

Talented 'Stars' To Take Leads In Play Monday

When the curtain for "Death Takes a Holiday" is drawn back Monday night, behind the footlights R. Will be a cast of experienced actors and actresses.

The feminine lead, Miss Elizabeth Faguy-Cote, took her bow before an audience at the age of 2 when she was slated for the role of a woman 60 years of age. Miss Faguy-Cote, a sophomore, is also a member of the Fort Worth Little Theater.

Clinton Henderson, a junior from Waco, is the hero of the play. When Clinton was 4 years old he made his stage debut in black face. He is remembered for his narration of the operetta, "Patience," last semester.

The rest of the cast, all having some dramatic experience, include: Edwin Cornelius, Alfred Jones, Miss Pauline Shaw, Jimmy Tinkle, Bob Matheny, Miss Bettye Floaker, Miss Dorothy Nuss, Miss Dorothy Forrester, Kenneth Womack and Miss Ann Barham, president of the Dramatic Club.

The play is under the direction of Prof. Arthur Faguy-Cote, and will be at 8:15 p. m. Monday night in the Auditorium. The tickets are 50 cents and can be bought from any member of the cast or Dramatic Club.

Dyer to Be Speaker Friday

Dr. Gus Dyer, former Vanderbilt University professor, will speak at special assembly at 10 o'clock next Friday morning, President I. E. Sadler announces.

"Dr. Dyer is a nationally famous lecturer," says President Sadler. "He will spend a week in Texas, speaking in the five leading universities and in the larger cities."

All faculty members and students are requested to be present at the assembly.

Fire-Eating Janitor Offers to Help—Students Willing to Dance, Sing, Play, Paint for Show

On with the Varsity Show! A survey made by The Skiff reveals that the campus is running over with talented students.

To the question, "Would you be willing to help out with the Varsity show?" Skiff reporters got everything from a mildly interested "Yes" to an enthusiastic "I'd do almost anything to help!"

The poll shows that there are on hand at the present time enough students to do the actual writing of the show, the direction, the musical and dance numbers, novelty numbers and painting of the scenery and sets. Only volunteer acting in the entire survey is someone willing to work on costumes for the production.

Miss Ann Barham, stage director of the forthcoming "Death Takes a Holiday" and several other dramatic club productions, has offered to help stage a Varsity show. She is willing to put on her drama, "Curse You, Jack Dalton," as well as several other numbers out of current production called "Cowtown Cabaret."

Sale of Bonds Nets $1832.95

The sale of bonds and stamps in connection with the third war loan has brought the T. C. U. contribution up to $1832.95. The majority of the bond sales were of the $25 denomination.

Of the total, $14.20 came from the sales of 10 and 25-cent stamps. The bond sales totaled $1818.75.

The bond booth will continue to be open from 9 a. m. until 1 p. m. each Monday and Thursday. Students are urged to make their stamp and bond purchases on those days. The booth will be in charge of a different campus organization each week.

Geology Classes to Take Field Trip to Mountains

Dr. Gayle Scott's classes in field and structural geology and paleontology will take their annual field trip to the Arbuckle Mountains this week-end.

The group will leave early tomorrow morning and return Sunday night, spending Saturday night in Davis, Okla.

Those who will go are: Misses Katherine Wittmayer, Elaine Ward, Betty Mae McGonagill, Billie Nelle Ingram, Rosemary Morse, Elaine Shiflett and Mary Jane Cole, James Bollman, J. B. Clark, W. Bruce Johnson, Malcolm Wilson and Harold Scarlett.

Mr. Fred Leaves $3000 To University's Loan Fund

A bequest of $3000 to the University's loan fund was made by the will of the late Fred Stromberg, filed for probate Wednesday. Mr. Fred made L. C. Wright executor of the bequest.

Last Chance to Order Rings and Invitations

Seniors who have not ordered their rings and invitations are asked to see Miss Billie Jean Boney, Foster Hall, immediately, as today is the last day orders can be taken.

Sheinberg, who has just completed a score and is willing to work on another, as is Franklin Adkins, who has written several plays.

Miss Dorothy Bryant Montgomery has volunteered to teach dance routines. Dancers include: Misses Georgia Collins, Elayne Henderson, Bobby Lee Reinlander, Norma Purvines, Marjorie Walton, Betty Cavender, Alice Gallant and Billie Nelle Ingram, and Alastair Gill.

Among the singers are Misses Betty Beckham, Max Helen Pickens, Dorothy Forrester and Frances Hall, and Cleve Cullers, Clinton Henderson, Jimmy Tinkle and Jack Gipson.

Those willing to do accompaniment or solo numbers on the piano are: Ed Rankin, Ralph Barnette, Miss Cherry Kemble, Miss Kathryn Wittmayer, Miss Wilma Miller and Miss Emily Stedman. Misses Pauline Snyder, Alice Inskeep and Polly Ruth Gean will play the violin. Bill Pigmon offers a solo on his favorite instruments, the Service Tests To Be Nov. 9

College Students Eligible For Army, Navy Program To Take Qualifying Exams

The second qualifying test for the Army Specialized Training Program and the Navy College Program V-12 will be given on the campus Tuesday, Nov. 9, Dr. M. E. Sadler reports.

A pamphlet of general information which contains an admission-identification form may be obtained from Dr. C. K. Holsapple in the Evening College office. This form properly filled out will admit to the test students between the ages of 17 and 21, inclusive, who are recent high school graduates or who will be graduated by March 1, 1944.

Anyone wishing to take the test should file his intent with Dr. Holsapple immediately so that the necessary test supplies may be ordered.

The same examination will be taken by both Army and Navy candidates. The examination is designed to test the aptitude and general knowledge required for the program of college training, and all qualified students are urged to take the test.

At the time of the test each candidate will be given a choice of service preference, but taking the test does not obligate the candidate to enlist in the service.

Those selected for the Army will, after further screening and basic military training, be sent to college. Students chosen for the Navy program will be detailed directly to college. Students who attend college under either of the programs will be under military discipline, on active duty, in uniform with pay. All expenses, including tuition, food, housing, books and uniforms will be paid by the Army or the Navy.

Religious Week To Be Postponed

Plans for "Religious Emphasis Week" have been postponed indefinitely, reports Ben White, president of the Student Christian Association.

"One of our principal speakers will not be available for some time," he says.

S. C. A. held a panel discussion last week with Cecil Morgan, Clarence Burke, Dr. Edwin Elliott and Dr. A. L. Porterfield as speakers.

The traditional S. C. A. "Pay Day" was held Wednesday and Thursday.

Auditorium Will Get New Lights, Scenery

The Dramatic Club has signed a contract with the Oklahoma Senic Company which will provide the Auditorium with a new system of lighting and acoustics in addition to a new set of scenery, complete with French doors and windows.

The improvements should be completed for the play, "Death Takes a Holiday," Monday night.

All of the improvements will be paid for by the club from the proceeds Monday night and from future plays.

Tarrant Band Concert Postponed to Tuesday

The band concert which was to be staged on the new shell at the Fort Worth Army Air Field this week, has been postponed until Tuesday.

Reballoting for Yell Leaders To Take Place Wednesday As Result of Illegal Election

Student body balloting, for the election of yell leaders, will take place again Wednesday. After four hours of voting and three hours of counting votes, no announcement was made as to the result of the election.

The Student Council meeting Monday clarified this secrecy. A bevy of questions directed at the election committee brought the verdict from the Council that the election was "illegal and must be run over."

The name of Alastair Gill appeared written in long-hand on the ballots. Had the name been added by each

Send-Off Tonight For Frog Team

A second send-off will be given the football boys at 6:30 tonight, says Clyde Foltz. Students will assemble in front of the Administration Building and "shout" the Frogs off to Arkansas.

The band played at last night's pep rally and Foltz indulged the freshmen in a little fun.

After the rally tonight there will be a short jam session in the Basketball Gymnasium for the benefit of those who aren't able to work off their energy hollering. Dancing will end at 10 p. m.

'Invitation English' Offered For Freshmen Nov. 1

An invitation section of the second half of freshman English will be offered for the term beginning Nov. 1. Dr. Paul Dinkins will teach the course. The class is scheduled for 11 o'clock TTS. Invitations will be issued within the next two weeks, reports Dr. Dinkins.

This course has been given at T. C. U. for a number of years and is open by invitation only, to students who have shown exceptional ability in the first half of Freshman English. Special stress will be laid this year, as formerly, on creative writing.

Most T. C. U. alumni who are having successful writing careers now were members of an invitation English class during their beginning college year, Dr. Dinkins says.

"Equipment Wonderful," Says Garcia—

Mexican Student Surveys T. C. U. Teaching Methods

Representing the government of the state of Coahuilla, Mexico, Senor Oscar Rodriguez Garcia is studying American methods of teaching by attending classes at T. C. U.

Senor Garcia arrived in Fort Worth two days ago, and reported for his first classes Wednesday morning. He is attending classes in the biological sciences, French and English. He recently graduated from Ateneo Fuente, Saltillo, Coahuilla, Mex., obtaining a degree in biological sciences.

The Mexican government extended aid to him in order that he might learn of the facilities of American universities. He was given his choice of any university in the United States, and after debating on whether to come to T. C. U. or go to The University of Texas, he chose T. C. U.

"I have heard of T. C. U. It is one of the best universities in the United States. I was particularly impressed with the democratic ways of the Americans. There is no discrimination, but rather a voter, who, not finding his name there had desired to see him in office enough to add the name at the poll, the vote would have been legal. But, when the students in charge of balloting noted that many voters added the name, they assumed he was a qualified candidate and added his name to the remainder of the ballots. This constituted a breach of authority on the part of the election committee and is the chief cause for a re-election.

Foltz' Name Not Removed

The name of Clyde Foltz also appeared on many ballots and consequently voters, ignorant of his withdrawal, wasted votes on his name.

When students go to the polls again on Wednesday, they will find the name of Clyde Foltz omitted and that of Mary Lou Morrow, a qualified candidate whose name was omitted through typographical error, placed on it. The name of Alastair Gill will not be there because he failed to submit a petition to the Student Council for approval during the period designated.

Students Vote for Five

The ballot will read "I vote for the following five (5) people for yell leaders, keeping in mind either three (3) boys and two (2) girls or three (3) girls and two (2) boys." This means that each voter will check the name of either the boy or girl he wishes for head yell leader and then two assistants from each group. Voters are urged not to discuss their selections with other voters as it is designed to be a vote by secret ballot.

feeling of friendship and understanding for Mexico and the Mexican people. The Mexican people are glad to know that everybody in the United States is busy doing all they can to hasten victory. We are pleased to be working in harmony with the Americans," says Senor Garcia.

Manana, a monthly magazine published in Mexico City, has commissioned him to write a series of articles about his experiences in the United States.

While Dean Jerome Moore was teaching a summer class at Saltillo, he met Senor Garcia and helped him organize competitions between Americans and Mexicans. Senor Garcia was made a member of the department of physical education in Saltillo, for the purpose of these competitive sports.

As all the text books at his college were printed in French, Senor Garcia has had five years of formal training in this language. To improve his English speaking vocabulary he is attending classes

It's a Voter's Privilege

The University is patterned after the national government in its parliamentary procedures. Each class elects by popular ballot a representative to serve on the Student Council, the equivalent of the legislature. The entire student body elects a president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer.

These officers are named to administer student affairs. When anything goes wrong in the legislature, the voters back home set up a howl. They wire their representative and advise him as to what his people want.

Why is it that when anything goes wrong on the campus, the students set up the howl of "Who did it?" "Why weren't we consulted?" instead of calling to the representatives and saying "Look here, that's not what we want. You present our plan to the Council, like this?"

When the student representatives act in Council, they act in the name of the classes they represent. If they don't know what the students want, they have to do what they think is best. If you, as a class member, don't like what the Council does, talk to your representative.

"Our country is not going to be any better than our school system. We cannot afford an ill-educated electorate."—Fortune Magazine.

Is Entertainment Worth While?

There is a lot of applause, and the curtain falls. Everybody is happy. Why? Because the students of T. C. U. got a "big kick" out of putting on the show and the service men got a good, full evening's entertainment out of it.

That's what will happen if The Skiff's suggestion for a Varsity show goes over. The Skiff has made the suggestion, now someone needs to take over the idea and put it into action. The other Varsity shows were sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

In a recent survey, nearly all students thought the idea was a good one. But an idea needs more than just thinking about. It needs push behind it. The push is up to the students.

"Flowers" to Be Art Show Theme

"Flowers" is the theme of the second oil painting exhibition to be on display from Oct. 4 to Oct. 30, in the Little Gallery of the art department.

"Most of the flowers I have painted are those that were gathered by Mrs. Ziegler from our own flower garden," says Prof. S. P. Ziegler.

Most of the succeeding exhibitions for this season have been determined and many of the required canvasses have been completed. The exhibitions will be announced when ready.

in English and in any other class which will help him in his biological sciences. All written English is understandable to him, but it takes a little time for him to comprehend spoken English.

"I especially appreciate the facilities for scientific study that you have in this university. The equipment is wonderful, such as I have not been used to. Students here should fully realize what opportunities they have here and make the very best of them. It pleases me very much that President Sadler has arranged for me to observe work in classes, and such work that has adequate equipment," observes Senor Garcia.

Particularly interesting to him is the freedom that American women enjoy. He has met American girls through friends, and through the college, and this fact impressed him most.

He is to report to the National University at Mexico City Jan. 1, for advanced study in medicine. During his stay here he is living with Mrs. R. Ybarra, 3430 Millet Street.

NEWTON GAINES
(One of a Series)

"The group of which I was a member introduced aerology and meteorology into the army," says Dr. Newton Gaines of his World War I experience.

Dr. Gaines served a little over a year in the Science and Research Division of the American Service Signal Corps. He went in a private and came out a sergeant.

"The sergeants won the war," he says, and he will sing a song to prove it.

"Four hundred college men trained in physics and engineering were selected," Dr. Gaines recalls. "We trained at College Station."

"In the war part of the information we secured was used by the aviators and part by those who aimed the long-range guns. It was vital also to the success of military operations to predict the weather.

"We helped found a part of military science that is important today. My own work was all on this side of the Atlantic, at various flying fields."

Sherer to Present Last Of Lesson Series Sunday

The last in a series of lessons on "The Student and His Problems" will be given by Prof. Charles Sherer at 9:45 o'clock Sunday morning, in the Recital Room of the Administration Building.

"The Skin of Our Teeth" will be the topic of the Rev. Granville T. Walker's Sunday sermon. The title is taken from Thornton Wilder's comedy of the same name. The choir, under the direction of Prof. Arthur Faguy-Cote, will sing "Jesu, Joy of Men's Desiring," by Bach.

At Evensong, 7:30 o'clock Sunday night, Jim Mosley, will speak. Dick Hardie will give the interpretative readings. Miss Max Helen Pickens will sing "Oh, Saviour, Hear Me," by Gluck-Buck. After Evensong, the Meliorists will meet in the upstairs room of the church. A musical program will be presented with Norman McLeod, president, in charge.

"Use of Public Worship in Personal Religious Living" will be discussed at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night by the C. Y. F., in the church parlor. Jimmy Farrar will be in charge of the program.

TCU 'Foreigners' Amaze Patrons In Chow House

Noonday patrons at a dining place were astounded by "foreigners" in their midst Monday, as Miss Bita May "Advanced French Conversation" class stopped in for lunch.

"Do you suppose they're Americans?" asked a woman nearby. The girls, of course, delighted and continued to talk in French with added gusto.

Not only was all the conversation carried on in French but students also tried their best at translating the menu into English. The thing that stumped the girls and teacher, however, was "milk shakes."

Passing Frogs Defy Running Arkansas To Initiate Season

By RICHARD MOORE

T. C. U.'s wartime Frogs, sprinkled with the blue of the Navy, entrain tonight 22 strong for Little Rock, where tomorrow afternoon they will ring up the curtain on the Southwest Conference football race against the Arkansas Razorbacks. Game time is 2:30 p. m. The battle will take place in the Little Rock High School Stadium.

Only Coach Dutch Meyer will accompany the boys to Little Rock. Coach Hub McQuillan will journey to Oklahoma City to scout Oklahoma A. & M. in its game with the University of Oklahoma.

This will be the Frogs' opening game, the Razorbacks' second. Saturday, Arkansas flashed a terrific ground game in smothering the Missouri Miners, 59 to 0.

Those tall men from Bob Burns' state, who are never licked until Sunday morning's editions, are playing under a new head coach, John Tomlin. He is the only new mentor in the league.

Whereas, in the past decade, Arkansas elevens have relied chiefly on a strong passing offense, the Hogs now depend upon a strong running game. Tomlin is a firm believer in the double wing, which the Razorbacks employ, and decidedly leans toward ground plays for his major gains.

Arkansas Slightly Heavier.

In comparison of the two teams, the Arkansas eleven holds a slight edge in weight, while the Frogs have the advantage in speed and experience. However, both squads have only one returning letterman.

Eight men on the Arkansas squad have had college or college freshman experience. On the Razorbacks' starting line-up, three of the starters are lettermen, two of whom are junior college transfers. The remainder of the team is composed of five freshmen, two lads from the '42 Arkansas frosh team, and one squadman.

Against this team, Coach Meyer will send an eleven composed of four college lettermen, all letters won at major colleges, three freshman lettermen, two squadmen and two men with no previous college experience.

The Frogs' line will average 190 pounds; Arkansas, 189 pounds. In the backfield, the Porkers' back will outweigh the T. C. U. men six pounds to the man—171 to 165 pounds for the Frogs.

Porkers Used Four Teams. Although Arkansas alternated four teams against the Miners, it is doubtful if they will be able to do this against the Frogs. Meyer, in discussing the Hogs' opponents, said, "The Miners were not real opposition for the Arkansas team."

Opening at the ends for Arkansas will be Alton Baldwin and Lamar Dinger. Baldwin is a freshman and Dinger is a transfer from Murray Aggies. At the tackle posts will be Leon Pense and James Young. Both are junior college transfers. Young comes from Arkansas Tech and Pense hails from Northeastern Oklahoma State. Young also does all the extra point kicking.

Ewell Thompson at the tailback slot, Harold Cox and Rody Nicholas at halfbacks and Walter Davis at fullback, comprise the Arkansas backfield. Thompson was the regular quarterback for Arkansas Tech last year. Davis was another member of last year's freshman squad.

Both Cox and Nicholas are freshmen. Cox is a left footed punter, and also does most of the

There is plenty of scoring power left in the Southwest Conference. This was proved last week when three conference teams scored 48 or more points. No matter what the opposition might have been, that is plenty of tallies for any eleven to rack up.

The Texas Longhorns, by virtue of their 65-to-6 victory over the Blackland AAF, again looms as the team to win the title. This week, Coach Dana Bible's eleven receives a real test, meeting the Southwestern University team.

A fair idea of what Coach Bible has down Austin way for a championship team will be known when this game is over. It will be the top game of the week for this section, and one of the better games in the nation. An interesting sidelight of the battle will be that the teams are using identical plays.

Watch for a close battle when the Frogs and Porkers open the conference chase in Little Rock tomorrow. The Arkansas team, under the helm of Coach John Tomlin, proved that it had plenty of scoring punch by blasting out a 59-to-0 decision over Missouri Mines Saturday.

For the first time in years, Arkansas is relying upon a ground game for scores instead of the long touchdown passes. The Hogs threw but 14 passes in the entire fray, whereas in the past, the Razorbacks often chunked 14 aerials each half.

The Frogs may also depend upon their ground game to tally. In recent practice, the Frogs' ground offensive has functioned much better than their air offense. However, if needed, Jim Lucas and Arthur Teixeira can take to the air and rack up plenty of yardage for the Purple and White.

The star of the game for the Frogs may be a surprise package to most T. C. U. fans. Unheralded in early practices, this little man has really come to the front. His name is Royal James, and he hails from Abilene Christian College.

In the last intrasquad game, James made two long jaunts for touchdowns, one of them a punt return. Weighing but 155, James makes up for it with speed. He can really give the hip to his opponents when he sets off on his long journeys.

Three boys on the Frog second team have attracted the attention of the coaches with their play and may see service in the Frog-Porker engagement. All three are linemen—Owen Lease, center, Shirley Anderson and M. B. Thomas, guards. Lease comes from California, and, although he has had no previous college experience, the tall lad has really come through in great style.

For this week's prediction, this corner likes T. C. U. over Arkansas, Southwestern to edge out Texas, the Aggies to defeat Texas Tech, N. T. A. C. over S. M. U. and Rice to drop its second game to the high scoring L. S. U. outfit.

Navy Glad to See "Blue Saturday" For First Time

It was "Blue Saturday" on the T. C. U. campus six days ago, but not in the way usually referred to as when one speaks of "Blue Monday."

No, it wasn't wash day, nor the day after the night before a big prowl.

For the first time since the Navy invaded the campus last July 1, the V-12 men wore their dress blues for "Captain's Inspection."

The orders received allowing the men to wear their blues on liberty was in answer to the long asked question of the sailors, "When will we get to wear our blues?"

But although the majority of the V-12ers were happy getting to sprout their blues over the weekend, there were still a few men with envious glances. You see, they were "misfits" whose uniforms were either too big or little to permit wearing during the liberty period.

NTAC Swim Team Downs TCU, 45-28

The T. C. U. swimming team lost its first meet last Friday, dropping the encounter to N.T.A.C. The Aggies racked up 45 points to the Frogs 28.

Alastair Gill was the only T. C. U. man to win a first place. He won the diving event. Ken Mattison also took second place in this event. Other Frogs who placed in the meet were E. G. Brown, Robert Moller and S. L. Sperry.

Registrar S. W. Hutton preached at the Central Christian Church of Mineola Sunday. He was the pastor of the church five years ago, and this is the first time he has been back.

passing. Nicholas replaced Ben Jones at halfback. He tallied two touchdowns against the Miners.

Former Wogs at Ends

Bill Marshall and George Gartner, both former '42 Wog stars, will open at the end positions for the Frogs. At the tackle positions will be Capt. Clyde Flowers and Dick Smith.

Norman Morrill and Walter Harrison are slated to go at the guard spots. The pivot post will be held down by Billy Hale.

In the backfield, Jim Lucas will be at the tailback spot. At wingback will be Royal James, with Harry Gardner at the blocking back hole. Doug Carter at fullback completes the Frogs' backfield.

Pres. Sadler to Make Church Dedication Sunday

President M. E. Sadler will give the dedication address for the remodeled and enlarged First Christian Church at Little Rock, Ark., Sunday.

He spoke at the noon meeting of the Brite Chapel last Wednesday on "The Relationship between Brite College and Texas Christian University." That evening he spoke at a community fellowship supper in Greenville on "Education for Democracy."

Conclusion reached after snooping around over the week-end and the day after that yummy week-end before: "Wow!"

Naturally, all expect this column to begin with twosomes at the FRESHMAN PROM Saturday, and since it's the logical thing to do, here 'tis:

PRANCERS AT THE PROM: NEL EPPERSON and CLAY GRIFFITH looking handsome enough to lead any GRAND MARCH; LAURA KIRK twirling with JOHN GRIFFIN; BEN WHITE dating DANNIE DANENBERG; CLYDE FOLTZ and BETTYE-MAE MCGONAGILL; LEE WEBB and BOB BROWN; MAXINE COX and DICK DAVIDSON; VIRGINIA CHURCHILL and CLEVE CUL- LERS.

FRESHMAN COUPLES HITTING IT OFF: LOIS BREAKER and FRANCIS McKEE; BOBBIE RHEINLANDER and BILL BUN- DICE.

EVERYONE NOTICED: It was two orchids to KATHRYN LIGHT from BILL MICHERO; that MARY LOU MORROW and ED CORNELIUS were the long and short of it; (Incidentally Ed and Mary have decided to make it a "steady affair") that JACK GIP- SON decided the PROM needed a finale—tore down the decorations.

CHANGING THE SUBJECT OF THE PROM TO: MARY MIL- LER spending the week-end at the home of her one and only, EDDIE, and trying her skill at dove hunt- ing; TOMMY DENT singing "ALONE" these days since WAL- TER has been transferred.

CONGRATULATIONS TO: LORNA CULP, who went engagement ring shopping Wednes- day, with the lucky man, LIEUT. TRAVIS BUDLONG.

MONDAY MORNING MEMOS: "BUNDY" rushing down to the depot to see CLIFTON CAFFEY, who was passing through Fort Worth; BABS EATON getting a letter from her scientist in Aus- tin, who says he will be here next month; BETTY JEAN BLACK- WELL looking forward to seeing T. Z. HAMM this week and RAY- MOND WOOD mourning over the fact.

EXTRAS CAUGHT BY EYES AND EARS: RUTH TUCKER be- ing unique by turning up at the HOLLYWOOD escorted by none other than a CIVILIAN; KATH-ERINE WITTMAYER and CAR- LIE still ticking together even though "KATY" did lose her wrist watch Saturday night.

DIXIE WILLIAMS did all right for herself by having three differ- ent dates with three different men over the week-end, but she still has her eyes on that little sailor in her government class.

If you tell BENNIE SMITH you're cold he'll probably tell you to use the ARMSTRONG HEAT- ING SYSTEM.

WHO'S HOLDING HANDS WITH WHO AND WHERE: ELIZABETH EPPERSON and JIM LUCAS in the Drug; ALICE GALLANT and CHARLES TUL- LOS by the Bookstore.

MALE CALLS and MAIL CALL for SARA MAE SANDEFER, who rated four phone calls and a special delivery from JACK in Gal- veston last week.

TRAVELING SAILOR is RICH- ARD MOORE who will go to Ar-
