

April 21, 1943.

Mr. Tom Carrard,
Tahoka, Texas.

Dear Mr. Carrard:

Your letter of April 15 concerning Mr. Carter's son who has been reported a prisoner of war of the German government has been received during Mr. Carter's absence from the city.

It was indeed nice of you to write Mr. Carter and I am sure he will be most grateful for your sympathy and understanding in the horrible experience he has had to face, but to know that Amon Jr. is alive is good news and he is very happy irrespective of the hardships we feel he might have to endure.

Yours very truly,

Secretary to Mr. Carter.
