

MONNIG DRY GOODS COMPANY

WHOLESALE DISTRIBUTORS

P. O. BOX 2200

FORT WORTH, TEXAS 76101

OSCAR E. MONNIG
VICE PRESIDENT

817 332-7211
1621 MAIN STREET

A recent Macro-Spinner Recovery from the Glometa N.M. fall

C# = 1058 356

"Sword shape"

found since 1884

sword shaped one found 1-19-54 on the so-called Apache Canyon Ridge near Canoncito in an area searched by Salby + Leonard in 1947. Densely wooded driveway area searched again by Paul W Healy, Salby + others.

L. O'Leary stumbled over it while forcing his way thru a patch of brush. Thought it a crushed piece of paper 25 1/4 6 1/2 in 13th day material brown surface. long just

One specimen cut 1 area several of in color + found of a blue steel gun barrel. Taken to Santa Fe, + examined by Salby 1-27-54
by O'Leary

Material octahedral like Glometa

Attaganite + Pejozque belong to the fall.

8 ft from 2+3 not > 45-10' from large ones	# 1	148.5 lb
	2	115
	3	53.5
	4	2.65
	5	2.48
	6	2.31
	7	?

Embri contains describes a flat or cone shaped 23' cm long piece cross section 4 cm in each direction at the widest part. Residual brown ex. thin

Some problematic(?) but not this one. No translate