Fort Worth, Texas,
July 15, 1941

Honorable Harold L. Ickes,
Secretary of the Interior,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Secretary: Congratulations on the appointment of your oil committee for district three! I feel sure they will do a good job Paragraph Inasmuch as Chas. F. Roeser lives in Fort Worth and the further fact that Fort Worth is centrally located from a transportation standpoint covering the entire district we do not feel that you could possibly make a better selection for the headquarters than our city PERIOD Inasmuch as Dallas and Houston have practically every other governmental agency office we hope Fort Worth may be selected for this office. We will render every cooperation possible and hope we may have your friendly support.
