Dear Mrs. Yardley:

The pictures were sent to you to keep and for fear that copies would not be very good, I am sending you two each of those you refer to in which your son appears so that you may pass them on to your sisters. The boys all look as though they are in fairly good condition and we were very pleasantly surprised. If I have sent you the wrong pictures, please let me know.

With best wishes, I am

Yours very truly,

Secy. to A. G. Carter.
