

TENNESSEAN NEWSPAPERS, INC.

NASHVILLE

September 27, 1945

SILLIMAN EVANS
PRESIDENT AND PUBLISHER

THE NASHVILLE TENNESSEAN
FOUNDED 1812
MORNING AND SUNDAY

Mr. Amon G. Carter, Publisher
FORT WORTH STAR TELEGRAM
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Mr. Carter:

It was as of the days before the war. You have always given famous parties, and the one last Wednesday night was one of the tops I have ever seen you give. I appreciate your invitation to me and enjoyed it so much -- maybe some of it too much. But in the atmosphere of Shady Oaks and in the mellow spirit of old friends, I had a grand time.

I also enjoyed the boat trip. I had never seen Eagle Dam Lake nor had I ever had the pleasure of riding on "West Texas." She is a fine craft, and the refreshments, both solid and liquid, were nourishing and warming.

I may say that all the other fellows had a great time.

The Dallas party was good. Fred Florence handled himself well. It was a typical Dallas party, tame and Dallas-wise.

Sincerely,

Silliman Evans

