DOPE UNCERTAIN AS TO WHO WILL PLAY AGAINST TEXAS U.

Only One Week Until First Game; Coach Puts Men Through Hard Grind

Coach Freeland has put the football men through one continuous grind ever since he led them home from the training camp. Running, falling on the ball, charging, forward-passing, etc., was the daily program until last Saturday. Up to this day, wind and endurance were the ends chiefly sought for.

Light signal practice and tackling the dummy began last Monday. Each succeeding day more plays were added, until now the squads are beginning to show some real team-work. Scrimmage began Friday, and all, except a few who reported late, were in pretty good scrimmage form. Both squads are showing plenty of pep and fight, and both are steadily improving in team work. The students will be able to see their eleven work Saturday, when a practice game will probably be played with one of the high schools of the city.

As yet it is impossible to say who will represent T. C. U. at Texas University next Saturday, as all candidates are fighting desperately and there are two or more men out for every place. Coach Freeland is giving each man a fair chance to show his "class." As stated before, neither Coach Freeland nor his assistant, Daniels, will make any promises as to what our team is going to do. As Captain Cox said, "We do not want a 'paper' team this year. We are going to do our best to have a real football eleven." Their motto this season is "First the deeds, then the glory." It is enough to say that the boys find it a pleasure to work hard and faithfully for Freeland, Daniels and Cox; and the team turned out by these men will be the best that is possible from the material furnished.

Four more men reported to Coach Freeland the first of this week. They are: Jesse Martin, an exceptionally fast man, will try for left end. Martin played in one or two games last year; George Herd, a hard smasher, and heady player, will try for the back-

RULES GO ON CLARK HALL AND FELLOWS CLEAN UP; MINIMIZE TRIPS TO TOWN

With Coach Freeland as proctor, Albert Martin and Gayle Scott as monitors, rules went on in Clark Hall Monday. The new proctor said, "I want the boys to minimize their trips to town and I hope I shall not have to say anything about smoking about the hall." Mrs. Freeland will assist in grading the rooms and Dean Parks will pay occasional visits to the hall so everyone feels that this year will be the banner year for Clark Hall in discipline, cleanliness, and godliness.

J. W. Shockley has returned from an extended western trip.

CRAFTSMANSHIP WILL BE TAUGHT IN ARTS SCHOOL; THREE ASSISTANTS ADDED

Miss Cecil Craiger to Offer Work in Metal and Pottery; Misses Tanner and Armstrong Assist Mrs. Cockrell

A new department of craft work was established in connection with the art department of Texas Christian University by the trustees in their last session. Miss Cecil Craiger of Des Moines, Iowa, has been appointed instructor.

Miss Craiger is a typical college woman. She is a graduate of Drake University and is recognized as an accomplished artist. She will spend some time with metal work and pottery besides establishing other branches of craft work. Miss Craiger will assume her new duties this week.

The Art department is growing rapidly and is one of the largest departments in the university. Mrs. Cockrell head of the department, is to be assisted in her work this year by Miss Craiger and Misses Anna Mae Tanner and Velma Armstrong of Fort Worth. Miss Tanner is well known in Fort Worth and in T. C. U., having been a student in the university for the past three years. She is a graduate of the art department. Miss Armstrong is also an artist of ability.

BIG ENDOWMENT FUND IS READY FOR T. C. U. WHEN CLEAR OF DEBT

Campaign Started for $150,000 to Wipe Out Indebtedness of Institution

Seventy-five or eighty thousand dollars, with which to build a fine arts building for T. C. U., will be available by the university as soon as all the present indebtedness is cleared away, according to Rev. C. S. Weaver, endowment secretary of the school. This money has been pledged by a member of the board of trustees.

In order to obtain this promised endowment, the trustees have launched a campaign to raise the $150,000 which is needed to wipe out the indebtedness of all departments of the university, including the medical school.

Plans for launching a statewide campaign were formulated at meetings held by members of the board and prominent Fort Worth physicians Monday and Tuesday. The following committees were appointed: standing committee, Dr. W. R. Thompson, chairman, to select his committeemen; campaign committee, H. W. Stark of Gainesville, chairman; C. W. Gibson of Waxahachie and H. M. Durrett of Fort Worth, members. Others who attended the meetings were Rev. C. C. Weaver, Rev. E. M. Waits and Dr. Bacon Saunders.

Teams are being composed of influential Fort Worth men to conduct the city campaign. Members of the local committees will make tours of the state, visiting the Christian churches in all the large cities in the interest of the movement.

CLIMAX OF STUDENT ACTIVITIES REACHED IN BIG RECEPTION

Linguistic Tango Serves to Break the Ice Between New and Old Students

Student activities reached the climax of success and enjoyment Monday evening from eight to ten when the old students of the university were at home to the new students in the main dining hall.

The spacious room was tastefully arranged, the lack of decorations adding harmony to the simplicity of the recently tinted and monogrammed walls. Chairs sidlined the walls and were grouped around each column. From a cozy corner the university orchestra made itself a most popular feature of the evening by the rendering of pleasing and appropriate selections.

The receiving line, headed by John Keith, president of the student body, was composed of the officers of the student body and of the senior, junior and sophomore classes.

The entertainment of the evening was in the form of a "Linguistic Tango" which proved a most favorable means of new and old becoming acquainted. The program for the tango was as follows:

- When Old T. C. U.'s Team Falls in Line
- Everybody's Doing it
- Last Night Was the End of the World
- Can't You Hear Me Calling
- One Wonderful Night
- Moon, Moon, Moon
- Every Little Movement
- To Have, to Hold, to Love You
- Old Time Pepper

FRESHMAN COEDS! BUY YOUR PRESSING TICKETS NOW: SEE BUDNIPPERS

Following a parlor meeting last Friday night the Budnippers met for the first time this year. Lola McFarland presided and was elected president. The other officers are Pansy Bozeman, vice-president; Minnie Proctor, secretary-treasurer.

Immediately after the election of officers plans were formulated to be carried out at the expense of the freshmen. This was the selling of pressing tickets at ten cents a term or twenty-five cents for the entire year.

This will not be the last meeting of Budnippers, for they intend to be an active organization throughout the entire year.

UPPERCLASSMEN ELECT COUSINS FROM HILLSBORO AS PRESIDENTS FOR YEAR

Juniors and Seniors Organize; Select Representatives to Student Council

Clyde Tomlinson and Homer Tomlinson, cousins from Hillsboro, were elected to head the senior and junior classes respectively at meetings held by the upper classmen last week.

Other officers chosen by the 1916 class were Horace Jones, vice president; Lola McFarland, secretary-treasurer; and Joe McNamara, sergeant-at-arms.

Other officers elected by the juniors for the coming session are Gayle Scott, vice president, and Una Stark, secretary-treasurer. The juniors are already talking about the big banquet at which they will be hosts to the seniors later on in the year.

Members of the Student Council were also elected by the upper classes at separate meetings held this week. Each of the upper classes are entitled to two representatives on the Council. The senior members are Raymond Fox and Horace Jones. The junior representatives are Miss Ora Leveridge and William Jones.

Mrs. Smiser joined her husband in Goode Hall Saturday.

ORGANIZATIONS WILL NOT ASSESS MEMBERS FOR PICTURES IN 1916 FROG

Annual Will Cost Students $5 Net on the Installment Plan, Including All Photographic Work

Profiting by the experience of last year's Horned Frog makers, this year's management is planning a new system of conducting the annual's business.

The following announcement issued by the Horned Frog staff explains the new method of paying for the book:

There has been a change in the way of paying for the Horned Frog this year. Formerly the book cost $3.50 aside from the organization pictures, such as class, literary societies, etc. These made the total cost of each annual from $5.50 to $7, according to the number of pictures made for the Frog. The Horned Frog is not published as a speculation, neither manager nor editor receiving any compensation for his labor. All that the senior class asks is that they shall not lose any money on the book and by setting the price at $5—which is positively every cent that it will cost—we hope to come out even

FINE ARTS FACULTY OPENS SEASON WITH SPLENDID RECITAL

Both New and Old T.C.U. Artists Charm Large Audience By Their Interpretations

The faculty of the Fine Arts department appeared before a large audience Tuesday evening in a most artistic recital. The first number was a splendid reading of a Beethoven Sonata in two movements, by Mr. Cahoon and Mr. Casperson. They maintained a splendid ensemble throughout.

Miss Wilson's brilliant rendition of Caprice Espagnol by Moskowski showed careful study and wonderful interpretation.

The beautiful quality of Mr. Hamilton's voice was fully appreciated when he sang with such wonderful tone and splendid diction: I Love Thee—Grieg, Moonlight night—Schumann, Irish Love—Song.

When we hear Miss Powell exercise her splendid ability in reading, at once we recognize her to be a great artist in her line. The reading, Romance, —Davies, was fully enjoyed.

T. C. U. audiences are always charmed when Mrs. Cahoon makes her appearance. She has a very attractive and pleasing personality and sings with perfect ease; Star, —Rogers; Summer, Chrominade. She was so pleasing that a loud applause compelled her to respond to an encore.

Mr. Lewis Casperson is indeed artistic in his manner of playing. No one could have rendered more pleasingly the Lotus Loud, —Cyril Scott; Sonata et Musette, —D'Albert; and Etude (The Brook) Schutt.

The entire program showed careful study and preparation.

Ted Robinson, general manager of Washer Bros. was a pleasant visitor in the university last week, meeting his large number of friends on the hill and making new acquaintances. Ted has offered to erect a splendid new bulletin board in the hall of the Administration building.

WHO WAS THE GOAT AT FRESHMAN ELECTION: Wm. BUTTS FLEECY OR FISH?

Upperclassmen Find Steam Roller Unnecessary in Manipulating Election of Angora as Prexy

In accordance with a time-honored tradition of T. C. U., a meeting of the freshman class was called last Saturday at one o'clock by the president of the junior class, Homer Tomlinson.

After calling the meeting to order Tomlinson stated that the purpose was to elect a president for the class of 1919, and called for nominations.

Willis McGregor, a member of the junior class, arose and stated that it had been the practice among the upperclassmen in T. C. U. to interfere with the freshman election and choose a negro janitor or some such person for president of the new class. The juniors on this occasion, however, would see that no such thing was done, he continued. In order to make sure, he had in mind a man who was peculiarly fitted for the high honor of freshman president because of his aggressiveness, his strong will and his ability to hold this own with the rabble. He therefore placed in nomination the name of William Butts Fleecy of Fort Worth.

Immediately a motion was carried to close nominations, and a further motion to declare Mr. Fleecy elected by acclamation was carried enthusiastically.

At this juncture Mr. Fleecy was called for, and soon appeared, conducted by Dave Tudor and Clyde Arnsperger, Custodians of the Freshman Goat.

The newly elected president was placed on the chapel platform, but being overwhelmed with honor, seemed disinclined to make a speech, his vocabulary being limited to ba-a-a. Accordingly the meeting was adjourned and he was conveyed out to the front of the main building to pose for his picture.

He bore two placards done in green with the legend: "William B. Fleecy, president freshies."

Learn the Yells

Enthusiasm and never-failing support of the student body is vital to the success of any college activity. College night demonstrated clearly the fact that the spirit of enthusiastic vim, vigor and vitality inaugurated by John Keith, the fiery gladiator who heads the Students' Association, has thoroughly permeated the entire student body. It is only necessary that this pep continue to insure a hearty backing to the purple and white football team this fall.

In order that all the new members of the university can get into the fun and help stir up things, a number of the old varsity yells are given below. It is urged that everyone who does not already know these yells clip them out and learn them at once.

Several new yells are being composed for the approaching season, but these old ones are always used. Learn them and be ready to get in the game.

That Old T. C. U. Team

When that old T. C. U. team falls in line,
We're going to win again another time,
For the 'Varsity we'll yell, yell yell,
For the football team we love so well,
well, well!
We're goin' to fight, fight, fight for every score,
Circle ends and then we'll win some more,
And we'll roll old Baylor in the sod,
rah, rah, rah!

About Our Coach

Charles M. Ashmore of Brownwood, former student of T. C. U., in a letter to Miss Nell Andrew, librarian, calls Coach Ewing Freeland a man among men. The following extract from his letter is encouraging:

"We trust that his success this year as coach may be as great as he is an all round man and that not only physical strength under the instruction of a faithful and persistent man among men but that his efforts for a clean life among men, together with his other qualifications, may be crowned with success.

"With our good wishes to the boys on the gridiron and diamond, we express our faith in you, with Coach Freeland leading you, to win everything this year."

Letters for Orators

J. H. McBRIDE

T. C. U., in company with all other universities, has three great fields in which student-development is effected: the class room, the athletic field and the platform of public speech. For sufficient reason, she is properly proud of the men who rise to a commanding position in any of these fields.

In order to develop such leaders, incentive is necessary; reward being, probably, the strongest motif in human achievement.

With this thought in mind the trustees of this school offer a substantial prize to the most meritorious student in each class. As a result, a very high grade of class room work is done.

Again, in order that more men and better men may report for places on the various athletic teams, a much coveted honor is awarded to those who make good. To the leaders in the field of athletics the prize is the letter "T," representative of this institution.

Certainly T. C. U. is just as proud of the men who represent her in the various public-speaking contests as she is of those composing the different athletic teams. It is now time that this pride should be concretely expressed. The giving of letters in the field of public-speaking would put such work in its proper place; and, in so doing, would strengthen the whole university. With a "T" as a possible reward, the now weakest department of student activity would become one of the strongest.

The creation of a public-speaking council, with power to award necessary letters—following the lead of most other universities—will, we hope result from this article.

If you, my reader are in favor of this already proved-up plan, then give it your hearty, and active support. In this movement, an opportunity to help your Alma Mater to better and bigger things is offered you! Do not fail to show your interest in her.

Trinity Has Nothing on T. C. U.

A special news item to the Fort Worth Star-Telegram says:

"Four members of the family of R. Campbell of Olney, Texas, entered Trinity University. This is said to be the greatest number of children from one family to enter any Texas university."

The Skiff wants the world to know that Trinity University or any other school hasn't anything on T. C. U. when it comes to family representation. T. C. U. has four members of one family enrolled in its classes this year who were also students here last year. They are Misses Ora and Della Leveridge and Aubrey and Heywood Leveridge of East Bernard, Texas.

College Press Editor

The Skiff is indebted to Alden Evans of the staff for his work as college press editor. Evans will send out exchange news bulletions to the other college papers each week in connection with his duties as publicity agent for the university.

Using Transferred Men

Southern Methodist University of Dallas will not be able to use her transfer students—men who have left other colleges and football teams of the association in the games which she is to play this season, according to a ruling passed by the T. I. A. A. last week.

This first year rule will cut out six transfer players from Southwestern University, one from Daniel Baker and one from Rice.

T. C. U. meets S. M. U. in Fort Worth Oct. 9, during the style show celebration.

Friends of T. C. U.

ALDEN EVANS

Fort Worth has two newspapers she can justly be proud of. In these papers T. C. U. has two priceless friends. Since T. C. U. first moved to the Panther City it has been advertised, backed and boosted by the Fort Worth Record and the Fort Worth Star-Telegram. Both of these papers have been friends to T. C. U. more ways than one. When the trustees of the university were thinking about moving the university from Waco to this city, the papers got behind the movement, both of them, and helped push it along and put T. C. U. where she is today. One of the owners of the paper contributed several thousand dollars out of his personal funds to get T. C. U. here. He did this only to help the city and to help T. C. U.

Publicity is the thing. It means as much to T. C. U. as it does to any business, corporation, firm or anything else which depends upon the public for support. These papers realizing this, have rendered a great service daily to T. C. U. T. C. U. never asked a favor of either of them but what it found them ready to do all they asked and more. Not so much as one small item of news was ever turned down by the editor of either paper if it was about T. C. U. Time and time again they have said they would publish all the news and be glad to do so.

Each paper has a daily circulation of about 40,000 and each has a semi-weekly circulation of about 50,000. These papers are read in every home in Fort Worth and practically in every city in the state. Think of their influence. How much good have they done

T. C. U.? How many students have been made to think of T. C. U. by reading stories about T. C. U. in their columns? Think it over. Then let every one of us be friends to those who are our friends.

There never was a paper who stood behind a university more loyally than the Record and the Star-Telegram have stood behind T. C. U. The Skiff, in behalf of every student, and every friend of the university, wishes to thank them both for what they have done for us and what they have done to forward Christian education.

Chapel Four Days a Week: Thursday for Bible College

Regular chapel exercises are being held only four days each week this year. There is no chapel on Monday, and on Thursday the Brite Bible College is having exercises in its chapel. In order that those who are required to be present at these exercises may attend them it was arranged that chapel in the main building should be discontinued at that time. All students who take work in the Bible College, however, are expected to attend the chapel exercises in the Brite Bible College building on Thursday of each week.

Y. W. C. A. WILL HAVE EVERY GIRL A MEMBER

The name Young Women's Christian Association is so familiar that it is often repeated mechanically without a full understanding of the high intent and scientific methods. Today the national board of Young Women's Christian Association represents 196 city associations with a membership of 171,246, 667 student associations with a membership of 54,369, and twelve industrial or rural associations, making a total of 228,590 young women throughout the country in addition to the countless numbers who are reached in one way or another.

The purpose of any association is to advance the physical, intellectual, social and spiritual interests of young women. The Association maintains that every girl, irrespective of environment or social position, needs help, and that every girl can give help. It merely provides the opportunity for this mutual service.

The student association in all its forms is an inevitable and voluntary outgrowth of the religious life of the students. The Christian leaders in the world are generally college men and women. The student association gives a certain preliminary training to those who are to be the leaders in the church or college work, in society, in philanthropy, in association work itself.

The T. C. U. association bids the new girls welcome. Join our ranks and help us realize the fulfillment of our motto: "Every girl a member."

Waltons Show New Girls Jolly Time at the Park

Last Monday the Waltons entertained the new girls with a picnic at Forest Park from four until six. This was the first time many of the new girls had visited the park and after a while of roaming around, lunch prepared by the Walton girls was served to about fifty five.

All declared they had a most enjoyable time. The party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Batson, Mrs. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Cahoon.

Clarks Honor New Girls With Feast in Jarvis Hall

Saturday evening from 8:00 till ten, the new girls in Jarvis Hall were honored guests at a Clark feast on first and second floors. Eats were plentiful, and all homesickness and blues were dispelled, each girl participating in an all round jolly good time.

After the disappearance of the eats, all adjourned to the parlors, where stunts, music and fun passed the fleeting moments till the warning wink of the lights.

Vida Montgomery of Colorado is back at work in the art department.

Allen A. Agnew, T. C. U. student in 1913, now of the Risser clerk staff and Miss Virgie Twyman were married at the bride's home in Ravenna last week. J. H. Monk, pastor of the Riverside Christian church and student in the Brite Bible College, who was holding a meeting in Ravenna at the time, performed the marriage ceremony.

COLLEGE LIFE IS REAL LIFE; LIVE IT WISELY

This Is Message Given by Rev. C. S. Weaver in Convocation Sermon

Rev. C. S. Weaver, endowment secretary for the university, formerly foreign missionary, lately closing a great work as pastor of the Texarkana Christian Church, delivered the convocation sermon last Sunday evening to the student body and friends of the University.

Rev. Weaver very forcefully brought the lesson to the students of the value of their time and that now is the time for them to have a part in the world affairs by doing now the task set before them. He spoke of how the student may think his work may be in the future but not so, it is today and demands his best.

He told of the uselessness of the life without Christ. No matter how good the grades, the student who passes out of school without Christ as his guide has already failed. He told them how Christ did not check their progress but encouraged and helped it and in his closing remarks bade them as young men and young women looking into the brightness of the future to let Him who ever guides safely lead them.

Scholarships Awarded

C. I. A. Girls This Year

(By College Press)

C. I. A., Sept. 22, 1915.—There are three scholarships offered to the college of Industrial Arts this year. Miss Grace Root received the one offered by the Mary Eleanor Brackenridge Club, Miss Lillie Belle Grubbs, the one offered by the Grubbs Scholarship committee; Miss Eloise Trigg, the one offered by the Texas Farm Women.

16 New Insructors

(By College Press)

C. I. A., Sept. 22, 1915.—The great increase in the number of faculty of the college of Industrial Arts is one of the best evidences of its growth. There have been sixteen new instructors added to the already strong faculty of last year.

Earl Rogers, '12, stopped over in Fort Worth on his way to the Medical school at Galveston. Of course he visited his Alma Mater.

Juniors Will Assist This Year's Staff in Getting Out Year Book

Shirley Sweeney was elected assistant editor-in-chief of the 1916 Horned Frog by members of the junior class at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon. Willis McGregor of Fort Worth was chosen to assist as manager.

The election of these men this year means that they will serve as editor-in-chief and business manager of the Frog in 1917. They will work in connection with this year's management in order to become acquainted with the work, thus making it easier for them next year.

Sweeney will be of most value in the art work on this year's annual, being an artist of some ability

A New Yell Leader

The following announcement has been received at T. C. U.: "Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Stevenson Jr. are glad to announce the arrival of Glenn Edward on Aug. 13. Weight 8 pounds."

All the old friends of T. C. U. will remember the most popular yell leader T. C. U. has ever had, Miss Amy Wood, Sherwood, Texas, sister of J. Lindley Wood. We hope Glen Edward will make even a better yell leader, if it could be possible.

3 Carloads of Students Enjoy Get Acquainted Social at Van Zandt's

Three carloads of students from the university and a large number from the city enjoyed the "get-acquainted" reception given at the home of Maj. K. M. Van Zant, 800 Penn street, last Friday evening by the First Christian church in honor of the student body and faculty of T. C. U.

A program including a piano solo by Mr. Pitner, several vocal selections by Mrs. Cahoon and a reading by Miss Powell, was thoroughly enjoyed by more than 500 guests who were present on the occasion.

The punch booth, secluded spots on the beautiful lawn, and the walk to the river were the most popular places of diversion during the evening. Refreshments of ice cream, sherbert and cake were served by the ladies of the First church.

Dr. Gumm to Deliver Speech at "Y" Banquet

On next Monday evening, Sept. 27, Dr. Gumm will make the presentation speech at the annual banquet of the Fort Worth Y. M. C. A., at which time medals will be awarded to winners of the Twilight League, and city athletics will be boosted.

T. C. U.'s—we introduce The Stogie.

The ministerial boarding club has been duly organized. The first meeting of the council was held last Monday night. All affairs of the club are being rapidly and well adjusted.

First Christian and Magnolia Avenue Christian Churches Invite College People to Their Meetings

In response to the invitations given in chapel the first week of school a large number of T. C. U. students attended Sunday school and preaching services at the First Christian and the Magnolia Avenue Christian churches the following Sunday. A special car was provided to carry those who wished to go to the Magnolia Avenue church, while those who attended the First Christian went on the regular car.

Thursday, Sept. 16, representatives of these churches were present at chapel and gave the students a most cordial invitation to be with them for the morning services each Sunday. The officers of the university had decided that for the best interests of the school the Sunday Bible classes, which had hitherto been held in the university buildings each Sunday morning, should be discontinued in order that the students and faculty might join their forces with the city churches. Having heard of this decision, the Christian churches of the city sent representatives out to invite us to hold our worship with them.

The evenings of each Sunday will be filled with various religious services, sometimes preaching service, at other times meetings conducted by the Endeavor or other religious organizations. These services will be held in the Brite Bible College chapel.

T. C. U. MEDICAL SCHOOL OPENS WITH 100 STUDENTS

Keith and Cox Invite Closer Connection Between Medics and Academics

Opening exercises of the medical department of Texas Christian University were held Monday morning before a large crowd.

Dr. J. H. McLean, representing the State Board of Health, declared the institution stands in "Grade A" in every respect. City Prosecutor, Claude McCaleb, representing Mayor Tyra, paid a high tribute to the school.

John Keith, president of the T. C. U. Students Association spoke on "Closer Connection Between the Medical Students and the Students of the University," John P. Cox, captain of the foot-ball team, talked on athletics in connection with the "Bone-setters" and university students.

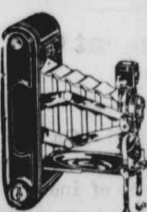

Talks were also made by Dean Woodard of the medical school, Dr. F. D. Boyd and Dean Parks.

Music was furnished by the T. C. U. orchestra.

About one hundred are enrolled in the medical department. Lectures and laboratory work began Tuesday.

This Is the Life
College Days
U Are the Ideal of My Dreams

Filling of programs absorbed exciting moments, after which the twelve dances of fifteen minutes each seemed to pass all too hurriedly for the crowd of students who were so pleasant and appreciative of the occasion.

Delicious punch was served throughout the evening.

The enjoyment of the reception was thorough, and its purpose, the bringing into closer ties the old and new students was fully and successfully realized.

Racquetters Organize: First Tournament of the Year to Be Next Week

The following officers were elected for the Tennis Association for 1916: Clyde Tomlinson, president; Paul Pirkle vice-president; W. H. Batson, secretary-treasurer; Coach Cahoon, manager.

It was decided that after Saturday no one would be allowed on the courts except members. About twelve new men have joined the association and as many more are expected. A resolution passed to the effect that the association would send the two best players in school to the intercollegiate meet in the spring.

The first tournament of the year will begin next week for the purpose of deciding who will be on the tennis team. The team consists of the five best men, and as there about eight good players, there will be some warm competitions for positions.

William Jones Gives Opening School Address

William Jones of the Brite Bible College, who is filling the appointment at Duncansville, gave the opening address for the Duncansville High School Monday morning. He spoke at the invitation of the principal.

KEEN RIVALRY BETWEEN SOCIETIES AT MEETINGS

Indications Point to Big Year in Literary Work; Meeting Time Unsettled

Joint open sessions—the first meetings of the year—were held by the Add-Ran-Clark and Shirley-Walton Literary Societies Wednesday night, Sept. 22.

In a blaze of light and color the four organizations took up the work of this new year. Enthusiasm, of the deeper, truer kind was everywhere apparent; and if promise breeds fulfillment, one of the big years in the history of T. C. U. societies is just ahead.

A well-balanced, enjoyable program was the feature of each meeting. Little besides entertainment was attempted, although the Add-Rans held a short business session before adjourning.

The time is premature now for a list of new members or pledges; but it is safe to assert that both quantity and quality have been secured in each case.

A new time of meeting is now the most important question before the various societies, the six-day class schedule having made Monday morning impossible. This matter will be attended to at once.

The present year promises to be one of friendly but persistent rivalry between the societies.

Gumm to Speak at Arlington

Dr. Gumm has accepted an invitation from the mayor and city clubs of Arlington to speak Friday evening, Sept. 24, on the subject of "The Progressive City."
