

C. R. MILLS
30 CHURCH STREET
NEW YORK

December 23rd, 1925.

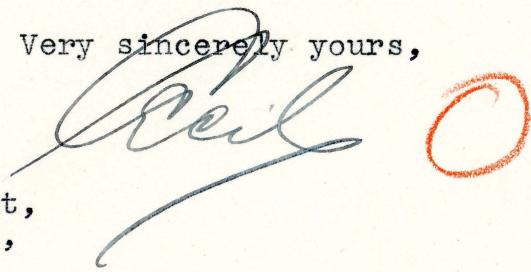

My dear Amon:-

I have been out of town, as usual, and have not had an opportunity to acknowledge your letter and newspaper clippings, but I hasten to do so now, and further, I want to express my very sincere thanks for the bag of pecans, which were received at home a few days ago. They are perfectly wonderful and all at 618 Highland Avenue join in their appreciation of your thoughtfulness.

I have been following the political affairs of Texas in the New York papers, and as a matter of fact, read with considerable interest the Governor's attack upon you and her demand for your resignation from the Board of one of the Colleges. However, I didn't take the accusation very seriously, for I think both of the Fergusons are cheap politicians and ought to be run out of office, and I made a remark at home last night that I thought you and your following would be able to accomplish it. Go to it.

I hope you all have a very Merry Christmas and Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Very sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "C. R. Mills", is written over the closing. To the right of the signature is a red circular stamp or mark.
