

OFFICE OF PRESIDENT
309 WEST JACKSON BOULEVARD

CHICAGO,

March 25, 1943.

Personal:

Dear Amon:

I just received the front sheet of the Fort Worth-Star Telegram of March 11th and, needless to say, was shocked to note that Amon, Jr. is missing in action in North Africa. You have my sincere sympathy and I only hope the news is not as bad as it appears.

I know how difficult it is for people who have sons and daughters in the service, particularly at the front, and the only consolation one like yourself might get out of it is that you can be proud of your son for whatever fate holds in store for him, he went down fighting instead of in some swivel chair.

Ide wanted me to be sure and send her love to you, in which I join her. Do you ever get to Chicago? If you do, please be sure to at least give me a ring.

Our best to you always!

Sincerely,

Mr. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth Star-Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas.

P.S. It won't be long before cherry time is upon us. Ide wants me to send you a box with her compliments. Where are you going to be?

P.H.J.
