OBVIOUSLY, football games are no place for shouting political sentiments.

* * *

BUT we're of the opinion that President Walton of A. & M. was somewhat too hasty when he had Amon Carter of Fort Worth removed from Kyle Field, College Station, Thursday.

* * *

CARTER, just behind Governor Miriam Ferguson's box, was crying, "Ray for the Aggies and Dan Moody!" For that he was put off the field.

* * *

"MA" might have welcomed the opportunity of hearing Carter's shouts as a means of seasoning her ears for more startling cries yet to come.
