

October 3, 1942.

Honorable John N. Garner,
Uvalde, Texas.

Dear Mr. Garner:

The President was here Monday and I had about a thirty minute visit with him. The first thing he told me was that he had stopped off to see you. Naturally I was pleased and delighted and, frankly, he seemed pleased himself.

I had Admiral Ross McIntire, Steve Early, Grace Tully and Capt. McCrea for lunch at the Club and we had considerable discussion about you, all of which was complimentary.

I just ran across a Stetson hat of mine that, although I have worn it a few times, I don't have an opportunity to wear it all the time. I am therefore taking the liberty of sending it to you and hope you will not take exception to the fact that I wore it as I would be glad to wear one of your old hats anytime you will turn one over to me.

Amon Junior is in the First Armored Division in Northern Ireland and I may have a chance to see him before long.

With best wishes to you and Mrs. Garner and with the hope that you are both well and fine, I remain

Sincerely,

AGC.KD
