COMMITTEE ON ARMED SERVICES

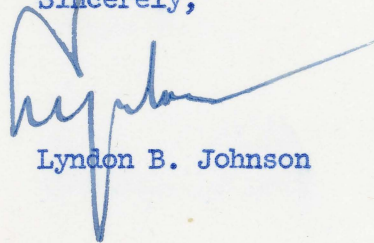

October 18, 1951

Dear Amon:

This is just a short note to thank you for the excellent editorial contained in the Fort Worth Star Telegram of October 14, which has to do with the speech I made in Dallas. I have received a number of very complimentary letters which lead me to believe that Texas people think just about as I do, but it is certainly encouraging to see editorial material.

With warm personal regards, I am

Sincerely,

Lyndon B. Johnson
