Dear Amon:

In regard to the Recruiting Advertizing Account in the Fourth Army Area for the Fiscal Year 1948, I have appointed a board of three officers, the president of which is Colonel Brendau Greeley, to go over the brochures submitted by the various companies and to confer with representatives of those companies. The purpose of the board is to select the company it feels will give the greatest amount and the best service in the interest of recruiting a volunteer Army.

Mr. James McBride has had the account for the past year and has given us excellent service. He has indicated that he will come to San Antonio when the board meets early in May to present his proposed program. I assure you that he will receive every consideration consistant with fairness and good judgement.

Sincerely yours,

J. M. WAINWRIGHT
