Brown at 11 a. m. Wednesday.

Hogan Due Back Today After Two Week Illness

Prof. Frank W. Hogan, of the chemistry department, will probably return to his classes today after two weeks of illness. He has been treated at Harris Hospital for a streptococcus infected throat.

Even in sickness, Dr. Hogan retained interest in his work. When his nurse gave him a shot of penicillin, Dr. Hogan offered her an explanation of the chemistry of that drug.

Absent from his classes since Oct. 22, Dr. Hogan returned home from the hospital Oct. 27.

KTCU to Open At Homecoming

Tentative plans have been set for KTCU to go on the air at 12 noon on Homecoming Day, announces F. E. Folks, radio instructor and station manager.

Debut of the campus station was delayed last week when it was discovered that a transmitter crystal had to be repaired before KTCU could operate on its assigned frequency. The correct sized crystal was not available in Fort Worth, and it was necessary to buy and grind down a larger one.

"This work is now being done," says Mr. Folks, "and operation tests will begin as soon as it is completed."

Band Will Air Six Programs

Broadcasts Over WBAP To Run Jan. 17 to Feb. 21

The University Symphonic Band, under the direction of Leon Breeden, will play a series of six programs to be broadcast over station WBAP starting Monday night, Jan. 17, and running each Monday night through Feb. 21, according to Mr. Breeden.

The programs, which will be sponsored jointly by T. C. U. and WBAP, will be from 10:30 to 11 p. m.

A guest speaker will be featured on each of the broadcasts. Names of the speakers, which will include off-campus personnel as well as T. C. U. faculty members, will be released later from Dr. M. E. Sadler's office. Mr. Breeden said that he hopes to have Dr. Sadler on the opening broadcast.

Also planned as a feature of each program is the "hymn of the week."

Possibilities for televising the weekly radio shows are being considered.

New Numbers Due Homecoming

Another announcement coming from Mr. Breeden stated that the Horned Frog Band will rehearse at 1 p. m. today on new numbers which have just been received by the Band. The numbers will be presented at the homecoming football game and at the other remaining games.

Plans for two more engagements of the Band were also reported by Mr. Breeden.

It will play the Mexican national anthem at the Waits Hall reception for the visiting Mexican senators. The reception is scheduled for 11:50 a. m. Monday.

An augmented Horned Frog Band, which will be made up of regular members of the football band plus some members of the Symphonic Band, will play for the annual Armistice Day parade. The parade will be Nov. 11 in downtown Fort Worth.

Band Receives Compliments

Mr. Breeden and Drum Major F. R. ("Woody") Woodard were guests of the Downtown Quarter-back Club Monday. Members of the club paid Mr. Breeden and Woodard high compliments for their work with the Horned Frog Band at the football games.

Also complimenting the Band for its Saturday night half-time ceremonies was the head engineer of television who is here from Hollywood.

Official Fete Starts Friday

Bonfire, Pep Rally, Dance Complete Jubilee Plans

"Welcome Exes and Welcome Texas" was the keynote this week as campus clubs, Student Congress committees, and ex-students' organizations completed plans for T. C. U.'s Diamond Jubilee Homecoming next Friday.

The celebration will open officially with a bonfire and pep rally, but it will be heralded earlier in the day by the distribution of a 12- to 16-page, 75th Anniversary edition of The Skiff.

The bonfire and pep rally will be held on the Stadium parking lot immediately following the Falls Players' production of "First Lady." Tentative plans call for a speech from Coach Dutch Meyer, announced Miss Mopsy Morrison, head cheerleader.

Starting things off Saturday morning, the Fort Worth T. C. U. Women Exes' Club will have a coffee for "all Homecomers" at 8:30 a. m. in Foster Hall.

Downtown Fort Worth will get a glimpse of "Homecoming color" when the annual parade rolls down Main Street at 10 a. m. Several clubs have already planned to enter floats, and at least 20 convertibles have been secured. Dee Kelly, Bonham junior and parade chairman, has announced.

The journalism department will also hold a Saturday morning affair—an "open house" coke party all morning for ex-journalism students.

Biggest noonday activity will be an exes barbecue at 11:30 a. m. in the Basketball Gymnasium, according to Noel L. Keith, secretary of the Alumni Association. A business session will be held at the meeting.

Kickoff time for the T. C. U. Texas football game will be 2 p. m. A special Homecoming routine by the Band and the presentation of the Homecoming Queen, selected

Campus 'Booster' Organization Forms For Revival of Spirit

"Renegades" to Practice Southwest Sportsmanship Code; George Wilde Chosen President at First Meeting

"The Renegades," an organization to promote campus-wide activities, was formed Wednesday night with the help of the Frog booster committee of the Student Congress.

The group will attempt, by its activities, to build up school spirit. The promotion of good sportsmanship and school spirit will be in accord with the code set up by the Southwest Conference Sportsmanship Committee and will not violate school rules, Joe Hodgkins, chairman of the booster committee, said.

There are about 29 charter members. Membership will be limited to boys who are nominated by three

Favorites to Be Named In Tuesday's Election

Flying Frogs Win Air Meet

Second Denver Victory Led by Smith, Waggoner

Even though one of its better flyers failed to compete, T. C. U.'s Flying Frogs, led by Shelby Smith, Fort Worth senior, and Eddie Waggoner, Fort Worth junior, won their second straight Denver University Intercollegiate Air Meet held Friday and Saturday at Denver.

Royce Livingston, Fort Worth junior, who has been a winner for the club in all previous meets, failed to get into this year's contest because of a shortage of rental planes.

Smith took first place in spot landing and third in both the link trainer and speed dash contests. Waggoner topped the link trainer contestants as the flyers won their fourth meet in five entered since the club's organization in April of 1947. The Frog airmen finished second in last year's national air meet, held at Ann Arbor, Mich.

Miss Mary Helen Rattikin, Fort Worth junior, who set a national record for precision spot landing at last year's Denver air show, failed to place last Friday and Saturday.

The host, Denver University, was runner-up in its flight show while Stephens College of Columbia, Mo., finished third. New Mexico University placed fourth, Colorado Women's College came in fifth and tying for sixth were George Washington University and the University of Colorado.

Unless a practice air meet is held in this area, the next flight contest for the Flying Frogs will be at the New Mexico Air Meet, tentatively set for next April in Albuquerque, N. M.

Capt. Helen R. Wheeler of the Civil Air Patrol was the chief speaker at a Flying Frog Club meeting held Wednesday night. Capt. Wheeler stated that she would like to see a flight of the Fort Worth Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol's Texas Wing on the T. C. U. campus. If the plans go through for T. C. U., flight officials will be on the campus, which means that flight orders on military planes can be obtained here. The Civil Air Patrol is an auxiliary of the United States Army Air Corps.

The television film made Oct. 27 of the Flying Frogs was run Oct. 28 and Sunday night. The reel pictured Aviation Prof. Troy A. Stinson pointing out to his aviation class the radio range on an aeronautical planning chart which the flyers used on their trip to Denver. This part of the film was made in the aviation classroom as were other scenes of Richard Sherer, Fort Worth senior, in the link trainer.

A scene in Dr. M. E. Sadler's office pictured Miss Rattikin showing Dr. Sadler the 14 trophies which the Frog flyers have won. Other pictures in the film were of the flight club in action at the T. C. U. Airport.

Roberts Elected Dance Manager

Wayne ("Bud") Roberts was unanimously elected dance manager by the Association Congress at its Monday night session after two other candidates withdrew their applications for the position.

The two applicants who had filed for the job—James Repp, Goose Creek junior, and Bob Matthews, Fort Worth senior— withdrew Monday, leaving Roberts unopposed.

Roberts has already started work on plans for a Nov. 13 Homecoming dance in the Basketball Gymnasium together with a square dance on the tennis courts. Both dances are set for 8:30 p. m.

A $283.50 deficit was incurred by the new Congress in its first dance of the semester. Intake for the Halloween Dance at the Casino Oct. 28 from 219 masqueraded dancers was only $109.50, far below the $360 needed to meet expenses.

Prizes were awarded the two most cleverly costumed student couples at the dance. First prize winners were Sam Marshall, Fort Worth junior dressed as an angel, and Ruth Ann Reed, Abilene freshman dressed as satan. Runners-up were Nikki Wallace, Burellon freshman, and Bill Dameron, Hereford senior, costumed as Arabs.

Evening Council Elects Miss Gregg President

Miss Doris Gregg, Fort Worth junior, was elected president of the Evening College Student Council at a meeting Friday night.

Other officers are: Vice-president, John C. Adams, senior; secretary, Mrs. Peggy Christian, freshman; and treasurer, Miss Ouida Albright, senior. All are from Fort Worth.

Miss Geraldine McKay, New York sophomore, was appointed chairman of the publicity committee, and Mrs. Bettye Sharp, Fort Worth freshman, was named chairman of the social committee.

Research Grant Requests Must Be Filed By Dec. 1

Applications for faculty research grants must be filed by Dec. 1, Dean Jerome Moore of Add-Ran College of Arts and Sciences, announced today.

"Any faculty member is eligible to apply for a research grant, money for which is supplied jointly by T. C. U. and the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching," Dean Moore said, adding that application should be filed in his office.

New Train Schedule to Rice Adopted by Student Congress

Students to Lose Only One Night of Sleep—Departure Set for 5 a. m. Nov. 20—Return Trip Not Changed

A new train schedule for the student body trip to Houston—one which will not require the loss of two nights of sleep—was adopted by the Student Congress Monday night.

But there continues to be agitation for return to original plans which called for travel the last half of Friday and Saturday.

The new and, at present, official train schedule calls for departure to Rice at 5 a. m. on Saturday, Nov. 20, with arrival in Houston at about 11 o'clock that morning. The return time-table remains as originally announced with the train due to leave Houston at 12:15 o'clock that night with arrival in Fort Worth about 7 o'clock Sunday morning.

The new schedule, however, is not without opposition. A petition asking for the train to be rescheduled for departure at the time originally announced — at

Boxes in 3 Locations To Make Voting Easy

Several hundred posters, informal campaign speeches, and pre-election activity by 94 favorite nominees will help students select top campus favorites in the primary election Tuesday.

Three ballot boxes located at Brite College of the Bible, Building 1, and the Student Congress Office in the basement of the Administration Building, will insure easy access to the polls for all students.

Everything from a 3 by 5 inch stapshot to colored 8 by 10 photographs was turned in by nominees for the official poster put up by the Horned Frog, student annual, which is sponsoring the election.

Large Turnout Expected

Editor Charles Launius, Sheridan, Ark. junior, expects a large turnout in the student voting, which will last from 9 a. m. until 3 p. m.

Each student will vote for three boys and three girls from his class. Students will indicate their choice for favorites by scratching the names they do not want.

Ballots incorrectly marked cannot be counted, warns Launius. Students will sign a voter list to prevent duplication in the votes.

The top 10 favorites from each class will be presented to the students in a run-off election to be held Nov. 19, when students will vote on all favorites, regardless of classification. In case of a tie in the primary, both nominees will be put on the final ballot.

Run-Off Winners

Winners of the run-off will not be announced until the Horned Frog Presentation Ball Dec. 3 at the Casino.

Bob Matthews, Fort Worth senior, former dance manager is in charge of Ball plans, which are still in a tentative stage. Plans being considered call for a castle setting and a "Beauty" theme.

Students should keep their Presentation Ball ticket discount cards, which can be redeemed at the Horned Frog office when tickets go on sale, advises Launius.

Only Parade Participants Will Be Excused Nov. 13

Students who are going to participate in the Homecoming parade at 10 a. m. Nov. 13 will be excused from class, but others will not, the faculty and administration have decided.

Classes could not be dismissed, said Dean Jerome Moore of Add-Ran College of Arts and Sciences, because of holidays for the student trip and Thanksgiving.

The effect the petition can have is somewhat doubtful. The trip committee, appointed by the Congress, has an appointment today to sign a contract with the Southern Pacific Railroad pursuant to the new arrangements authorized by the Congress, and the petition cannot be received by the Congress until its next meeting on Monday.

Members of the committee are: Miss Mopsy Morrison, Midland senior, chairman; Joe Shosid, Fort Worth sophomore; and Don Davis, McKinney sophomore.

Train tickets will go on sale early next week at the Stadium office. Students must present their activity tickets with the $7.02 to get the special priced round-trip ticket. Rice game tickets will go on sale Nov. 15.

There are tentative plans to have a parade soon after the train arrives in Houston.

Pullman cars will be reserved for the band and for the Fort Worth Frog Club. Students will travel in chair cars.

Optimists Among Us

"The ignorance, folly and pugnacity of our rulers being unlimited, no monstrosity, not even another suicidal world war, is impossible or preventable."

This is George Bernard Shaw's contribution to the Los Angeles Mirror's recent world symposium on the possibility of another world war. Mr. Shaw, trying to be his caustic self, seems to have plumbed a new depth of pessimism.

Here at T. C. U., things are brighter. Genuine optimism exists in several campus clubs which are concerned with world problems.

One of them, a chapter of United World Federalists, Inc., works actively toward the realization of a world government. The U. W. F. feels that world peace can best be maintained by a wisely-formed federation of nations.

The International Relations Club, Pi Gamma Mu and the "Y" are other T. C. U. organizations which concern themselves with world conditions.

These clubs and probably many individuals on the campus feel that the prevalence of violence and conflicting ideologies in various parts of the world need not cause one to resign himself to the inevitability of another world war.

Perhaps, as Shakespeare put it, Our peace will, like a broken limb united, Grow stronger for the breaking.

Thank You, T.C.U.!

The Skiff in its last week's editorial aimed at indicating to students what a privilege it was to have an activity book didn't begin to indicate what a real privilege it is to own one.

It stated that the books were purchased at the beginning of the year at a cost of $10. This is a false statement, further investigation revealed this week.

T. C. U. gives the book to students who are carrying a minimum of nine hours. Ours is the only school in the conference so generous to the regular students.

Concerning the books, page 55 of the University catalog says:

"A student activity book good for all athletic events held at the University is provided for each student who pays for as much as nine semester hours per semester. This is a non-transferable, because it is provided at a wholesale rate, much lower than can be sold to the public. It is not a purchase but a student privilege.

"Hence, if presented by anyone else it will be taken up and cancelled. If lost, no duplicate will be issued, but the matter should be reported to the Business Office at once, so that in case the original is recovered, it may be returned to the rightful owner. A student carrying less than nine semester hours of work per semester will not be furnished an athletic coupon book, but may purchase one for $10."

So this week, we say "thank you, T. C. U."

Float Time and Club Presidents

What is a T. C. U. homecoming without a parade and what is a parade without floats?

With T. C. U.'s homecoming only eight days off, it is high time that the numerous club presidents get together with their fellow club officers and plan to make the 1948 T. C. U. homecoming parade the largest and most beautiful in the school's history.

There is a record number of clubs on the campus this year—approximately 66. Just how many floats are to be entered in the parade depends on you, Mr. Club President, so what are you going to do?

Letters to the Editor—

Student Answer To Band Criticism, Seating

Nov. 1, 1948

DEAR SIR: In answer to the letter of L. H. in last week's Skiff I would like to say we like the band as it is. Our band is known nationwide for its precision marching and traditional marches. Why should T. C. U. have a band exactly like all others?

The approach to the field may not be dignified, but it displays the exuberance we associate with football. Maybe the suspense of baton twirling upsets you but we are proud of our twirlers and we missed them Saturday night.

Why should we accept the status of a "run of the mill" band when we can have one that gives our school nationwide acclaim?

I am proud of our band and I know that a majority of students share my pride. Please don't change one thing about it.

Thank you, M. W. L.

Seating Simplified

Mr. Editor: Why did J. W.'s letter last week complain about alphabetical seating?

Is Mr. Row 3, Seat 4, anxious to meet Miss Row 1, Seat 2, or is it that he just doesn't know how to go about it? Does he suffer through the entire class hour, unable to listen to the instructor, wondering what Miss Row 1, Seat 2's name is?

His brain searches for the answer. If only the teacher would call the roll by names rather than checking it by numbers.

Better still, why not have each student make a get-acquainted speech before the entire class? This would probably put the class behind only a couple of chapters in the text.

No, solving for the name X in this equation is the problem of the bashful but interested male, not that of the teacher. The latter's duty is to give instructions, not introductions.

Getting acquainted is, therefore, left to the individual student, who does well to remember a name when he does hear it.

For all students who would like to make friends on the campus it would be well to remember that a cheery smile and a pleasant greeting is the best letter of introduction anyone can have.

Pairings Set For Debaters

Eleven Schools to Enter 66 Teams in Disk Meet

Pairings have been made for the national recorded debate tournament, sponsored by T. C. U., Dr. E. L. Pross, director of forensics, said today.

Eleven colleges and universities, representing top-ranking teams of the nation selected in April at the West Point Debate Tournament, will participate in the contest. Sixty-six teams will compete. Each school will enter six teams, three taking the affirmative and three the negative on the "federal aid to education" proposal.

T. C. U. will compete with six other schools in the opening round. Three teams will transcribe affirmatives on Nov. 15, and will send the records by air express the same day to University of Wichita, Cole College and Wake Forest College. Within 24 hours these schools will send back rebuttals by a similar method.

Likewise, T. C. U.'s negative teams on Nov. 17 will receive records from affirmative teams at Purdue, U. C. L. A. and Augustant College. These teams will transcribe replies within two days.

Under the plan, records will go back and forth until all teams have received and sent three transcriptions. Neutral judges will tabulate points, sending the data to Dr. Pross. He will announce, from their vote, four top teams to participate after Dec. 1 in a semi-final event, where the margin will be narrowed to two teams.

The two winners will be awarded prizes by Texas Zeta Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, local chapter of debaters' national honorary society.

Frog teams upholding the affirmative are Walter Jones and Aaron Cook, Jim Keene and John Howell, and Misses Mary Perkins and Marie Davis, all Fort Worth juniors.

Taking the negative are Worth Dalton, Fort Worth, and Joan Shirley, Houston, seniors; Jerry Hetzel, San Antonio, and Clay Smith, Fort Worth, juniors; and Austin Denny, Houston, and Dee Kelly, Bonham, juniors.

How teachers spend their spare time:

Miss Mabel Major of the English Department, who recently returned from the Central Modern Language Association which met in Oklahoma City, reports this "unusual" research paper. A professor, it seems, tried to determine what breed were the two chickens that appeared in Chaucer's "Nun's Priest Tale." The scholarly research concluded that the two chicks were Golden Fleckings.

"Now she tells me."

As did the Frogs, Warren ("Bud") Albert, Fort Worth sophomore, had his troubles Saturday night. While at a local hospital attending his small son who had his tonsils removed, Albert was trying desperately to find a radio for the Frog-Sooner game. Finally he found one but there was so much static that only bits of the announcer's voice could be heard. After the game a nurse came into the room and told Albert that a man down the hall had a television set on which he could have watched the entire game.

A thought-provoking comment was recently made by a student attempting to cheer another up over a tough course.

"Since I have no chance of passing the course I might as well drop it," wailed the pessimist.

"Sure," came the reply, "and since you're going to die someday why not commit suicide?"

From the history department: Miss Marguerite Potter, who was subbing for Dr. W. C. Nunn in History 332, while calling the roll commented that Dr. Nunn

"Male Animal" Try-outs Will Begin Wednesday

Any student interested in dramatics is invited to try for one of the 14 parts in "The Male Animal," the School of Fine Arts' second major production, says Miss Andrea Hetzel of the speech-drama department, director of the play.

Try-outs will be held at 4 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday in Building 2. However, the play will not be presented until January.

Copies of the play may be checked out for reading at Miss Hetzel's office in Building 2. Three faculty judges for the try-outs are Dr. W. C. Nunn of the history department, Dr. E. L. Pross and Miss Andrea Hetzel, both of the speech-drama department.

Post-mortem: At the halftime during the Baylor game one wisecracker said that the imaginary studio everyone was supposed to be in was "leaking like the devil!" Clark Hall residents were awakened early Sunday morning by footsteps and a series of blowing sounds. On investigation they discovered a misplaced "celebrator" cheerfully wandering through the halls trying to blow out the overhead lights.

27 From Business School Attending Personnel Meet

Twenty-seven students of the School of Business left yesterday to attend a two-day Personnel Conference which began yesterday at the University of Texas.

The conference emphasizes the relationship between business students and business and industrial men.

Fort Worth students attending are: Robert Crittenden, William C. Warren, Lee Joyner, William Flores, Oliver Lindsay, Sid Lipscomb, Wendell Palmer, L. H. Branch, E. W. Gray, Robert Burns and Ben Williams, seniors; and C. E. Waggoner, Manuel Holcomb, Richard Rightmire, James Lacy, Ray Wheeler and Worth Dalton, juniors.

Weekly memo department: . . . to Howard Grubbs: How about moving the student ticket office from the Stadium to the main campus? It seems that it would be easier to bring the tickets and one of the staff up to the Gymnasium than to have 4000 students traipse down to the Stadium ticket office each week. All God's chillun ain't got cars, Howard.

. . . to Dean Elizabeth Shelburne: Why not extend the hour telephone calls can be made to the girl's dormitories until 9 p. m.? If a girl can leave the dormitory at any hour up until 11 p. m., then why can't she receive calls? Study questions arise during the night, and it gets monotonous hoofing it over to the dormitory to clarify a point with a colleague. Are there enough long distance calls to warrant holding all lines open three hours nightly?

T. C. U.

The first real attempt to kindle the dying spirit of the campus came last week with the formation of the "Renegades", student booster organization. Such an organization, with proper support from the faculty and student body, can do much to revive the "fighting Frog spirit." The new group is not a social club, but has a membership of those interested in keeping tradition alive at T. C. U.

T. C. U.

Things to remember: . . . The student ticket office will be open from 8 a. m. till 4:30 p. m. daily next week. An estimated 33,000 people are coming to the Texas game. There will be some one interested in purchasing your ticket if you fail to pick it up prior to the 4:30 deadline Friday.

The Baptists must have done a wonderful lot of praying last week. Either that or the Christians are exceptionally good-hearted and the Bears were due another victory.

The thing is certain—the Frogs simply handed the Baylor Bears the ball game Saturday night. And it will be a cold day in July before you will be convinced the better team won. But be that as it may, the fact remains that the Purple Bears has three losses instead of two, and that they have no chance at the championship.

They have no one to blame but themselves. Had they played in a like manner against Texas A. & M., Indiana, Oklahoma A. & M., or Kansas, they would have been beaten much worse than they did last week.

In due respect to the Baylor team and its fine record, we believe it is the weakest club the Frogs have faced this year. And if they win another game this season, it will be a surprise.

It can't be held against the Bears for making that touchdown, but the Christians are to blame for letting it be enough to win. They should have scored three times. At times it looked as though they could tally any time they so desired. At others they couldn't have made a touchdown against State High. You can't win in the Southwest Conference with that sort of an exhibition!

At best it will have to be called an unfortunate situation. It is undoubtedly one of the worst pills any T. C. U. eleven has had to swallow, but no one realizes it more than the players themselves.

At that the team did not get one last chance it rightly deserved, thanks to the head linesman. He was about the only person at the game who didn't see the Bear right-end offside by a full stride. That fact is proved by motion pictures of the play. How unlucky can you get?

It is safe to say that the Frog fan who watches a tougher one to lose will be nearing the age of Pop Boone.

Morris Bailey gets our vote for the outstanding lineman of the game. Not since the Oklahoma game last year has the lanky end turned in such a magnificent showing. He was personally responsible for that last chance the Meyer-men had at victory when he literally stole the ball from the grasp of Frank McKinney after Bear back had intercepted a pass. Coach Bob Woodruff tabbed it as the greatest job of ball hawking he had ever seen.

Bailey followed that with a great catch of Lindy Berry's pass that kicked those famous 15 inches of losing the jack-pot.

Besides all that, he made tackles that he had never dreamed of and came up with a total of three aerial receptions to extend his season's record to a league-leading 21.

Max Eubanks' work at his defensive center spot indicates that he is fast becoming one of the best in the forward wall business. Ball carriers just don't have much luck through his part of the line.

Just as one of T. C. U.'s greatest stars—Davey O'Brien—watched his passing record find a successor in Stan Heath of the University of Nevada, another ex-Frog star re-entered the picture. Aging Sammy Baugh, who has been one of the big wheels in pro ball for 13 seasons, set a new record Sunday for total yards passing in a single contest. Congratulations are most definitely in order for all three: to O'Brien for holding an individual record longer than any of the present leaders; to Heath for being the guy that costed him; and to Baugh for adding another great accomplishment to one of the most colorful careers of modern sports.

A big job is cut out for the new cage coach, Buster Brannon. To him has fallen the task of helping lift the Frogs out of a maze of "cellaritis." He will be operating under decided disadvantages. Except for spring training, he hasn't had an opportunity to watch his boys operate. But if patience and fortitude pay off, T. C. U. will be right up there in the conference scramble, not this season, but in the near future.

As the Frog gridgers sit idly by and watch the other conference teams tear into each other, we see the games like this:

Texas 21, Baylor 7
S. M. U. 33, Texas A. & M. 7
Rice 14, Arkansas 20

25 Survive Basketball Tryouts; 13 Frogs, 12 Freshmen Listed

Burton, Barton Stand Out in First Week's Practice; Both Squads to Start Heavy Scrimmage on Monday

After a vigorous opening week which found T. C. U.'s prospective players stressing basic fundamentals and defense, the huge squad of both first-yearmen and varsity basketballers was narrowed down today. Thirteen men are listed on the varsity and 12 on the freshman team.

However, Coach Byron ("Buster") Brannon announces that there will be several additions to each squad. At the same time Brannon reveals that scrimmage—and plenty of it—will be in order next week.

Two boys—one from the freshman and the other from the varsity team—were drawing the praise of both Brannon and on-lookers during the initial week's labors. Bob Burton, blond varsity guard from Falls City, Neb., was hitting the hoop with amazing regularity all week and seems to have improved considerably over last season when he was a member of the "B" squad.

Vernon Barton, the elongated freshman frog Wink who stands six-eight above the hard wood, keeps improving steadily and Brannon is confident the young amazon from West Texas will be one of the Frogs' brighter stars in coming seasons.

Strange as it may seem, the freshmen tower far above the varsity. Five freshmen are six-three or better. The varsity has nine men at least six feet tall but none to match the additional height of Barton and his first-year comrades.

A majority of the first week's work was spent in liberating-up drills and both one-on-one and two-on-two defensive drills. Pivoting and crisp shots were stressed along with set shots and attempts at free tosses.

Brannon is determined that the Frogs no longer will be the conference basketball doormats for the other schools to tread over. Starting his first year as helmsman of the local hardwood quintet, Brannon stands ready to "get the most out of" all his boys.

The Frogs will have six returning varsity lettermen and two returning squadmen from the varsity along with two boys moving up from the "B" squad. Included on the freshman squad are two all-stars.

Five of the varsity are from Indiana, four from Fort Worth and one each from Kansas, Illinois, Nebraska and San Saba, Tex. All members of the freshmen club are residents of Texas.

Only two gridsters—Bill and Bob Moorman of Odessa—will switch into jersey and shorts when they doff their helmets and pads later this month.

Here is the complete varsity list except for late additions:

Frank Kudlaty, South Bend, Ind. (6'3"). Bob Young, Greenfield, Ind. (6'6"). Bob Hendricks, Huntington, Ind. (6'2"). Gene Schmidt, Evansville, Ind. (6'3"). Bob Burton, Falls City, Neb. (5'11"). Gene Wardynski, Monmouth, Ill. (5'10"). Julius Dolnic, Gary, Ind. (6'4"). Bill Moran, Newton, Kan. (6'5"). Kendall Bond, San Saba (5'10"). Bruce Craig, Fort Worth, (6'). Bob Lee, Fort Worth, (6'). Norman Hughes, Fort Worth (6'4") and Bill Elliott, Fort Worth (5'9").

The freshman basketball squad except for late additions:

Johnnie Swain, Graham (5'11"). Maurice Bud Campbell, Mt. Vernon, (5'11"). Vernon Barton, Wink, (6'8"). George McLeod, Houston, (6'8"). Harvey Fromme, Sinton (6'3"). James Knox, Sinton (6'4"). Phillip Leach, Lufkin (5'11"). Alan Brookshire, Lufkin (6'4"). Tommy Taylor, Fort Worth (5'11"). Jose Roman, Marfa (5'8"). Ted Reynolds, Fort Worth (5'11") and O. A. Riffle, Fort Worth, (5'10").

Frogs Lose 6 to 3 as Final Rally Falls Short Forcing Meyermen Out of Conference Picture

The Horned Frogs ungraciously bowed out of the Southwest Conference picture Saturday night as the Baylor Bears slipped through with an odd-sized 6-to-3 verdict.

What could have been one of the most thrilling finales to a Frog game in years turned out to be one of the most heart-breaking.

The Christians turned on the steam in the last quarter after the Bruins had forged ahead and marched to within a step of pay territory. But, with just enough time left for one play, the excited Meyermen got their signals crossed (not one of the 25,000 fans and spectators were in their right mind) and foiled the golden opportunity.

The Frogs won everything but the ball game. They had the better team.

Thus T. C. U. lost their third night tussle of the season, their second in as many weeks by the same cause—time. Both were by three points. And Baylor remains the only undefeated conference team. The Bears' last two victories, ironically, were achieved in much the same manner that cost T. C. U. her's. The clock was instrumental in the Bears' victory over Texas A. & M. the previous week.

The Frogs and Bears were drenched, as a rain shower fell heavily in the second quarter and intermittently in the third. The wind also changed its course a couple of times but neither had much to do with the outcome.

A second-quarter field goal by Homer Ludiker from the 11-yard line was the extent of T. C. U.'s scoring. It followed a Frog drive that originated on their own 20. Thirteen plays—all by Lindy Berry and Pete Stout—covered the 69 yards.

The Bears rang the bell early in the fourth quarter when Frank McKinney tossed a four-yard aerial to Bobby Griffin in the end zone. Hayden Fry, Gabby Sims and Jerry Mangrum supplied the steam in the winning march that began on the Baylor 40.

The failure-destined final push by the Purple started 80 yards from pay territory as Berry started working the Meyer spread frequently and double wing occasionally.

A 15-yard Bruin holding penalty got things under way, and two plays later the challengers were on the Bear 45. Time was escaping as a first down was made on the 54. After a running play gained one, Berry aimed a toss at Jack Archer. McKinney intercepted and ran it back to the 25 where Morris Bailey literally stole it from him. A Berry-to-Bailey pass was stopped on the 2-foot line, and only enough time remained for one play. Stout attempted to circle right end and was thrown back to the 10 as the game ended.

Victory-less Polliwogs Will Meet Undefeated Shorthorns Thursday

BULLETIN

Rice's Blue Bolts moved handily over an inadequate T. C. U. pass defense last night at T. C. U. Stadium as the invaders from Houston thumped the Polliwogs, 13 to 0. It was the Wogs' third straight loss of the season.

Rice scored in the first period on a seven-yard aerial from Lester Johnson to Bill Howton. Another Johnson aerial in the second quarter, this time to Billy Burkhalter, was good for eleven yards and the final marker. J. K. King converted for Rice after the second tally.

A big, bruising University of Texas freshman football team—outweighing even its brother varsity eleven—goes into its fourth game of the season next Thursday afternoon at 2 p.m. against T. C. U.'s Wogs at the Stadium.

Coach Walter Roach's charges will have their hands full against the Shorthorns. A probable Yearling starting line will average 208 pounds per man. Spearheading the Yearlings' offensive attack is Byron Townsend, Odessa's great full-back, who was acclaimed the best schoolboy gridster in 1947. However, the entire Shorthorn lineup offers plenty of offensive and defensive explosives.

Red Adams, the versatile six-three youngster from Baytown, will open at end, along with either Bill Milburn or Joe Rowe. Milburn is from Austin and Rowe from Dallas.

Big 225-pound Jim Lansford of Carrizo Springs and Houston's Bill Wilson are probable tackle starters with Jim Pakenham of Longview and a husky Berger lad, Howard Hurt in at guards. Joe Arnold of Corpus Christi and Wally Tassos of San Antonio will share duty at the pivot slot.

Jerry Robertson, the Highland Park pass master, will maneuver from Houston's T-formation as quarterback with plenty of able assistance by way of Ray Tartt from Houston and a Fort Worth product, Ben Tompkins.

Grid Standings Remain Unchanged As Sophs, Juniors Tie, 12 to 12

| INTRAMURAL SCORING LEADERS | TD | PAT | Tot. |

| Leroy Berger (Seniors)..... | 0 | 6 | 12 |
| Jolly Pridgeon (Sophs)..... | 0 | 8 | 32 |
| Lester Fisher (Juniors)..... | 0 | 8 | 32 |

The heralded battle between the Sophs and Juniors on Election Day was a success and a failure at the same time.

It was a success in that it was, by far, the most thrilling game of the season, but it failed miserably in its attempt to unsharpen the intramural standings as the teams struggled to a 12-to-12 draw and remained in a tie for first place.

In a preliminary contest the Seniors blanked the hapless Preachers 13 to 0.

Jolly Pridgeon slipped through a huge hole in the right side of the Juniors' line and reached the 5 yard line before he was herded out of bounds. Pridgeon hurled to Ben Hays on the goal line for the first six points marked against the Juniors all season.

After Junior Jack Cagle intercepted Pridgeon's pass and returned it to the Juniors 27 Lester ("Shrimp") Fisher passed for 36 yards putting the ball on the 36 yard line. Fisher then faked a pass and dashed through the middle of the Sophs, cut to the sidelines and outran the field for the tying touchdown, 6 to 6.

From the Sophs' 2 Yard Line Fisher's wobbly pass to the left flat of the end zone was snatched by defender Jolly Pridgeon who raced up the sideline the entire length of the field (80 yards) for a touchdown. This failed to shatter the determined Juniors' bid for victory.

Max Cogswell went through center but as he crossed the goal line he fumbled. Fortunately, the alert Cagle was nearby and caught the ball in the end zone for the 12-to-12 tie. A fast rushing Soph line, paced by George and Ben Hays, caused Fisher's extra-point passing attempt to fail.

Seniors 13, Preachers 0

Bill Padon's runs in the first quarter and his passes to Leroy Berger set the game on ice for the Seniors. Padon passed to Berger 12 yards for the first counter. Padon ran his left end for the extra point.

In the second period Padon passed beautifully to Phil McCarthy for a 37 yard touchdown play. Try for point failed, and the second half consisted for continuous goal-line threats and stand-offs.

Tired and Bruised, Frogs Relax, Have Light Drills During Breather

Battle weary and bruised after seven rough and tough games, the Horned Frog footballers are taking it easy this week—their only breather of the season.

"The extent of future workouts will be determined by how well the boys shake off the series of minor cuts and bumps received thus far," says Coach L. R. ("Dutch") Meyer.

Only Wayne Rogers, star defensive end, seems in danger of missing the Homecoming game with Texas next week. He received some torn ligaments in his knee in the Bear tussle and is unlikely to be ready for the last home game of the season.

This week's drills have been of a light nature. The boys didn't practice Monday and had an easy one Tuesday, but the drills will get progressively rougher. A scrimmage between the varsity and freshman squads is forthcoming if physical condition warrants it.

Coach Meyer will personally watch the Longhorns play the Baylor Bears tomorrow in Waco. Perfect strategy will be required to stop the booming Steer offense that has rolled up 2250 yards in seven games.

W.S.A. Speedball Tourney Won by Red Team 18 to 10

The Red Team won the W. S. A. speedball tournament Wednesday afternoon. It won its second straight game by beating the White Team 18 to 10.

Volleyball practice starts Monday and will be held from 4 to 5 o'clock Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoon.

Eighteen horseback riding members had a picnic from 4 to 8:30 p. m. Wednesday at Trinity Park. One male escort was present—5 year old Guff Abbott, brother of Ann Abbott, Fort Worth senior.

'Best Freshman Girl' Title Will be Awarded by Leti

A "best freshman girl" will be chosen by Leti, sophomore girls club, and will be given a token of that honor, Miss Elizabeth Massengale, Mineral Wells sophomore and president of Leti, announced at a Leti-Frogette meeting Monday night in the Modern Lounge of Waits Hall.

The girl will be chosen from members of Frogettes, freshman girls club, who best fulfill Leti requirements during the period preceding the annual "Hell Night" activities when freshman girls are initiated and decapped by their sophomore "big sisters." After the decapping ceremonies the freshmen do not have to wear their green caps.

Freshman girls are not required to participate in the activities, but those who do not cannot take part in freshman initiation next year.

Regulations announced by Miss Massengale are that all participating freshman girls must:

1. Wear their freshman caps at all times except at church and out of town. The one exception is at the Rice game.
2. Speak to all sophomore girls, know their names and their home towns.
3. Be able to recite the Alma Mater Hymn, the Fight Song, and all school tells.
4. Obey all sophomore girls and maintain a respectful attitude toward the sophomores.

Disobedience to regulations leads to being put on a black list and being dishonorably decapped. Dishonorably decapped freshmen are disqualified from taking part in next year's initiation.

Miss Elizabeth Shelburne, dean of women, and Mrs. W. P. Jennings, dormitory hostess, were present at the meeting.

At an earlier meeting the Frogettes made plans to have a float and a booth as part of Homecoming activities.

Regular meetings have been scheduled for 6:30 p.m. on the first and third Wednesday of each month. Dues will be 50 cents per semester.

It was decided that town girls may attend meetings if they wish.

This is the final week for both the weekly and over-all contests. This week's winner and the winner of the grand prize will be announced in next week's Skiff.

No one came close to predicting the score of the T. C. U.-Baylor game. The 14-to-14 tie played by Wichita and Tulsa also played havoc with the prognosticators, although one student, J. R. Nix, Fort Worth senior, did predict a draw between the two Missouri Valley Clubs.

The grand prize to be awarded next week consists of two student tickets to the Rice game, two round-trip tickets on the special train to Houston, two $2.50 dinners and a mum from the T. C. U. Disciples of Christ students from the University of Texas will be guests of honor at a Meliorist Club "dessert party" immediately following the game in the University Christian Church.

The Homecoming Carnival will start immediately after the game and will last until midnight. It will be held on the driveway behind the Basketball Gymnasium.

Almost 20 clubs have already decided to sponsor booths, according to John Enochs, Tyler senior and carnival chairman. "There is still time for other clubs to plan booths. They will bring money into the club treasury as well as adding to Homecoming activities," Enochs said. He urged club representatives to contact him or Larry Denton, club chairman, today or tomorrow.

At 8 p. m., a string band will begin the first "breakdown" at the square dance on the tennis courts, which will be decorated for the occasion.

Curly Broyles and his orchestra will play for dancing in the Basketball Gymnasium from 9 p. m. until midnight. Decorations at the Homecoming Dance will be built around a carnival theme, according to Pui Roberts, dance manager.

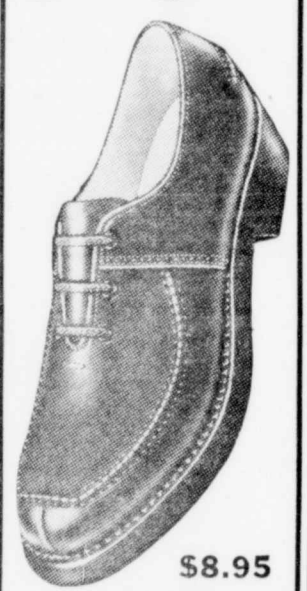

"We are going to need a lot of help in decorating the tennis courts and the gym," Roberts said. "Any students who will co-operate are urged to contact Bill Hamilton or me as soon as possible." Dormitory residents are urged to prepare signs for their dorms welcoming exes and Texas students, Hamilton, campus decorations chairman, said.

The special edition of The Skiff, to be distributed at noon Friday, will feature articles and pictures depicting T. C. U.'s history and growth.
