

April 7, 1933.

Mr. Will Rogers,
Beverly Hills, Calif.

Dear Will:

This will introduce to you Mr. Chas. A. Jones, a good ol' substantial Texan, who is unfortunately now residing in Los Angeles.

Mr. Jones' son, Clifford B. Jones, is the General Manager of the Spur Ranch consisting of about 430,000 acres in Dickens, Kent, Crosby and Garza Counties in West Texas. This ranch is owned by S. M. Swenson and Sons and is being cut up into smaller farms and ranches. Mr. Jones' father has been with the Swensons in New York offices and I would like very much to have you know him and Mr. Jones to know you. I am sure the acquaintanceship would be mutually interesting.

I am sending Mr. Jones a copy of this letter and asking him to present it to you the next time he sees you.

I am leaving here again for Washington Saturday and will be gone a week or ten days.

Hoping you are all well and happy and with best wishes, I remain

Sincerely,

AGC:KD
