

April 2, 1937.

Mr. Albert Keller, President,
Ritz-Carlton Hotel,
Madison & 46th St.,
New York City, N.Y.

Dear Albert:

Your telegram received. It is my plan now to arrive in New York either the afternoon of the Fifteenth or Sixteenth. So, please make my reservations, as previously requested, accordingly.

Upon my arrival I will make arrangements for the dinner, April 23rd, as per my telegram.

With best wishes, I am,

Sincerely,
