Dear Mr. Carter:

The other day I received a very pleasant surprise in the form of a copy of the Special Texas Edition - Garner of Texas, and of course the value was greatly enhanced by the fact that you were so thoughtful in remembering me and in autographing the copy.

Although at this date I have not completely read the book, I do think that Bascom Timmons did an excellent job, and I find there are many interesting facts with which I was not familiar, as well as refreshed my memory on some of the events of my acquaintance.

I have always admired Mr. Garner immensely and am very proud to have this special copy. There is one other book I will look forward to seeing published and that is "Carter of Texas" - for after all you are certainly among the truly great in a great State.

Many thanks for your thoughtful gift.

Sincerely your friend,
