Fort Worth, Texas.

Honorable Thomas K. Finletter,
Secretary for Air
Washington, D.C.

We are delighted to know you will be the speaker at the national convention of the Air Reserve Association in Fort Worth September 29 PERIOD It will be a pleasure to have you as my guest at the Fort Worth Club where many of your friends and associates have been stopping in the past. Will be pleased to know how many in your party so arrangements can be made accordingly. We are looking forward with pleasure to having you with us.

AMON CARTER,

Mr. Carter:

Mr. Finletter's secretary called in response to your inquiry as to how many his party would consist of for his arrival in Fort Worth to address the Air Reserve Association.

Thomas K. Finletter, Secretary of the Air Force

John A. McCone, Under Secretary of the Air Force

Mrs. Margo Mitchell, Mr. Finletter's daughter

Terence Lee, Assistant to Mr. McCone

Colonel Moomaw, Pilot and Executive Assistant to Mr. Finletter

Major Burris, Secretary to Mr. Finletter.

They are scheduled to arrive right after lunch on Thursday, September 28. Major Burris says they will be busy at the Air Field most of the afternoon and will not come into the Club until they have finished their business at the Field. He estimated it would probably be around 6 o'clock. If there are any changes in their plans you will be notified.
