His Glory Marches On

[to the tune of glory glory Hallelujah]

1 There's one place in the U.S.A. that we all love the best.
It's not upon the Eastern Shore and yet not too far west.
We'd love to live in Texas just to take a good long rest,
But Whiteman Marches On.

2 There's one man here in Texas who's the salt of good old earth.
He's got his honest eye on everybody in Fort Worth.
He's got a lofty stature and a broad and manly girth.
His Glory Marches On.

[Refrain]

3 He gives away Ten Gallon Hats and boots and Saddles free.
He put a mortgage on his farm to take us on a spree.
He got us drunk on good old Southern Hospitality
His Glory Marches On.

4 We're going to lose a comrade when we have to say [farewell.
We love our old P.W. but we love A.C. as well
If Carter don't make Heaven then we'll have a friend in
His Glory Marches On. [well.

(Refrain - to be sung after 2nd and last verse)

Here's to good old Amon Carter

His "glory" marches on.
